Silent Partners in Multicultural Education Tuija Itkonen, Fred Dervin, 2017-02-01 This volume aims to stimulate interest in the under researched role of silent partners SPs in multicultural education Silent partners include formal and informal places spaces in schools e g architecture classroom facilities libraries corridors playgrounds canteens objects e g teaching aids furniture wall decorations and overall interior design interactive technologies use of devices and applications but also often taken for granted and not immediately visible patterns of thought ideologies and assumptions People involved in education all engage and work with a number of SPs that contribute to the delivery of curricula but also to social life and well being in and out of schools The way places spaces objects and technologies influence the school community s experiences of learning well being and social justice is rarely observed and problematised in education hence the adjective silent in the term silent partners This book not only fills a significant empirical gap but it can also inject public debate over future working environments in schools for multicultural education It will be relevant to both researchers interested in developing their knowledge on these issues from a different perspective but also educators in search of inspiration for multicultural education

Emmanuelle Le Pichon Vorstman Researcher and Assistant Professor Languages Literature and Communication Department Utrecht Institute of Linguistics Congratulations are in order for this ground breaking and significant book As the editors and authors convey convincingly and often poignantly multicultural education is an increasingly politicised phenomenon that needs all the friends and allies that it can garner The book s coverage of silent partners in education objects and technologies operating in specific places and spaces is therefore timely Yet as the book also highlights these silent partners can exert negative power as well as positive influence on educational outcomes The book presents a compelling account of the fundamental ambivalence framing these partners and formal educational provision more broadly Rendering these silent educational partners visible and open to scrutiny is a significant scholarly achievement by the Education for Diversities Research Group in the Department of Teacher Education at the University of Helsinki Finland building on their well deserved reputation for exploring the implicit and tacit and yet impactful dimensions of intercultural education and understanding The book is appropriately diverse and inclusive in its concerns with attention being directed at education in Finland France and the United States Likewise the coverage traverses international and national schools higher education teacher education and productive methodologies for researching silent partners This innovative and thought provoking volume is highly recommended for its originality in helping us to see education for diversities in a new and powerful light
