Gods Continent Christianity Islam And Europes Religious Crisis The Future Of Christianity:

God's Continent Philip Jenkins, 2007-05-11 The third book in an acclaimed trilogy that includes The Next Christendom and The New Faces of Christianity God's Continent offers a realistic and historically grounded appraisal of the future of Christianity in a rapidly changing Europe Is the Christian church in Europe doomed to collapse under the weight of globalization Western secularism and a flood of Muslim immigrants Jenkins shows that such anxious speculation is unfounded and offers a much more measured assessment of Europe's religious future

God's Continent : Christianity, Islam, and Europe's Religious Crisis Philip Jenkins Distinguished Professor of History and Religious Studies Pennsylvania State University, 2007-05-11 What does the future hold for European Christianity Is the Christian church doomed to collapse under the weight of globalization Western secularism and a flood of Muslim immigrants Is Europe in short on the brink of becoming Eurabia Though many pundits are loudly predicting just such a scenario Philip Jenkins reveals the flaws in these arguments in God's Continent and offers a much more measured assessment of Europe's religious future While frankly acknowledging current tensions Jenkins shows for instance that the overheated rhetoric about a Muslim dominated Europe is based on politically convenient myths that Europe is being imperiled by floods of Muslim immigrants exploding Muslim birth rates and the demise of European Christianity He points out that by no means are Muslims the only new immigrants in Europe Christians from Africa Asia and Eastern Europe are also pouring into the Western countries and bringing with them a vibrant and enthusiastic faith that is helping to transform the face of European Christianity Jenkins agrees that both Christianity and Islam face real difficulties in surviving within Europe's secular culture But instead of fading away both have adapted and are adapting Yes the churches are in decline but there are also clear indications that Christian loyalty and devotion survive even as institutions crumble Jenkins sees encouraging signs of continuing Christian devotion in Europe especially in pilgrimages that attract millions more in fact than in bygone ages of faith The third book in an acclaimed trilogy that includes The Next Christendom and The New Faces of Christianity God's Continent offers a realistic and historically grounded appraisal of the future of Christianity in a rapidly changing Europe

The Future of Christian Theology David F. Ford, 2011-02-28 The Future of Christian Theology represents a personal manifesto from one of the world's leading theologians exploring the ways Christian theology in the twenty first century has been and can now continue to be both creative and wise Represents an outstanding and engaging account of the task of theology today Offers an insightful description of what makes for discerning and creative theology Written from the perspective of decades of experience and in close dialogue with theologians of other faiths Features a strong interfaith and public theology dimension and a contemporary portrait of the field from the inside A hopeful and illuminating search for wisdom and understanding in the increasingly complex religious and secular world of the twenty first century

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles

In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari'a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

discusses the role of Islam in the political and social developments in the Balkans after the fall of communism It explores comparatively the transformations of Muslim identities under the influence of various national and transnational domestic and global factors World Christianity Tan, Jonathan Y., Tran, Anh Q., 2016-04-13 Entangling Web Alec Ryrie, Mark A. Lamport, 2024-03-19 Europe has a tremendously important role in the history of Christianity and was the continent with the most Christians from roughly the year 900 to 1980 However Europe is now home to only 22 percent of all Christians in the world down from 68 percent in 1900 The major trend of European religion in the twentieth and twenty first centuries has been secularization disestablishment and decreased influence of state churches lower importance of religion in the public sphere the decline of religious beliefs and practices and individual religious switching from Christianity to atheism and agnosticism One hundred years ago it was true that the typical Christian in the world was a white European Given current trends however Europe is clearly no longer the geographic nor demographic center of world Christianity Yet that does not mean Europe has no role in the future It is still the home of major Christian communions such as Catholics Rome Anglicans Canterbury Russian Orthodox Moscow and Lutherans Geneva European mission agencies are active throughout the world providing theological education and social welfare programs combatting climate change and advocating for gender equality

Sharing Lives Bert de Ruiter, 2013-10-12 This book argues that the single greatest hindrance to Christian witness amongst Muslims in Europe is fear Many European Christians fear that Europe will gradually turn into Eurabia or Islamic domination of Europe and they ignore the efforts of Muslims to adapt to the European context a situation pointing to a future scenario of Euro Islam or Islam being Europeanized The author argues that instead of an attitude of fear which leads to exclusion Christians should develop an attitude of grace which leads to embrace After analyzing books and courses developed to help Christians relate to Muslims he concludes that these mostly concentrate on providing information and skills instead of dealing with one's attitude. Because of this the author developed a short course to help Christians overcome their fear of Islam and Muslims and to encourage Christians to share their lives with Muslims and to share the truth of the Gospel with the purpose of attracting them to Christ. Bert de Ruiter, 1958, works with OM Europe as Champion Muslim Ministries in Europe. Bert obtained a Master of Arts in World Evangelization and a Doctor of Ministry in Muslim-Christian relations. During the past 25 years Bert has been ministering in almost 50 countries around the world to help Christians share their lives with Muslims. Bert and his wife live in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, and have two children and one grandchild.

Religion and Contemporary Politics Timothy J. Demy, Jeffrey M. Shaw Ph.D., 2019-09-19. With respect to the countries of the world, this work addresses two basic questions: How does religion affect politics in this country, and how does politics affect religion in this country? Although there are many books on the topics of religion and politics, reference works that consider the two together are few, with those that do exist primarily addressing theory rather than trends. The present work does the latter, contextualizing them within regional and national boundaries. In so doing, it recognizes the power of political and religious ideas and movements on individuals, communities, and nations, making the work a valuable resource for several disciplines among them: political science, international relations, religion, and sociology. The work focuses on the interplay of religion and politics in countries around the world, with an emphasis on the post-2000s. It is organized by global geographic regions, including Africa, Central and South America, and the Middle East, and presents countries alphabetically within those sections. Each region has a brief overview of the political-religious dynamics of the area so readers can compare and contrast the dynamics between and among countries in a region. The work also includes an introduction, sidebars, and a bibliography.

The Review of Faith & International Affairs, 2009 Pilgrims and Priests Stefan Paas, 2019-11-30. What does missional mean for small Christian communities in a deeply secular society? Leading missiologist Stefan Paas asks what missional spirituality could possibly mean for today's local church. This fully revised new international edition will make this an important introduction to contemporary thinking on mission and the church. Signs of Hope Alejandro Bullon, 2009-07. In a world in which life is no longer sacred, hunger and poverty are rampant, and natural disasters are worse than ever before, people find themselves hoping against hope that things will get better. Turn on the news, and you'll be bombarded with stories of vicious crimes, cruel wars, and terrible disasters. From all appearances, our world seems to be hurtling toward a catastrophic finale. But who's to blame for all this chaos anyway? Is there actually a rational explanation for the horrific events that take place each and every day? And is there anything that could save us from this mess? Alejandro Bullon tackles these and other daunting questions and discovers that the crisis in which we've found ourselves is itself a sign of hope, pointing to the grand finale: the second coming of Jesus. Trajectory of the 21st Century Lawrence J. Terlizese, 2009-01-10. Trajectory of the Twenty-first Century explores what many prophets of the twentieth century, such as Oswald Spengler, Paul Tillich, Aldous

Huxley Jacques Ellul and others have predicted would transpire in the current century Their vision included an out of control technological system and a return to religious sentiment that will ultimately undermine the system to which it is reacting This book aims to accurately present their positions and draw certain logical conclusions from them that pertain to the course of history in our time The book s theme argues that modernity is a secularized version of millennial Christianity which reaches its fullest development in the twenty first century and will regress into what Russian philosopher Nicholas Berdyaev called the new Middle Ages or a new religious period This will mean the twilight of modern technological society as its values of rationalism give way to a postrationalist society Ironically decline will come through further technological advance Omnicide threatens through religious world war driven by transcendent values and modern weaponry Jihadist thinking and posthumanist technology both establish the omnicidal mentality New technologies such as genetic engineering and artificial intelligence created under millennial inspiration to reach for immortality could potentially bring an end to the human species either through a slow steady obsolescence or through environmental catastrophe The titanic forces of technological progress and regress are on a direct collision course in the twenty first century The Next Christendom Philip Jenkins,2011-09-13

In this new and substantially expanded Third Edition Philip Jenkins continues to illuminate the remarkable expansion of Christianity in the global South in Africa Asia and Latin America Drawing upon the extensive new scholarship that has appeared on this topic in recent years he asks how the new Christianity is likely to affect the poor among whom it finds its most devoted adherents How should we interpret the enormous success of prosperity churches across the Global South Politically what will be the impact of new Christian movements Will Christianity contribute to liberating the poor to give voices to the previously silent or does it threaten only to bring new kinds of division and conflict Does Christianity liberate women or introduce new scriptural bases for subjection Acclaim for previous editions of The Next Christendom Named one of the Top Religion Books of 2002 by USA Today Named One of the Top Ten Religion Books of the Year by Booklist 2002 Winner of the Christianity Today Book Award in the category of Christianity and Culture 2002 Jenkins is to be commended for reminding us throughout the often gripping pages of this lively work that the history of Christianity is the history of innovative and unpredictable adaptations The New York Times Book Review This is a landmark book Jenkin s thesis is comprehensively researched his analysis is full of insight and his projection of the future may indeed prove to be prophetic Baptist Times A valuable and provocative look at the phenomenon widely ignored in the affluent North but likely to be of enormous importance in the century ahead The Next Christendom is chillingly realistic about the relationship between Christianity and Islam Russell Shaw Crisis If the times demand nothing less than a major rethinking of contemporary global history from a Christian perspective The Next Christendom will be one of the significant landmarks pointing the way Mark Noll Books Culture Western Christians in Global Mission Paul Borthwick,2012-10-03 Missions specialist Paul Borthwick brings an urgent report on how the Western church can best continue in global mission Providing current analysis of the state of the world and Majority World opinion Borthwick offers concrete advice for Western churches who want to avoid the pitfalls of colonialism Contesting Religious Identities Bob E.J.H. Becking, Anna-Marie J.A.C.M. Korte, Lucien van Liere, 2017-01-09 Religion is a hot topic on the public stages of secular societies not in its individualized liberal or orthodox form but rather as a public statement challenging the divide between the secular neutral space and the religious In this new challenging modus religion raises questions about identity power rationality subjectivity law and safety but above all religion questions contests and even blurs the borders between the public and the private These phenomena urge to rethink what are often considered to be clear differences between religions between the public and the private and between the religious and the secular In this volume scholars from a range of different disciplines map the different aspects of the dynamics of changing contesting and contested religious identities
