

The Making of the National Movement 1870s - 1947

Emergence of Nationalism in India

Nationalism is a feeling of love and patriotism for one's own country. By the mid-nineteenth century, the feeling of nationalism began to emerge in the country. People began to realise that India is a country which belongs to its inhabitants and not to the British. Certain traits depicting the traits of nationalism began to emerge. These were

- a. After 1850, political consciousness began to take a concrete form among the Indians. As a result, many political organisations were founded in the 1870s and 1880s. One of the noticeable points was that most of these organisations were set up by English educated professionals like lawyers.
- b. Some of these organisations were the Poona Sarvajanik Sabha, the Indian Associations, the Bombay Presidency Association, the Madras Mahajana Sabha and the Indian National Congress.
- c. All these associations believed in the sovereignty of the people and wanted Indians to take decisions regarding the affairs of their own country.

Three Acts which Fuelled Political Discontent among the Indians

National political consciousness began to emerge in the country because of the following reasons:

- In 1878, the Arms Act was passed by the British Government. According to this Act, no Indian could possess weapons without a valid license. However, the Europeans and Anglo Indians were allowed to keep arms without a licence. This caused resentment among the Indians.
- The Vernacular Press Act was passed in 1878 which empowered the Government to confiscate newspapers if they print anything against the British Government.
- The Ilbert bill was passed in 1883 by Lord Ripon. This bill sought to create political equality as now the Europeans or the British citizens could be tried by Indian judges. However, because of vehement protests by the Europeans, the bill was withdrawn. This enraged the Indians, and they began to feel the need for organising themselves.

Foundation of the Indian National Congress and its early Demands

The Indian National Congress (INC) was founded in 1885 by a retired British official, A. O. Hume. The first session of the INC was held at Bombay which was attended by 72 delegates. Some prominent members of the INC at this time were Dada Bhai Naoroji, Pheroz Shah Mehta, W. C. Bonnerji, Surendra Nath Banerjee and Romesh Chandra Dutt
