History, Genealogical and Biographical, of the Eaton Families (Classic Reprint) Nellie Zada Rice Molyneux,2015-07-05 Excerpt from History Genealogical and Biographical of the Eaton Families I do not suppose that I have avoided all mistakes in a work of this kind it would not be strange of there should be inaccuracies Town county and family records are the authorities which I have depended upon Tradition says that the Eatons were Britons That when Caesar first invaded Britain 55 years before Christ the Britains had no towns but dwelt in scattered huts When they went out to battle they dyed their faces in order to terrify their enemies In their religion they worshiped many Gods and most horrible were the sacrifices they practiced The Romans were a civilized people and had been so for many centuries and it was not until Caesar s Second Invasion that the Britons knew fear For it was at this time that the Chief of the tribe which had subdued many Of the neighboring tribes and whose stronghold was a stockade near the modern St Albans found his followers seeking the protection of Caesar About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that
