Edward Schillebeeckx and Contemporary Theology Lieven Boeve, Frederiek Depoortere, Stephan van Erp, 2010-10-07
What are contemporary theology's challenges? What are its fruitful approaches? Who are its promising contributors? The contributions to this collection of essays try to find answers to these questions by making references to the Dutch Dominican scholar Edward Schillebeeckx using his theology as a starting point for an up-to-date investigation and discussion. The theological work of Edward Schillebeeckx marks the transition from a pre-modern to a modern approach to Christian faith, Church, and theology. Already more than two generations of theologians have been trained in dialogue with his thought. Contemporary theology testifies often implicitly to the enduring relevance of many of Schillebeeckx's insights while in other instances it pushes his thinking to its limits in order to deal with the current challenges for faith and society. Edward Schillebeeckx Erik Borgman, 2004-01-01 This is the first full biography of one of the greatest Roman Catholic theologians of the last century. Schillebeeckx is alive and still writing important work. He is a Dutch Dominican and theological genius whose influence on the Second Vatican Council was profound. He was regarded as the theological voice of progressive Catholicism. But in 1968 the Vatican Authorities started an investigation into his orthodoxy and a great many Catholics also felt that this was an attack on them. Borgman puts Schillebeeckx in his context, creating a new perspective on his ultimate significance for the church and for the development of theology. God is ieder ogenblik nieuw Edward Schillebeeckx, Huub Oosterhuis, Piet Hoogeveen, 1982 Inleiding in vraag en antwoordvorm tot het theologiseren van de Nijmeegse hoogleraar in de dogmatische theologie geb. 1914 Nouvelle Théologie - New Theology Jürgen Mettepenningen, 2010-04-01 This is an introduction to the most influential movement in Catholic theology in the 20th century which prepared the ground for the Second Vatican Council. It sheds new light on the theological movement that led up to and inspired the Second Vatican Council and is a most needed contribution to the ongoing heated discussions about the hermeneutics of the Council. Suffering and Salvation Aloysius Rego, 2006 Suffering, especially that of the innocent and those unjustly treated, is a universal experience which has perplexed and agonised humanity. This reality is especially a challenge to believers in an all-powerful good and loving God. Within the Christian tradition, in particular because of the centrality of the cross and the crucified and risen One, there has been a tradition which has hallowed suffering. In this perspective, suffering per se, whatever its origin, is mystified as a necessary prelude to salvation. Is suffering salvific? Are all experiences of suffering saving? What is God's attitude and involvement with suffering? In this work, these questions are explored through the lens of Edward Schillebeeckx's later theology, which is primarily concerned with the development of a contemporary soteriology. From Mother of the Redemption to Mother of All Believers Antoni Nadbrzeźny, 2024-12-09 Antoni Nadbrzeźny exposes the personalistic character of Schillebeeckx's Mariology. In his book, the author presents Mary as a human being whose holiness is great and mysterious. According to the Flemish theologian, Mary becomes the guarantor of the full and true humanity of Jesus. It is a

Mariology that finds its foundation in the history of salvation The book does not follow the path of abstract metaphysics but pays more attention to the real and existential elements of Mary's life This reinterpretation finds its source in the application of phenomenological thought In his theological picture of Mary Schillebeeckx rejects all Gnostic idyllic and dualistic thoughts The Mother of God appears as someone who seeks God who shares the tragic fate of the world and recognizes her place and mission in salvation history She participates in human suffering and the trial of faith Volgens Edward Schillebeeckx

Leo Apostel, 1991 Opstellen over de wetenschapstheoretische achtergronden van de theologie van Edward Schillebeeckx 1914 Humanity in the Mystery of God Jennifer Cooper, 2009-06-30 Schillebeeckx's theology is a reflection on the nature of God who is both creator and redeemer his theology is a treatise on the God who is God for humanity This means of course that his theology is always both a reflection on the nature of God and on the meaning of humanity and hence there is a theological anthropology at the centre of his whole theological enterprise The definition of humanity is given in the relationship between the mystery of God the God who is both transcendent and immanent and the mystery of humanity For Schillebeeckx the meaning of humanity is revealed and established in the mystery of God as a vocation to intimacy with God This intimacy is described both as a dependence upon God and as a situated freedom and hence the description of humanity which emerges from Schillebeeckx's treatise on God holds together humanity's metaphysical and moral significance At the heart of this theocentric anthropology is its christological structure Schillebeeckx develops a sacramental christology in light of his interpretation of Christ's incarnation The relation of incarnation to the death resurrection and glorification of Christ establishes a sacramental theological anthropology The meaning of humanity is given in its creative salvific sanctifying participative and personal relation to the God who is God both of creation and of covenant This book develops an interpretation of Schillebeeckx's theological anthropology by analysing his theology of revelation and grace and by examining the christological structure of his theology This christology centres on an interpretation of the incarnation in which the fully personal nature of Christ's humanity is key This christology establishes the sacramental nature of humanity and hence Schillebeeckx's description of the meaning of human nature is also a theological description of the meaning of human action

Mots étrangers (Publications du Centre d'Etude du Français Moderne et Contemporain, 3). Gerard Lukken, 1994 The author of this book Gerard Lukken has always believed that liturgy is not something which is unchangeable or sacrosanct something to be imposed from above rather he believes that it must gain shape and content from the situation in which believers find themselves This involvement is reflected in the hundreds of publications which have flowed from his pen Lukken's extensive writings offer not only an exciting reflection on the challenges such as secularization and the decrease in church going confronting church and believers but also on the problems they have faced in celebrating their faith in recent decades Moreover his work represents a model for methodological renewal The key concepts in his theological approach and his evaluation are anthropology and semiotics These two aspects have left their marks on the organisation of this book which is a selective compilation drawn from his earlier publications This collection consists of nineteen studies which have lost nothing of their topicality and most of which are now being translated into English French or German for the first time By crossing the frontier of language in such a way the editors wish not only to honour a leading specialist in liturgy but also to contribute to academic research into liturgy throughout the world Gerard Lukken 1933 studied at the Diocesan Seminary in Haaren Noord Brabant the Pontificia Universita in Rome and the Institut Supérieur de Liturgie in Paris He was professor of liturgy and sacramental theology from 1967 and director of the Liturgical Institute from 1992 at the Theological Faculty of Tilburg until his retirement in 1994
