The Life of Samuel J. Tilden John Bigelow, 1895      Origin Story Howard Markel, 2024-06-11 An Economist Best Book of 2024 A lively account of how Darwin's work on natural selection transformed science and society and an investigation into the mysterious illness that plagued its author By early morning of June 30 1860 a large crowd began to congregate in front of Oxford University's brand new Museum of Natural History The occasion was the annual meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science and the subject of discussion was Charles Darwin's new treatise fact or fiction Darwin a simultaneously reclusive and intellectually audacious squire from Kent claimed to have solved that mystery of mysteries introducing a logical explanation of the origin of species how they adapted even transmogrified through natural selection At stake on that summer's day of spirited debate was the very foundation of modern biology not to mention the future of the church Without fear of exaggeration Darwin's thesis would forever change our understanding of the life sciences and the natural world And yet the author himself was nowhere to be found in the debate hall instead he was miles away seeking respite from a spate of illnesses that had plagued him for much of his adult life In Origin Story medical historian Howard Markel recounts the two year period 1858 to 1860 of Darwin's writing of On the Origin of Species through its spectacular success and controversy Simultaneously Markel delves into the mysterious health symptoms Darwin developed combing the literature to emerge with a cogent diagnosis of a case that has long fascinated medical historians The result is a colorful portrait of the man his friends and enemies and his seminal work which resonates to this day      Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1895      The Publishers' Circular, 1868      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1904      Publishers' Circular, 1868      British Books, 1847      The Publisher, 1902      Publishers' circular and booksellers' record, 1853      Catalogue of the London library.
