God Down Under Theology In The Antipodes Atf Series 1:

God Down Under Winifred Wing Han Lamb, 2003 The papers in this volume of essays arose out of a lively conversation involving theologians religious leaders biblical scholars historians philosophers ethicists youth workers poets and welfare activists in Canberra in 2000 The Future of Christianity John Stenhouse, Brett Knowles, Antony Wood, 2004 This book written by a group of New Zealand scholars theologians historians and lawyers examines the question of New Zealand's Western culture and Christianity The contributors explore recent debates over secularisation exploring its merits and explanatory power while also showing its limitations Church and Civil Society Sue Leppert, Francis Sullivan, 2004 This collection of essays examines the relationship between theology church state politics and civil society The Characterization of Jesus in the Book of Hebrews Brian Small, 2014-01-30 In The Characterization of Jesus in the Book of Hebrews Brian Small applies the tools of literary and rhetorical criticism to reconstruct the author of Hebrew's portrayal of Jesus character The author of Hebrews uses a variety of literary and rhetorical devices in order to develop his characterization of Jesus The portrait that emerges is that Jesus is a person of exemplary character who exhibits both divine and human character traits Some of the traits reveal Jesus greatness while others reveal his moral excellence Jesus exemplary character plays a prominent role in the author's argument and has profound implications for his audience Jesus character produces many benefits for his followers and his character entails certain obligations from his followers

Humble Confidence Paul Weston, 2025-01-30 Lesslie Newbigin's development of a fresh paradigm of missionary theology and cultural engagement has solidified his reputation as not just one of the most important missionary theologians of the twentieth century but as continually relevant in the twenty first Paul Weston focusses on how the engagement with Michael Polanyi's understanding of personal knowledge illuminates Newbigin's work and contributes to its ongoing significance Interlinking themes of Revelation Knowing and Story and tracing through Newbigin's engagements with modernity and post modernity Weston suggests how the logic of Newbigin's approach continues to provide insight to mission theologians and practitioners It is Weston's conviction that Humble Confidence presents Newbigin's thinking in a way that can serve the continuing mission of the church Wisdom for Life Michael Andrew Kelly, Mark A. O'Brien, 2005 This volume draws on scholars from a variety of theological disciplines scripture history systematic theology The essays are designed to encourage readers to become more critically reflective as they engage with biblical texts and contemporary concerns Western Culture in Gospel Context David J. Kettle, 2011-04-18 Approaching us in sovereign freedom God comes alive to us we come alive to God and all creation comes alive as a sign pointing to God In the gospel of Jesus Christ God gives and discloses himself in this immediate way as our ultimate context and host within the provisional medium of creation This life giving gospel is met by blindness however among those who live today in a collapsing Western culture This is because their imaginative world is shaped by habitual assumptions and practices that lie largely unacknowledged deep within that culture and that preclude openness to the gospel Moreover Western Christians themselves widely share these assumptions betraying the gospel into cultural captivity God calls for the conversion of Western culture to the living gospel Crucially this must include as Lesslie Newbigin recognized a repentance from modern Western assumptions about knowledge Part One explores seeking knowing and serving God as providing a true paradigm for understanding all human enquiry knowledge and action Part Two examines ten resulting hot spots where conversion from prevailing cultural assumptions is vital for authentic mission to Western culture

The Bible and the Business of Life Simon Carey Holt, Gordon R. Preece, 2004 The Bible and the Business of Life is an anthology of essays by a variety of authors celebrating the 65th birthday of Robert Banks Robert Banks was an Baptist who worked and taught in the USA in Pasadena and in Melbourne

Hope Christiaan Mostert, 2004 Our age is not one of great hope war and terror continue unabated Despair lies hidden just below the preoccupations of daily life and is starkly visible at many points in today's world Directly or indirectly the contributors to this volume seek to challenge the culture of despair These authors theologians and leaders write about hope its ground its shape in the Bible and its expression in Christian life and worship mission and ministry The book challenges the church as much as the culture Do Christians know the ground of their hope Is the church the bearer of hope Does its worship sustain hope The contributors include biblical scholars historians systematic and pastoral theologians

Christianity, Modernity and Culture John Stenhouse, G. A. Wood, 2005 For much of the twentieth century New Zealand historians like most Western scholars largely took it for granted that as modernity waxed religion would wane Secularization the fading into insignificance of religion would distinguish the modern era from previous ages Until the 1980s only a handful of scholars around the world raised serious empirical and theoretical questions about a Grand Theory that had become central to the self understanding of the social sciences and of the modern world Heated debates since then and the unmistakable resurgence of world religions have raised fundamental questions about the empirical and theoretical adequacy of secularization theory and especially about how far it applies outside Europe This volume revisits New Zealand history when secularization is no longer taken for granted as the Only Big Story that illuminates the country's social and cultural history Contributors explore how New Zealanders diverse religious and spiritual traditions have shaped practical everyday concerns in politics racial and ethnic relations science the environment family life gender relations and other domains

Resurrection and Moral Imagination Sarah Bachelard, 2016-04-08 Moral life gathers its shape force and meaning in relation to an underlying sense of reality imaginatively conceived Significant contemporary writing in philosophy appeals to the concept of transcendence to explore what is deepest in our moral experience but leaves this notion theologically unspecified This book reflects on the appeal to transcendence in ethics with reference to the Resurrection of Jesus Bachelard argues that the Resurrection reveals that the ultimate reality in which human life is held is gracious forgiving and reconciling a Goodness that is for us Faith in this testimony transforms the possibilities of moral life both conceptually and in practice It invites our participation in a goodness experienced non dualistically as grace and so profoundly affects the formation of the moral self the practice of moral judgement and the shape of moral concepts From this perspective contemporary philosophical discussion about transcendence in moral thought is cast in a new light and debates about the continuity between theological and secular ethics gain a thoroughly new dimension Bachelard demonstrates that placing the Resurrection at the heart of our ethical reflection resonates with the deepest currents of our lived moral experience and transfigures our approach to moral life and thought The National Reformer
