Haiku People Big And Small In Poems And Prints:

The Art of Haiku Stephen Addiss, 2022-11-29 In the past hundred years haiku has gone far beyond its Japanese origins to become a worldwide phenomenon with the classic poetic form growing and evolving as it has adapted to the needs of the whole range of languages and cultures that have embraced it This proliferation of the joy of haiku is cause for celebration but it can also compel us to go back to the beginning to look at haiku's development during the centuries before it was known outside Japan This in depth study of haiku history begins with the great early masters of the form like Basho Buson and Issa and goes all the way to twentieth century greats like Santoka It also focuses on an important aspect of traditional haiku that is less known in the West haiku art All the great haiku masters created paintings called haiga or calligraphy in connection with their poems and the words and images were intended to be enjoyed together enhancing each other and each adding its own dimension to the reader's and viewer's understanding Here one of the leading haiku scholars of the West takes us on a tour of haiku poetry's evolution providing along the way a wealth of examples of the poetry and the art inspired by it

As part of the larger ongoing movement throughout Latin America to reclaim non Hispanic cultural heritages and identities indigenous writers in Mexico are reappropriating the written word in their ancestral tongues and in Spanish As a result the long marginalized innermost feelings needs and worldviews of Mexico s ten to twenty million indigenous peoples are now being widely revealed to the Western societies with which these peoples coexist To contribute to this process and serve as a bridge of intercultural communication and understanding this groundbreaking three volume anthology gathers works by the leading generation of writers in thirteen Mexican indigenous languages Nahuatl Maya Tzotzil Tzeltal Tojolabal Tabasco Chontal Purepecha Sierra Zapoteco Isthmus Zapoteco Mazateco ah u Totonaco and Huichol Volume Two contains poetry by Mexican indigenous writers Their poems appear first in their native language followed by English and Spanish translations Montemayor and Frischmann have abundantly annotated the Spanish English and indigenous language texts and added glossaries and essays that discuss the formal and linguistic qualities of the poems as well as their place within contemporary poetry These supporting materials make the anthology especially accessible and interesting for nonspecialist readers seeking a greater understanding of Mexico s indigenous peoples The 5th Season: New year ku (books 1 & 2 of 4) Robin D. Gill, 2007 In this book the first of a series Robin D Gill author of the highly acclaimed Rise Ye Sea Slugs and Cherry Blossom Epiphany the largest single theme anthologies of poetry ever published explores the traditional Japanese New Year through 2 000 translated haiku mostly 17 20c The New Year R H Blyth once wrote is a season by itself That was nowhere so plain as in the world of haiku where saijiki large collections called of ku illustrating hundreds if not thousands of briefly explained seasonal themes generally comprised five volumes one for each season Yet the great doyen of haiku gave this fifth season considered the first season when it came at the head of the Spring rather than in mid winter only a tenth of the pages he gave to each of the other four seasons 20 vs 200 Was Blyth Zen enthusiast not enamored with ritual Or was he loath to translate the New Year with its many cultural idiosyncrasies most common to the Sinosphere but not to the West because he did not want to have to explain the haiku It is hard to say but with these poems for the re creation of the world Robin D Gill aka keigu respect foolishness or respect fool rushes in where even Blyth feared to tread to give this supernatural or cosmological season one that combines aspects of the Solstice Christmas New Year s Easter July 4th and the Once Upon a Time of Fairy Tales the attention it deserves With G K Chesterton s words evoking the mind of the haiku poets of old the author publisher leaves further description of the content to his reader reviewers The man standing in his own kitchen garden with the fairyland opening at the gate is the man with large ideas His mind creates distance the motor car stupidly destroys it G K Chesterton Heretics 1905
