Cottons and Casuals: The Gendered Organisation of Labour in Time and Space Miriam Glucksmann, 2013-09-13
Cottons and Casuals explores the connections between women's work in different spheres since the 1930s paid employment at home and in the community. Women's own testimony and an array of other source materials are used to develop new ways of looking at their changing patterns of living and working. The book examines changes in the organisation and commodification of domestic production and consumption, the use of technology, housing, family structures, gender relations and inter-generational mother-daughter relations. Differing temporalities of work are highlighted as are their far-reaching effects for the organisation of people's lives and life courses. The significance of varying locations and spatial organisations of work for communities, streets, families and gender relations provides another important focus. In the process, Glucksmann addresses the nature of the research process, reflecting on her sources and her own work in the production of knowledge.

Leisure, Gender, and Poverty Andrew Davies, 1992. Based extensively on interviews, examines the voluntary or involuntary leisure time of the working class in adjacent English industrial cities. Emphasizes the different experiences of men and women and the distinct youth culture. Distributed by Taylor and Francis. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR.
