Two Dozen (or so) Arguments for God Jerry Walls,Trent Dougherty,2018-08-07 Thirty years ago Alvin Plantinga gave a lecture called Two Dozen or so Theistic Arguments which served as an underground inspiration for two generations of scholars and students In it he proposed a number of novel and creative arguments for the existence of God which have yet to receive the attention they deserve In Two Dozen or so Arguments for God each of Plantinga's original suggestions many of which he only briefly sketched is developed in detail by a wide variety of accomplished scholars The authors look to metaphysics epistemology semantics ethics aesthetics and beyond finding evidence for God in almost every dimension of reality Those arguments new to natural theology are more fully developed and well known arguments are given new life Not only does this collection present ground breaking research but it lays the foundations for research projects for years to come

Natural Theology William Paley, 2005 William Paley's classic brings depth to the history of intelligent design arguments The contrivance of the eye the ear and numerous other anatomical features throughout the natural world are presented as arguments for God's presence and concern While there are distinctive differences between Paley's argument and those used today by intelligent design theorists and creationists it remains a fascinating glimpse of the nineteenth century's debate over the roles of religion and science
