He takes off his sandals and walks on the abandoned baseball field. Walking under the clear night sky, he feels the soft sand under his feet. He begins to have the thought that has been pondering in his mind all that very day: If I draw near to him, he will draw near to me; he will show up. He paces from base to base, expecting him to show himself any moment. Draw near to him. Draw near to him. The thought plays over and over like a song stuck in his mind. Where is he? He wonders. Finally, he asks out loud with no one visible in sight: "Where are you?" Then he hears a whisper behind him say: "Here I am." The Lion of Judah waits for you. Will you let him in? Keep Your Eyes on Me Deborah Stricklin, 2025-10-21

Learning to keep your eyes on Jesus is not easy. When circumstances get difficult, we naturally want to focus on the problem, turning it over and over in our minds until we arrive at some sort of solution. The Lord is inviting us to set our eyes on Him, regardless of the circumstances. And as we focus on Him, He brings resolution. That resolution may simply be peace in the middle of the difficulty, but peace with Him gives us the ability to navigate even the most challenging circumstances. Forty days is long enough to establish a new pattern in our thinking, but to get truly comfortable living in the ambiguity of unresolved problems or threatening circumstances takes purposeful effort in keeping our eyes heavenward over a long period of time. Jesus is eager to teach us how to navigate life with our eyes on Him. And then trust in the One who is leading us grows with each passing day. Monkey Bar Adventure Angela Kirkpatrick, 2005-07

For anyone who has had the pleasure of raising teaching or being around children, Monkey Bar Adventure opens your eyes to a wonderful new way to forge a bond with children based on a deeper relationship with God. As parents and caregivers, we experience a variety of different moments with our children. Those monster moments nearly convince us that God sent them with the primary purpose of punishing us. There are the funny monkey moments at which we laugh and are amazed at the thoughts in those tiny little heads. But it's in the treasured angel moments that we see Jesus himself. During these times when we look at them as Jesus did, we realize that God is the only perfect parent. He desires the same behaviors from us that we want from our children. Learn how to become better parents by first becoming better children of God. If you want to know the truth about Jesus calling the children to him, then come join the Monkey Bar Adventure. You're Already Amazing Holley Gerth, 2012-03-01
