Government Discourse And Housing Urban And Regional Planning And Development Series:

Government Discourse and Housing Jago Dodson, 2007 This volume uses post structuralist theory to develop a framework for the analysis of government institutions and policy and applies this to the study of government housing policy in Western nations It uses the post structuralist approach to examine detailed case studies of housing policies in Europe Australia and New Zealand thereby evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of its application Partnership, Collaborative Planning and Urban Regeneration John McCarthy, 2016-05-13 Approaches to urban regeneration have changed dramatically throughout Europe and the USA over recent decades drawing on notions of public private partnership growth coalitions and local spatial alliances In this engaging book John McCarthy provides critical consideration of such theories in terms of their application to practice He shows how these notions are used to explain the nature and underlying processes of urban development and to further objectives for urban regeneration To test their applicability he examines the case of Dundee including the role of the Dundee Partnership a model for many aspects of partnership working The resulting conclusions suggest ways in which the practice of urban regeneration can be improved in terms of inclusion equity and sustainability

De-coding New Regionalism James W. Scott, 2016-05-13 Bringing together comparative case studies from Central Europe and South America this book focuses on new regions regions created as political projects of modernization and re scaling Through this approach it de codes New Regionalism in terms of its contributions to institutional change while acknowledging its contested nature and contradictions It questions whether these regions are merely a strategy of neo liberal adjustment to changing political and economic conditions or whether they are indicative of true reform greater citizen participation and empowerment It assesses whether these regions are really representing something new or whether they are a reconfiguration of traditional power relationships It provides a timely critical analysis of region building and the extent to which national processes of decentralization and sub national processes of regionalism can enhance the effectiveness and responsiveness of governance De-coding New Regionalism Professor James W. Scott, 2012-11-28 Bringing together comparative case studies from Central Europe and South America this book focuses on new regions regions created as political projects of modernization and re scaling Through this approach it de codes New Regionalism in terms of its contributions to institutional change while acknowledging its contested nature and contradictions It questions whether these regions are merely a strategy of neo liberal adjustment to changing political and economic conditions or whether they are indicative of true reform greater citizen participation and empowerment It assesses whether these regions are really representing something new or whether they are a reconfiguration of traditional power relationships It provides a timely critical analysis of region building and the extent to which national processes of decentralization and sub national processes of regionalism can enhance the effectiveness and responsiveness of governance Reshaping Planning with Culture Greg Young, 2016-04-08 Planning is described as being increasingly sidelined by the impacts of neo liberal restructuring At the same time culture is nowadays seen as the world's key intellectual resource possessing new creative weight in sociological economic and environmental terms This book argues that in the light of this cultural turn there is the opportunity to reposition planning and proposes an original practical and robust system of culturisation Culturisation is defined as the ethical critical and reflexive integration of culture into planning and potentially other areas such as public administration corporate strategy and development thinking Cultural theory planning theory global governance policy and recent innovative culturised practices are all explored to this end The new theoretical and practical approach put forward shows how deeper richer and more relevant ideas about culture can be utilized in planning and is illustrated with international examples and two major case studies detailing new vistas for a refurbished planning

Overcoming Fragmentation in Southeast Europe

Panayiotis Getimis, 2017-11-28 With the expansion of the European Union the countries of Southeast Europe have finally been brought together within one socio political entity The restructuring of these economies following globalization and neoliberalization has meant that this region has become much more open to geopolitical shifts and trends While the various countries have all entered into the slow process of European integration the historic fragmentation of this region has led to various conflicts and contradictions in the restructuring and transition of national economies This volume provides a theoretical and comparative overview which examines the prospects for spatial cohesion in this region With the need to handle persisting problems and conflicts from the past while coping with new economic and political structures Southeast Europe proves to be a challenging yet fruitful testing ground for how best to overcome fragmentation and establish a long term process of social and economic integration

Urban and Regional Planning and Development Rajiv R. Thakur, Ashok K. Dutt, Sudhir K. Thakur, George M. Pomeroy, 2020-02-10 This book discusses urban planning and regional development practices in the twentieth century and ways in which they are currently being transformed It addresses questions such as What are the factors affecting planning dynamics at local regional national and global scales With the push to adopt a market paradigm in land development and infrastructure the relationship between resource management sustainable development and the role of governance has been transformed Centralized planning is giving way to privatization not only in the traditional regions but also in newly emerging regions of Asia Africa and Latin America Further attempts are being made to bring planning related decision making closer to the people who are most affected by it Presenting a collection of studies from scholars around the world and highlighting recent advances in the field the book is a valuable reference guide for those engaged in urban transformations whether as graduate students researchers practitioners or policymakers

Planning Cultures in Europe Frank Othengrafen, 2016-12-05 Bringing together an interdisciplinary team from across the EU this book connects elements of cultural and planning theories to explain differences and peculiarities among EU member states A culturized planning model is introduced to consider the rules of the game how culture affects planning practices not only on an explicit surface but also on a hidden implicit level The model consists of three analytical dimensions planning artifacts planning environment and societal environment This book adopts these dimensions to compare planning cultures of different European countries This sheds light not only on the organizational or institutional structure of planning but also the influence of deeper cultural values and layers on planning and implementation processes The Political Economy of Government Subsidised Housing in South Africa Sithembiso Lindelihle Myeni, Andrew Okem, 2019-08-15 This book unpacks the political economy of government subsidised housing programmes in South Africa Exploring government policy towards subsidised housing in South Africa this edited collection analyses various programmes their shortcomings and potential options to address these weaknesses in the context of a country suffering from an exponential demand for housing in the face of insufficient supply The Political Economy of Government Subsidised Housing in South Africa looks at the complex and contested nature of the issue in post apartheid South Africa stimulating debate and knowledge sharing on housing programmes proffering solutions to the issue The book explores the issue from both practical and intellectual standpoints exploring the relationship between historical institutional legacies and contemporary power structures and their role in provision of housing for the growing population of South Africa This book will be of great interest to students of urban and regional planning political economy development studies and African studies APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , Evaluation in Planning Nathaniel Lichfield, Angela Barbanente, Dino Borri, Abdul Khakee, Anna Prat, 2013-03-09 This book is the result of a three day workshop on Evaluation in theory and practice in spatial planning held in Ramsey Hall University College London in September 1996 Some 30 people from 8 different countries attended and 20 papers were presented The majority of them now form the basis for this book This occasion was the third on the topic the two preceding having taken place in Umea in June 1992 and in Bari in 1994 Following these three meetings we can now say that this small industrious international family really enjoy meeting up from time to time at each others places in the presence of older members and new children each one presenting his her own recent experiences It particularly enjoys exchanging views and arguing about the current state and the future of evaluation in spatial planning all families have their vices It is also pleasing to see these experiences and discussions resulting in a book for those who could not attend and for the broader clan in the field Not long time ago but ages in the accelerated academic time scale evaluation in planning established its own role and distinct features as an instrument for helping the decision making process Now this role and these features are exposed to major challenges First the evolution of planning theory has lead to the conception of new planning paradigms based on theories of complexity and communicative rationality Housing and Planning References ,1972 Surveyor and Municipal and County Engineer ,1916 Situated Practices of Strategic Planning Louis Albrechts, Alessandro Balducci, Jean Hillier, 2016-07-22 All over the world societies are facing a number of major problems New developments challenges and opportunities cause these issues and yet cases tell us that traditional spatial planning responses and tools are often insufficient to tackle these problems and challenges Situated Practices of Strategic Planning draws together examples from across the globe from France to Australia from Nigeria to the United States as it observes international comparisons of the strategic planning process Many approaches and policies used today fail to capture the dynamics of urban regional transformation and are more concerned with maintaining an existing social order than challenging and transforming it Stewarded by a team of highly regarded and experienced researchers this book gives a synthetic view of the process of change and frames future directions of development It is unique for its combination of analysis of international case studies and reflection on critical nodes and features in strategic planning This volume will be of interest to students who study regional planning academics professional planners and policy makers

Guide to Housing and Infrastructure

Standards in Town Camps Anna Flouris,Chris Tucker,Denise Foster,Michael Klerck,Vanessa Napaltjarri Davis,2024-03-08

This Guide critically and constructively examines the infrastructure within the Town Camps of Alice Springs Mparntwe and describes the regulatory framework that applies to it and needs to be understood if urgently needed improvements to the urban environment are to be made

Housing as Governance Astrid Ley,2010 This book explores the dynamic roles and linkages of public sector institutions and civil society actors in housing provision for the urban poor in South Africa Based on actor centred and network theories two cases of civil society alliances are analysed The book reveals that existing civil society structures are hybrids that can oscillate between networks and organisations Moreover they establish informal governance spaces with state actors outside the institutional channels provided by government The emergence of oscillating structures and the informalisation of horizontal governance represent new challenges for local decision making processes Co operation and action oriented approaches in housing seemingly need to be based on a more detailed understanding of the complex interfaces which go far beyond the conventional ideal of partnerships and participation between sectors

Urban Regeneration in the UK Andrew Tallon,2009-08-21 Exploring the streets of London Manchester Belfast Edinburgh or Cardiff one cannot help but notice the striking transformations taking place in the urban landscapes This prominent regeneration of urban areas in the UK and around the world has become an increasingly important issue amongst governments and populations The growing concern has been a result of the impacts of the decline of cities since the collapse of manufacturing industries and the heightening of global competition A range of innovative approaches to tackle urban problems have been taken over many decades to attempt to regenerate the fortunes of towns and cities across the UK This text provides an accessible yet critical synthesis of urban regeneration in the UK incorporating key policies approaches issues and debates The central objective of the book is to place the historical and contemporary regeneration agenda into context Section one sets up the conceptual and policy framework for urban regeneration in the UK SectionTwo traces policies that have been adopted by central government to influence the social economic and physical development of cities including early municipal interventions in the late nineteenth century community focused urban policies of the late 1960s entrepreneurial property led regeneration of the 1980s and competition for urban funds in the 1990s The penultimate section illustrates the key thematic policies and strategies that have been pursued by cities themselves focusing particularly on improving economic competitiveness and tackling social disadvantage These approaches are contextualized by discussions covering for example urban competitiveness policies and the focus on sustainable urban regeneration The final section summarizes key issues and debates facing urban regeneration and speculates upon future directions Urban Regeneration in the UK blends the approaches taken by central government programmes and cities themselves in the regeneration process The latest ideas and examples from across disciplines and across the UK s urban areas are illustrated This book provides a comprehensive and up to date synthesis that will fill a significant gap in the current literature on regeneration and will be a tool for students as well as a seminal read for practitioners and researchers

Town and Country Planning in the UK Simin Davoudi, David Webb, Geoff Vigar, John Pendlebury, Tim Townshend, Trevor Hart, Vincent Nadin, 2014-12-05 Town and country planning has never been more important to the UK nor more prominent in national debate Planning generates great controversy whether it s spending 80m and four years inquiry into Heathrow s Terminal 5 or the 200 proposed wind turbines in the Shetland Isles On a smaller scale telecoms masts take aways house extensions and even fences are often the cause of local conflict Town and Country Planning in the UK has been extensively revised by a new author group This 15th Edition incorporates the major changes to planning introduced by the coalition government elected in 2010 particularly through the National Planning Policy Framework and associated practice guidance and the Localism Act It provides a critical discussion of the systems of planning the procedures for managing development and land use change and the mechanisms for implementing policy and proposals It reviews current policy for sustainable development and the associated economic social and environmental themes relevant to planning in both urban and rural contexts Contemporary arrangements are explained with reference to their historical development the influence of the European Union the roles of central and local government and developing social and economic demands for land use change Detailed consideration is given to the nature of planning and its historical evolution the role of the EU central regional and local government mechanisms for developing policy and managing these changes policies for guiding and delivering housing and economic development sustainable development principles for planning including pollution control the importance of design in planning conserving the heritage community engagement in planning The many recent changes to the system are explained in detail the new national planning policy framework the impact of the loss of the regional tier in planning and of the insertion of neighbourhood level planning the transition from development control to development management the continued and growing importance of environmental matters in planning community engagement partnership working changes to planning gain and the introduction of the Community Infrastructure Levy and new initiatives across a number of other themes Notes on further reading are provided and at the end of the book there is an extensive bibliography maintaining its reputation as the bible of British planning

Accommodating Inequality Sophie Watson, 2023-03-31 Originally published in 1988 Accommodating Inequality provides a basis for a radical re think of housing policy and provision in Australia from a gender perspective It explores the way that housing in Australia helped to produce patriarchal family structures and simultaneously contributed to the dependence of women on men At the time the book was originally published housing policy at a theoretical or research level was less explored Issues such as marginalisation poverty and low income domestic responsibility are discussed in relation to housing The book raised new questions and challenged old debates and provides a clear framework within which feminist housing policy can be situated
