The Animals: Love Letters Between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy Christopher Isherwood, Don Bachardy, 2014-05-13 The love story between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy in their own words Christopher Isherwood was the celebrated middle aged English author of Goodbye to Berlin when he met the Californian teenager Don Bachardy on a Santa Monica beach in 1952 Defying convention the two created an enduring relationship out of that initial spark living as an openly gay couple for more than three decades in the closeted world of Hollywood The Animals is the testimony in letters of their extraordinary partnership which lasted until Isherwood's death in 1986 despite a thirty year age gap affairs jealousies the pressures of literary fame and the disdain of twentieth century America for love between two men In romantic letters to each other they invented the private world of the Animals Chris was Dobbin a stubborn old workhorse Don was a rash spirited white kitten named Kitty The ability to create a world a safe and separate milieu was a great talent of Isherwood's and a necessary one as a gay man in mid twentieth century America But Isherwood knew how to spread hay around his stable and attract beauty He drew Bachardy into his semisecret realm and together they invented a place for their love to thrive Bold transgressive and playful The Animals shows us the devotion between two creative spirits in tenderness and storms

REVIEWS Erotic romantic comic and horrific enough to loosen the bowels of a bronze statue Christopher Lee Robin Hardy looks set to snare a new generation of followers with the long overdue follow up another tale of faith sex and sacrifice Sunday Herald the writing style is typical of the genre and Hardy has upped the stakes After a slow set up the plot romps along with unexpected twists and turns to its inevitable and frustratingly avoidable conclusion Those who identify with the youthful protagonists will find it thrilling and horrible a story to disturb sleep Scottish Review of Books Let s face it there are strange communities in the world Purity rings in hand a young evangelical Christian singer and her devoted fianc leave the comfort of their Texas home to journey into heathen parts of the earth hoping to spread the word of God across the land Their mission takes them to a bizarre Scottish town whose people and practices turn their world inside out To call it a culture clash would be too gentle To reveal anything further would be a blight against the heavens 38 years after directing THE WICKER MAN and following a 22 year filmmaking sabbatical celebrated iconoclast Robin Hardy has reunited with producer Peter Snell and returned to the Pagan pantheon with this hugely eccentric successor film THE WICKER TREE The distinction is an important one to make as this is neither sequel nor re imagining but rather a film narrative cut from the same universe or as its maker refers to it a spiritual sequel Hardy is a one of a kind filmmaker and THE WICKER TREE is brimming with the stamp of his personality It has ample Scottish colour reaching out through tons of catchy folk songs interspersed throughout the film Clever plays on religious iconography and an acute understanding of Pagan ritualism Ethereal locations A charged sense of the sexual A dreamlike sense of the magical Costumes dances and animal masks An off centre look at the absurdities of faith in this case neither Christian nor Pagan get off easy THE WICKER TREE could be called a black theological satire a strange breed of irony fuelled comedy musical horror thriller drama Call it however you like it will bring a smile to your lips and perhaps a torch to your belief system Based on Hardy s novel and featuring appearances by Christopher Lee members of the Beltane Fire Society and a compellingly show stopping Graham McTavish this is a film that s been brewing for many years one that has proved exceedingly difficult to mount Now finally it is here Prepare to ride the laddie and join us in celebrating the second coming of one of cinema s great seers May Day is upon us THE WICKER TREE is about to burn Mitch Davis
