Hiroshi Sugimoto ,2015 Water and air These primordial substances which make possible all life on earth are the subject of Hiroshi Sugimoto's Seascapes series For over thirty years Sugimoto has traveled the world photographing its seas producing a body of work that is an extended meditation on the passage of time and the natural history of the earth Sugimoto has called photography the fossilization of time and the Seascapes photographs simultaneously capture a discrete moment in time but also evoke a feeling of timelessness This volume the second in a series of books on Sugimoto's art presents the complete series of over 200 Seascapes some of which have never before been reproduced All are identical in format with the horizon line precisely bifurcating each image though at times the sea and sky almost merge into one seamless unit Each photograph captures a moment when the sea is placid almost flat Within this strict format however he has created a limitless array of portraits of his subjects An essay by Munesuke Mita Professor of Sociology at the University of Tokyo examines contemporary art through a sociological lens comparing the recent history of art with mathematical predictions of population growth He connects Sugimoto s body of work to this unique analysis of the art world Readings in the Anthropocene Sabine Wilke,Japhet Johnstone,2017-09-21 Readings in the Anthropocene brings together scholars from German Studies and beyond to interpret the German tradition of the last two hundred years from a perspective that is mindful of the challenge posed by the concept of the Anthropocene This new age of man unofficially pronounced in 2000 holds that humans are becoming a geological force in shaping the Earth s future Among the biggest challenges facing our future are climate change accelerated species loss and a radical transformation of land use What are the historical philosophical cultural literary and artistic responses to this new concept The essays in this volume bring German culture to bear on what it means to live in the Anthropocene from a historical ethical and aesthetic perspective Sugimoto Hiroshi
