History's People Personalities And The Past Cbc Massey Lectures:

History's People Margaret MacMillan, 2015-09-08 Part of the CBC Massey Lectures Series In History's People internationally acclaimed historian Margaret MacMillan gives her own personal selection of figures of the past women and men some famous and some little known who stand out for her Some have changed the course of history and even directed the currents of their times Others are memorable for being risk takers adventurers or observers She looks at the concept of leadership through Bismarck and the unification of Germany William Lyon MacKenzie King and the preservation of the Canadian Federation Franklin Delano Roosevelt and the bringing of a unified United States into the Second World War She also notes how leaders can make huge and often destructive mistakes as in the cases of Hitler Stalin and Thatcher Richard Nixon and Samuel de Champlain are examples of daring risk takers who stubbornly went their own ways often in defiance of their own societies Then there are the dreamers explorers and adventurers individuals like Fanny Parkes and Elizabeth Simcoe who manage to defy or ignore the constraints of their own societies Finally there are the observers such as Babur the first Mughal emperor of India and Victor Klemperer a Holocaust survivor who kept the notes and diaries that bring the past to life History's People is about the important and complex relationship between biography and history individuals and their times

Biography: An Historiography Melanie Nolan, 2023-04-03 Biography An Historiography examines how Western historians have used biography from the nineteenth century to the present considering the problems and challenges that historians have faced in their biographical practice systematically This volume analyses the strategies and methods that historians have used in response to seven major issues identified over time to do with evidence including but not limited to the problem of causation the problem of fact and fiction the problem of other minds the problem of significance or representativeness the problems of perspective both macro and micro and the problem of subjectivity and relative truth This volume will be essential for both postgraduates and historians studying biography

Northern Light Kazim Ali, 2021-03-09 An examination of the lingering effects of a hydroelectric power station on Pimicikamak sovereign territory in Manitoba Canada The child of South Asian migrants Kazim Ali was born in London lived as a child in the cities and small towns of Manitoba and made a life in the United States As a man passing through disparate homes he has never felt he belonged to a place And yet one day the celebrated poet and essayist finds himself thinking of the boreal forests and lush waterways of Jenpeg a community thrown up around the building of a hydroelectric dam on the Nelson River where he once lived for several years as a child Does the town still exist he wonders Is the dam still operational When Ali goes searching however he finds not news of Jenpeg but of the local Pimicikamak community Facing environmental destruction and broken promises from the Canadian government they have evicted Manitoba s electric utility from the dam on Cross Lake In a place where water is an integral part of social and cultural life the community demands accountability for the harm that the utility has caused Troubled Ali returns north looking to understand his place in this story and eager to listen Over the course of a week he participates in community life speaks with Elders and community members and learns about the politics of the dam from Chief Cathy Merrick He drinks tea with activists eats corned beef hash with the Chief and learns about the history of the dam built on land that was never ceded and Jenpeg a town that now exists mostly in his memory In building relationships with his former neighbors Ali explores questions of land and power and in remembering a lost connection to this place finally finds a home he might belong to Praise for Northern Light An Outside Magazine Favorite

Book of 2021 A Book Riot Best Book of 2021 A Shelf Awareness Best Book of 2021 Ali's gift as a writer is the way he is able to present his story in a way that brings attention to the myriad issues facing Indigenous communities from oil pipelines in the Dakotas to border walls running through Kumeyaay land San Diego Union Tribune A world traveler not always by choice ponders the meaning and location of home A graceful elegant account even when reporting on the hard truths of a little known corner of the world Kirkus Reviews Ali's experiences are relayed in sensitive crystalline prose documenting how Cross Lake residents are working to reinvent their town and rebuild their traditional beliefs language and relationships with the natural world Though these topics are complex they are untangled in an elegant manner Foreword Reviews starred review
