Historic Cumbria Off Beaton Track:

Historic Cumbria Beth & Steve Pipe, 2015-10-15 This fascinating selection of photographs and walks takes us through the Cumbrian region tracing the human stories and the secretive paths of this beautiful landscape Cumbria's Prehistoric Monuments Adam Morgan Ibbotson, 2021-07-16 Cumbria is a land built from stone Whether it is Hadrian's Wall Kendal Castle or the beautiful fells of the Lake District for thousands of years people have found a certain elegance and utility in stone Nestled amongst these common relics are a multitude of massive stone monuments built over 3 000 years before British shores were ever touched by Roman sandals Cumbria's megalithic monuments are among Europe's greatest and best preserved ancient relics but are often poorly understood and rarely visited This updated and revised edition of Cumbria's Prehistoric Monuments aims to dispel the idea that these stones are merely mysterious Within this book you will find credible answers using up to date research excavation notes maps and diagrams to explore one of Britain's richest archaeological landscapes Featuring stunning original photography and illustrated diagrams of every megalithic site in the county Adam Morgan Ibbotson invites you to take a journey into a land sculpted by ancient hands 50 Gems of Cumbria Beth & Steve Pipe, 2017-04-15 This beautifully photographed selection of fifty of the county's most precious assets shows what makes Cumbria great Stand-up Paddleboarding in the Lake District Jo Moseley, 2024-05-02 Stand up Paddleboarding in the Lake District is the essential guide for anyone interested in discovering and enjoying this popular sport at its leading UK location the stunning Lake District National Park Jo Moseley passionate paddleboarder and adventurer advocate writes with a friendly voice about her SUP experiences you'll really feel like you're out on the water with her Take to the gentle shores of Grasmere stopping for a picnic along the way appreciate the majestic scenery on a paddle across Derwent Water enjoy sunset from your board at Buttermere or traverse the remote and rugged Wast Water it's up to you how adventurous you want to be You will be sure to see an entirely different side of the Lakes out on the water on your paddleboard There is detailed practical information provided for each lake you'll discover the best launch spots where to paddle to once you're out on the water how to get to the lake where to stop for a well earned coffee and cake afterwards and where to stay for your own SUP adventure The book is illustrated with stunning photography and handy maps are provided of the lakes so you can visualise the landscape Jo also takes you through essential safety advice how to choose your paddle and board what to carry with you and some top tips for if you want to SUP with a pup Also Jo discusses how to enjoy this sport in as low impact a way as possible with everything from sustainable travel choices to biosecurity Writing History 7-11 Hilary Cooper, 2014-06-05 Writing History 7-11 supports students and primary teachers helping them to explore ways in which activities involving the talk that underpins historical enquiry can be developed into reading and exciting extended reflective writing The step that teachers and pupils take from talk for learning to talk for writing is a vital one In this book the authors argue that all aspects of historical enquiry leading to writing involve discussion and dialogue which permeate every aspect of doing history From this perspective they set out a theoretical framework for understanding the role of talk and reading in developing pupils critical thinking and confident reflective writing then demonstrate through a series of case studies in which teachers university lecturers and pupils work together how the theory is put into practice in the classroom Themes include How to support children in writing in a variety of interesting genres How to make links between the National Curriculum 2013 for History and for English How to plan for breadth and depth studies in the new National Curriculum How activities in History 5 11 can be developed into exciting extended writing The second half of the book draws upon case studies from a number of real primary classrooms with children of different ages Each case study shows how teaching was planned to develop children s confidence and enjoyment in discussion and to scaffold reasoned written explanation and argument Topics presented are all relevant to the new curriculum framework and include talking and reading about Time change and significance over 6000 years writing a television script Celtic Britain and the Roman Army writing a travel brochure about Celtic Britain The destruction of Roman towns writing a Saxon poem An archaeological investigation of a body in a Danish peat bog writing a newspaper report Did any countries benefit from WW11 writing an argued viewpoint The expansion westwards of European settlers writing a flap book exploring different perspectives This indispensable book provides not only sources for pupils to use in their writing but also models and exemplars of different styles and voices to draw upon A
