Exploring Religious Diversity and Covenantal Pluralism in Asia Dennis R. Hoover, 2022-12-26 This book examines the growing diversity of religions and worldviews across East Southeast Asia and the factors affecting prospects for covenantal pluralism in these regions According to the Pew Religious Diversity Index half of the world's most religiously diverse countries are in Asia The presence of deep religious worldview difference is often seen as a potential threat to socio political cohesion or even as a source of violent conflict Yet in Asia as elsewhere the degree of this diversity is not consistently associated with socio political problems Indeed while religious difference is implicated in some social challenges there are also many instances of respectful multi faith engagement practical collaboration and peaceful debate Whether or not religious worldview difference is part of a positive pluralism depends on a complex array of legal and cultural conditions This book explores these dynamics and contingencies in Asia structuring the inquiry according to the theory of covenantal pluralism Covenantal pluralist theory calls for a constitutional order characterized by freedom of religion conscience and equality of rights and responsibilities combined with a culture of practical religious literacy and virtues of mutual respect and protection Volume I offers a pioneering exploration of the prospects for this robust and non relativistic type of pluralism in East Southeast Asia Volume II examines South Central Asia The chapters in these volumes originally appeared as research articles in a series on covenantal pluralism published by The Review of Faith International Affairs
