Lost Leaves Rebecca L. Copeland, 2000-06-01 Most Japanese literary historians have suggested that the Meiji Period 1868 1912 was devoid of women writers but for the brilliant exception of Higuchi Ichiyo 1872 1896 Rebecca Copeland challenges this claim by examining in detail the lives and literary careers of three of Ichiyo's peers each representative of the diversity and ingenuity of the period Miyake Kaho 1868 1944 Wakamatsu Shizuko 1864 1896 and Shimizu Shikin 1868 1933 In a carefully researched introduction Copeland establishes the context for the development of female literary expression She follows this with chapters on each of the women under consideration Miyake Kaho often regarded as the first woman writer of modern Japan offers readers a vision of the female vitality that is often overlooked when discussing the Meiji era Wakamatsu Shizuko the most prominent female translator of her time had a direct impact on the development of a modern written language for Japanese prose fiction Shimizu Shikin reminds readers of the struggle women endured in their efforts to balance their creative interests with their social roles Interspersed throughout are excerpts from works under discussion most never before translated offering an invaluable window into this forgotten world of women's writing Lost leaves OVA A98, Team Akeru, 2015-06-15 Monday Jun 15 is young Keru's birthday Keru is a teenager who lives with his friends in New York City and as it is his birthday his friends decided to make him a party but the things have turned out in a crazy way as they caused a big chaos in the city Angry crowds gang attacks and much more While Keru met a girl that had the same birth date but at that day her life turned to a disaster so Keru decided to help her and show her the true meaning of happiness Writer A98 Production Team Akeru This OVA is a side story from the original Lost Leaves Leaves of History from the Archives of Boston Typographical Union No. XIII International Typographical Union.
