Love The Bus Week Dates 2015:

Fight Like a Girl Laura Barcella, 2019-08-01 Nearly every day there's another news story or pop cultural anecdote related to feminism and women's rights. YesAllWomen conversations around consent, equal pay, access to contraception and a host of other issues are foremost topics of conversation in American and worldwide media right now. Today's teens are encountering these issues from a different perspective than any generation has had before, but what's often missing from the current discussion is an understanding of how we've gotten to this place. Fight Like a Girl will familiarize readers with the history of feminist activism in an effort to celebrate those who paved the way and draw attention to those who are working hard to further the cause of women's rights. Profiles of both famous and lesser-known feminists will be featured alongside descriptions of how their actions affected the overall feminist cause and unique portraits, artist's renderings of the feminists themselves. This artistic addition will take the book beyond simply an informational text and make it a treasure of a book.

The Bizarre World of Reality Television Stuart Lenig, 2017-10-12 How do reality television programs shape our view of the world and what we perceive as real and normal? This book explores the bizarre and highly controversial world of reality television, including its early history, wide variety of subject matter, and social implications. In recent decades, reality television shows ranging from Keeping Up with the Kardashians to Duck Dynasty have become increasingly popular. Why are these unscripted programs irresistible to millions of viewers? And what does the nearly universal success of reality shows say about American culture? This book covers more than 100 major and influential reality programs, past and present, discussing the origins and past of reality programming, the contemporary social and economic conditions that led to the rise of reality shows, and the ways in which the most successful shows achieve popularity with both male and female demographics or appeal to specific, targeted niche audiences. The text addresses reality TV within five easy-to-identify content categories: competition shows, relationship love interest shows, real people or alternative lifestyle and culture shows, transformation shows, and international programming. By examining modern reality television, a topic of great interest for a wide variety of readers, this book also discusses cultural and social norms in the United States, including materialism, unrealistic beauty ideals, gender roles, and stereotypes in society, dynamics of personal relationships, teenage lifestyles and issues, and the branding of people for financial gain and wider viewership.

Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen, 2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam, where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit (BRT) system for two decades. It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South. The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts. It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Impressionists (Entertainers) Wikipedia contributors, Minicars, Maglevs, and Mopeds Selima Sultana, Joe Weber, 2016-04-18 This book provides a fascinating look at the amazing diversity of forms of travel and transport around the world today in the context of cultures politics economics and environment of a place Across the timeline of human history transportation has played a role in the migration of people and information nation building economic development environmental alteration access to and the use of resources and even the fall of civilizations This single volume reference presents more than 150 entries that describe the most up to date surface transport technologies and routes in use on every continent including a broad range of road vehicles railroads person powered vehicles and even animals used for transportation The book melds transportation geography with culture politics economics and environment of place in its coverage of vehicles transportation technologies and some of the most famous streets rail systems and highways from around the world The entries are written by transport geography scholars to be accessible to general readers without technical backgrounds Each entry incorporates cross references that allow readers to easily find related entries making the book ideal for conducting specific research or completing school projects Sun to Son Jennifer Sutton, 2017-04-19 Author Jennifer K Sutton shares fragments from her birth dance performance profession massage therapy profession self healing birth of son and mothering Natural adventures in search for greater good from the heart with all of her ancestors For Real Jennifer Arthur, 2016-06-30 This book is to help you and show you what you should do to get through a major death in the family As a family This book is to tell what really happened on the day of January 18th 2015 Since the true story isn't even out yet I have written this book for many reasons but the main reason is to show others how precious life is and that every one cares about you they might not show it but they do Don't waste your life on regrets Once I lost everything I found everything once again I'm sure you can do the same no matter what ECIE2015-10th European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Renata Paola Dameri, Roberto Garelli and Marina Resta, 2015-08-24 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 10th European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship ECIE 2015 hosted this year by The University of Genoa Italy on the 17-18 September 2015 The Conference Chair is Prof Luca Beltrametti and the Programme Co chairs are Prof Renata Paola Dameri Prof Roberto Garelli and Prof Marina Resta all from the University of Genoa ECIE continues to develop and evolve Now in its 10th year the key aim remains the opportunity for participants to Supporting Students on the Autism Spectrum Rachel M. McMullin, Kerry R. Walton, 2019-04-23 This book will be invaluable for those in the academic library who want to understand how best to serve students on the autism spectrum and how those students can contribute to the library As a large number of students on the autism spectrum come of age and enter college increased awareness of autism spectrum disorder is necessary among those who work in academic libraries so that they can respond to and meet the unique needs of these students This book fills a scholarship gap while serving as a practical resource for working with the neurodivergent student population in academic libraries McMullin and Walton explain issues that are likely to arise when interacting with students on the autism spectrum and offer practical solutions for handling them They discuss how to work with neurodiverse students in different contexts including at service points in the classroom as employees and through outreach programs They highlight possible concerns about the physical environment of the library and demonstrate ways that the library can be an especially positive place for students with ASD Personal anecdotes from students with autism as well as library faculty and staff round out this valuable work

Lost in the Transit Desert Diane Jones Allen, 2017-07-28 Increased redevelopment the dismantling of public housing and increasing housing costs are forcing a shift in migration of lower income and transit dependent populations to the suburbs These suburbs are often missing basic transportation and strategies to address this are lacking This absence of public transit creates barriers to viable employment and accessibility to cultural networks and plays a role in increasing social inequality This book investigates how housing and transport policy

have played their role in creating these Transit Deserts and what impact race has upon those likely to be affected Diane Jones Allen uses research from New Orleans Baltimore and Chicago to explore the forces at work in these situations as well as proposing potential solutions Mapping interviews photographs and narratives all come together to highlight the inequities and challenges in Transit Deserts where a lack of access can make all journeys such as to jobs stores or relatives much more difficult Alternatives to public transit abound from traditional methods such as biking and carpooling to more culturally specific tactics and are examined comprehensively This is valuable reading for students and researchers interested in transport planning urban planning city infrastructure and transport geography The Patch Chris Turner, 2017-09-19 In its heyday the oil sands represented an industrial triumph and the culmination of a century of innovation experiment engineering policy and finance Fort McMurray was a boomtown the centre of a new gold rush and the oil sands were reshaping the global energy political and financial landscapes The future seemed limitless for the city and those who drew their wealth from the bitumen rich wilderness But in 2008 a new narrative for the oil sands emerged As financial markets collapsed and the scientific reality of the Patch's effect on the environment became clear the region turned into a boogeyman and a lightning rod for the global movement combatting climate change Suddenly the streets of Fort McMurray were the front line of a high stakes collision between two conflicting worldviews one of industrial triumph and another of environmental stewardship each backed by major players on the world stage The Patch is the seminal account of this ongoing conflict showing just how far the oil sands reaches into all of our lives From Fort Mac to the Bakken shale country of North Dakota from Houston to London from Saudi Arabia to the shores of Brazil the whole world is connected in this enterprise And it requires us to ask the question In order to both fuel the world and to save it what do we do about the Patch News of Baltimore Linda Steiner, Silvio Waisbord, 2017-05-25 This book examines how the media approached long standing and long simmering issues of race class violence and social responsibility in Baltimore during the demonstrations violence and public debate in the spring of 2015 Contributors take Baltimore to be an important place symbol and marker though the issues are certainly not unique to Baltimore they have crucial implications for contemporary journalism in the U S These events prompt several questions How well did journalism do in Baltimore nearby and nationally in explaining the endemic issues besetting Baltimore What might have been done differently What is the responsibility of journalists to anticipate and cover these problems How should they cover social problems in urban areas What do the answers to such questions suggest about how journalists should in future cover such problems The Northwestern Miller, 1928 Anti-Islamic Protest in the UK William Allchorn, 2018-12-07 Demonstrations by far right groups such as the English Defence League Britain First and PEGIDA have caused considerable social and civic unrest in UK cities for nearly a decade But how should policymakers respond to far right and anti Muslim activism Drawing on extensive primary research with stakeholders local authorities and policymakers this book investigates the political socio economic and historic trends that fuel this form of political extremism across the UK It also maps the different types of policy responses available to local politicians police forces and behind the scenes policy officials involved in the day to day management of anti Islamic street protest The author demonstrates that it is only through developing successful countermeasures in the realm of politics security and community based politics that politicians police and state actors will truly get to grips with this new far right activism POSSESSED Cordelia

Lee,2018-05-08 Cordelia Lee has experienced something few in the Western world have even witnessed exorcism Demonic possession brought her to a Taoist shaman who could drive out her tormentors but only temporarily Cordelia s problems were multifaceted a troubled childhood molests rape attempt black magic anorexia unfulfilled maternal instinct failing marriage and depression Given the severity of her experiences and the return of the evil spirits Cordelia had to dedicate her life to healing if she was ever to recover She had earlier experienced an unexpected kundalini awakening it awakened her to the spiritual realm and the unseen energies that fill the universe Things she used to think were illogical and nonexistent But the spiritual realm that promised answers also held the ghosts that flooded her and a much more human danger Not everyone had the kindness of the shaman who exorcised Cordelia She met other teachers on her journey and some of these gurus wanted to manipulate her with black magic Discerning between helpful guides and wolves in sheep s clothing proved challenging Yet the promise of healing through earthly and spiritual means urged her forward With the support of trustworthy friends Cordelia would become a healer in her own right The Palgrave Handbook of Theatre and Migration

Yana Meerzon,S.E Wilmer,2023-08-01 The Palgrave Handbook of Theatre and Migration provides a wide survey of theatre and performance practices related to the experience of global movements both in historical and contemporary contexts Given the largest number of people ever over one hundred million suffering from forced displacement today much of the book centres around the topic of refuge and exile and the role of theatre in addressing these issues The book is structured in six sections the first of which is dedicated to the major theoretical concepts related to the field of theatre and migration including exile refuge displacement asylum seeking colonialism human rights globalization and nomadism The subsequent sections are devoted to several dozen case studies across various geographies and time periods that highlight describe and analyse different theatre practices related to migration The volume serves as a prestigious reference work to help theatre practitioners students scholars and educators navigate the complex field of theatre and migration Producing Pleasure in the Contemporary University Stewart Riddle,Marcus K. Harmes,Patrick Alan Danaher,2017-10-10 Academics working in contemporary universities are experiencing unprecedented and unsustainable pressure in an environment of hyper performativity metrics and accountability From this perspective the university produces multiple tensions and moments of crises where it seems that there is limited space left for the intrinsic enjoyment arising from scholarly practices This book offers a global perspective on how pleasure is central to the endeavours of academics working in the contemporary university with contributors evaluating the opportunities for the strategic refusal of the quantifying stultifying and stupefying delimiters of what is possible for academic production The aim of this book is to open up spaces for conversation reflection and thought in order to think to be and to do differently pleasurably Contributors rupture the bounds of what is permissible and possible within their daily lives habits and practices As such this book addresses increasingly significant questions What are some of the multiple and different ways that we can reclaim pleasure and enhance the durations and intensities of our passions desires and becomings within the contemporary university How might these aspirations be realised What are the spaces for the pleasurable production of research that might be opened up How might we reconfigure the neoliberal university to be a place of more affect where desire laughter and joy join with the work that we seek to undertake and the communities whom we serve
