Somebody's Daughter Marie G. Lee, 2005 Somebody's Daughter is the story of nineteen year old Sarah Thorson who was adopted as a baby by a Lutheran couple in the Midwest After dropping out of the University of Minnesota she decides to study in Korea for a summer more by happenstance than actual design but as the summer progresses she becomes more and more intrigued by her Korean heritage and eventually embarks on a crusade to find her birthmother Paralleling Sarah's story is that of Kyung sook who was forced by difficult circumstances to let her baby be swept away from her immediately after birth but who has always longed for her lost child The two stories are told side by side Kyung sook s is the remembrance of her childhood involvement with an American who eventually abandons her when she refuses to have an abortion while Sarah s is the contemporary story of her deepening involvement with the culture and language of Korea with Doug her Korean American classmate and with her search These two narratives converge in one poignant moment when the two women literally pass each other like ships in the night

Summer of 93 Archana Somvanshi,2024-05-06 Secrets simmer beneath the laughter of sun drenched days as the three siblings arrive their hearts brimming with adventure in their ancestral village Whispers of a forgotten aunt Saraswati ignite their curiosity leading them towards Kashinath a once brilliant man now haunted by the shadows of 1976 Beside them stands Janki Devi a bastion of strength grappling with her own inner demons As they delve deeper into the labyrinth of their family s history buried truths erupt like a monsoon tempest unleashing a torrent of vengeance and demanding a reckoning with the past In the midst of grief and turmoil love knows no boundaries but must face the harsh realities of a caste divided society Can they mend the fractures that divide them safeguard the flickering flame of love and confront the chilling specters whispering in the night Join us on a journey through the depths of love joy grief and nostalgia where the memories of the past flow like rivers whispering tales of bygone days Unravel the mystery Embrace the peril Dare to step into the Summer of 93

Gender at Sea Marleen Reichgelt e.a.,2022-12-14 For centuries seafaring people thought that the presence of women on board would mean bad luck rough weather shipwreck and other disasters were sure to follow Because of these beliefs and prejudices women were supposedly excluded from the maritime domain In the field of maritime history too the ship and the sea have predominantly been perceived as a space for men This volume of the Yearbook of Women s History challenges these notions It asks to what extent were the sea and the ship ever male dominated and masculine spaces How have women been part of seafaring communities maritime undertakings and maritime culture How did gender notions impact life on board and vice versa From a multidisciplinary perspective this volume moves from Indonesia to the Faroe Islands from the Mediterranean to Newfoundland bringing to light the presence of women and the workings of gender on sailing whaling steam cruise passenger pirate and navy ships As a whole it demonstrates the diversity and the agency of women at sea from ancient times to the present day

How Whiteness Claimed the Future Mariya Nikolova,2023-03-20 Interested in the ideological workings of fiction I study how major avant garde tropes promote the potential of permanent renewal as white America s property Renewal ties to the capacities to create progress transcend and simply be From Black critique we know that within dominant discourse all these capacities have been denied to Black bodies ever since colonization Black work has been fetishized appropriated stolen and dismissed in and by dominant culture while Black being is construed as negativity and barred on the level of ontology It follows then that racialization operates on multiple levels in the conceptual frame of renewal I study this conceptualization by re reading the works of and criticism on progressive white authors I examine how images of renewal enable the claim on futurity transformative potential and movement forward as exclusively white properties Premised on oppositions between positive capacities and a state of complete incapacitation these images are often viewed as separate constructions This project shows that deriving from white ideology such representations are symbiotic and simultaneous the good story of white renewal rests on the continual transgression towards Black being
