History Of Transylvania Vol 3:

Heritage, Ideology, and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Matthew Rampley, 2012 Essays looking at heritage practices and the construction of the past along with how they can be used to build a national identity The preservation of architectural monuments has played a key role in the formation of national identities from the nineteenth century to the present The task of maintaining the collective memories and ideas of a shared heritage often focused on the historic built environment as the most visible sign of a link with the past The meaning of such monuments and sites has however often been the subject of keen dispute whose heritage is being commemorated by whom and for whom The answers to such questions are not always straightforward particularly in Central and Eastern Europe the recent history of which has been characterized by territorial disputes the large scale movement of peoples and cultural dispossession This volume considers the dilemmas presented by the recent and complex histories of European states such as Germany Greece Poland Hungary Romania and Bulgaria Examining the effect of the destruction of buildings by war the loss of territories or the unwanted built heritage of the Communist and Nazi regimes the contributors examine how architectural and urban sites have been created destroyed or transformed in the attempt to make visible a national heritage Matthew Rampley is Professor of History of Art at the University of Birmingham Contributors Matthew Rampley Juliet Kinchin Paul Stirton Susanne Jaeger Arnold Bartetzky Jacek Friedrich Tania Vladova George Karatzas Riitta Oittinen

Chymia Miguel López-Pérez, Jose Rodriguez, 2010-10-12 In September 2008 an international conference on the history of alchemy was held at El Escorial close to the ancient location of the distilling houses operating under royal patronage during the second half of the 16th century The present book consists of a selection of the papers presented then shedding light on little studied medieval and early modern texts important alchemical doctrines such as medieval corpuscularianism early modern spiritus mundi or the function of salt within chymical principles and discussing such prominent figures as Paracelsus Isaac Hollandus Michael Sendivogius Fontenelle or G E Stahl Last but not least the book offers new insights on the most recent history of Spanish alchemy Béla Bartók David Cooper, 2015-04-28 This deeply researched biography of Béla Bartók 1881-1945 provides a more comprehensive view of the innovative Hungarian musician than ever before David Cooper traces Bartók's international career as an ardent ethno musicologist and composer teacher and pianist while also providing a detailed discussion of most of his works Further the author explores how Europe's political and cultural tumult affected Bartók's work travel and reluctant emigration to the safety of America in his final years Cooper illuminates Bartók's personal life and relationships while also expanding what is known about the influence of other musicians Richard Strauss Zoltán Kodály and Yehudi Menuhin among many others The author also looks closely at some of the composer's actions and behaviors which may have been manifestations of Asperger syndrome The book in short is a consummate biography of an internationally admired musician A Seventeenth-Century Odyssey in East Central Europe Gábor Kármán, 2015-11-16 In A Seventeenth Century Odyssey Gábor Kármán reconstructs the life story of a lesser known Hungarian orientalist Jakab Harsányi Nagy The discussion of his activities as a school teacher in Transylvania as a diplomat and interpreter at the Sublime Porte as a secretary of a Moldavian voivode in exile as well as a court councillor of Friedrich Wilhelm the Great Elector of Brandenburg not only sheds light upon the extraordinarily versatile career of this individual but also on the variety of circles in which he lived Gábor Kármán also gives the first historical analysis of Harsányi's contribution to Turkish studies the Colloquia Familiaria Turcico-latina 1672 Creolizing the Modern Anca Parvulescu, Manuela Boatac, 2022-10-15 How are modernity coloniality and interimperiality entangled Bridging the humanities and social sciences Anca Parvulescu and Manuela Boatac provide innovative decolonial perspectives that aim to creolize modernity and the modern world system Historical Transylvania at the intersection of the Habsburg Empire the Ottoman Empire Austria Hungary and Russia offers the platform for their multi level reading of the main themes in Liviu Rebreanu's 1920 novel Ion Topics range from the question of the region's capitalist integration to antisemitism and the enslavement of Roma to multilingualism gender relations and religion Creolizing the Modern develops a comparative method for engaging with areas of the world that have inherited multiple conflicting imperial and anti imperial histories The Church-Union of the Armenians in Transylvania (1685-1715) Kornél Nagy, 2021-08-09 The 17th and 18th centuries have been regarded as one of the most exciting periods in the history of Hungary and Transylvania The wars of liberation to terminate the Ottoman occupation the integration of the Transylvanian Principality into the Habsburg Empire after 150 years relative independence the colonisation of the uncultivated lands during the Ottoman rule the re organisation of daily life and

Prince Francis Ferenc Rákóczi's independence war 1703-1711 indicated serious challenges for the Habsburg Court in Vienna. This period 1686-1711 felled serious duties to the Hungarian Catholic Church too. Prior to these duties the process of Counter Reformation in Hungary's eastern and northern regions was getting increasingly under way. Orthodox Ruthenians and Romanians in Transylvania united with the Roman Catholic Church. The bishops who were highly supported by the missionaries delegated from Rome in order to re-organise the Hungarian Catholic Church's religious life reappeared at the seats of the abandoned dioceses after the 150 years Ottoman occupation and nearly 110 years pressure from the strong Protestantism supported by the Princes of Transylvania. The Armenians church union in Transylvania must be in fact analysed in this church historical context. The history of Armenians in Transylvania escaping from Moldavia and Podolia between 1668 and 1672 should be regarded practically as an undiscovered area from both the Hungarian and international church historical point of view. The church union of the Armenians in Transylvania is primarily associated with Bishop Oxendio Virziresco's 1654-1715 an Armenian Uniate cleric educated at Collegium Urbanum in Rome missionary efforts. In this work I have tried to look for evident responses to these afore-mentioned problems resting on the partly discovered and undiscovered sources as well as analysing critically a few of secondary literature. Islam and the West Christopher J Walker, 2005-07-21

We have rapidly grown used to the idea particularly since the declaration of a worldwide war on terrorism that between Islam and the West there exists a deep historical and ideological gulf. Christopher J Walker turns such accepted views on their head and paints instead a picture of two belief systems that have a long history of toleration and mutual influence. Indeed Islam has given a great deal to civilisation essentially modern notions of free enquiry rational experimentation rational experimentation and the independence of science from religious authority are legacies of the Islamic world. Islam and the West is a thought provoking study covering some of the cardinal encounters between Islamic and Western countries.

Vlachica Mirela Roznoveanu, 2021-06-20 Who are the Vlachs. For the first time Mirela Roznoveanu has put Europe's original people her people on the map. Living for millennia hidden high in the Balkan and Dalmatian mountains above the shifting tides of empires the Vlachs or Armăni have fiercely guarded the unity in variety of their ancient way of life. Their long silence breaks at last overflowing with mythology history landscape folklore food customs clothing music magical realism intrigue passion cruelty poetry tragedy and comedy. Vlachica is a force of nature total immersion in a rich lost world. The History of the Wass de Czege Family András W. Kovács, 2005 The Making of Modern Romanian Culture Alex Drace-Francis, 2005-11-23 How do literacy and the development of literary culture promote the development of a national identity. This well researched and readable book explores the rise of Romanian language literary educational and printing institutions in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries bringing out a story that has not been fully explored in English. In twenty concise yet scholarly chapters Alex Drace-Francis builds on and engages with current knowledge about print culture modernization national identity and state formation to make an original contribution to ongoing debates in these areas.

also a central concern of the thirteen case studies in the volume which are each devoted to comparing between two or more national historical cultures. Thus temporality both continuities and breaks in popular notions of the past its interpretations and consumption is examined in the long continuum. The volume makes available to English readers probably for the first time the cutting edge of Eastern European scholarship on popular histories nationalism and culture.
