His Own People Booth Tarkington, 2022-11-20 Reproduction of the original His Own People Booth Tarkington, 2009-01 To remember Monsieur Robert Russ Mellin he promise to come to tea Hotel Magnifique Roma at five o'clock Thursday So read the awkwardly worded calling card he pulled from his pocket the card that brought him here to this chandelier brightened room where he looked around with the pleasurable joy of recognition with the knowledge that here here was where he belonged among the gentle the polished the refined and the beautiful Europe had been his goal so long and his hopes for pleasure grew high when he actually neared its shining horizon But disappointment was there to meet him during the first stages of his journey London his first stopping place gave him a few dreadful days He knew nobody and had not understood how heavily sheer loneliness something he never felt before would weigh down his spirits But on his way to Paris something happened It was as though a light had been turned on and now glowing promise seemed to fill his entire life
