Red Notebook Dennis Barone, 2011-09-16 The novels of Paul Auster finely wrought self-reflexive filled with doublings coincidences and mysteries have captured the imagination of readers and the admiration of many critics of contemporary literature In Beyond the Red Notebook the first book devoted to the works of Auster Dennis Barone has assembled an international group of scholars who present twelve essays that provide a rich and insightful examination of Auster's writings The authors explore connections between Auster's poetry and fiction the philosophical underpinnings of his writing its relation to detective fiction and its unique embodiment of the postmodern sublime Their essays provide the fullest analysis available of Auster's themes of solitude chance and paternity found in works such as The Invention of Solitude City of Glass Ghosts The Locked Room In the Country of Last Things Moon Palace The Music of Chance and Leviathan This volume includes contributions from Pascal Bruckner Marc Chenetier Norman Finkelstein Derek Rubin Madeleine Sorapure Stephen Bernstein Tim Woods Steven Weisenburger Arthur Saltzman Eric Wirth and Motoyuki Shibata The extensive bibliography prepared by William Drenttel will greatly benefit both scholars and general readers David Peace Katy Shaw, 2018-03-28

David Peace is an emerging author who is widely read and taught and whose novels are increasingly translated into commercial film The Damned United March 2009 and television Channel 4 adaptation of the Red Riding Quartet March 2009 Dr Katy Shaw's book provides a challenging but accessible critical introduction to his work through a detailed analysis of his writing as well as the socio-cultural contexts of its production and dissemination The author explores Peace's attempts to capture the sensibilities of late twentieth-century society and contributes to an ongoing debate in the media about Peace's representations Influenced by critical theory the text will be the first secondary resource concerning this rising star of contemporary British literature While UK readers will seek insight into the socio-cultural contexts of England's regions and in particular his writing on the Yorkshire Ripper and the 1985 5 miners strike Peace also has a following in the US where both The Damned United and Red Riding are set to receive a national cinema release in 2009 10 This broad international appeal and readership will be explored and discussed especially in the context of crime fiction and social engagement This text is the first critical resource concerning this author and will cover the full body of Peace's writings to date the debates this work has generated and the often contentious representations offered by his novels The Mythology of the Superhero Andrew R.

Bahlmann,2016-04-27 Superheroes have been an integral part of popular society for decades and have given rise to a collective mythology familiar in popular culture worldwide Though scholars and fans have recognized and commented on this mythology its structure has gone largely unexplored This book provides a model and lexicon for identifying the superhero mythos The author examines the myth in several narratives including Buffy the Vampire Slayer Green Arrow and Beowulf and discusses such diverse characters as Batman Wolverine Invincible and John Constantine The New Breadmakers Margaret Thomson Davis,2004-11-11 The New Breadmakers is the long awaited sequel to Margaret Thomson Davis bestselling saga The Breadmakers her classic trilogy chronicling the life and times of a Glasgow working class community during the 1930s and 40s Having survived everything that the Depression and the Second World War has thrown at them the people of McNair s bakery and the surrounding tenements are now facing an uncertain future With the Coronation of 1953 a new age is beginning and all is by no means well in the lives of the breadmakers Catriona McNair s husband is making her life a misery and she decides to take drastic action her friends Julie and Sammy have become involved in a search for a long lost daughter Alec Jackson the happy go lucky reformed philanderer finds himself caught up in one of Glasgow s worst tragedies and the youngsters are challenging convention in the name of romance The New Breadmakers is the wonderfully evocative story of these and a host of other colourful Glasgow characters as they live through the extraordinary changes of the 1950s and 60s

Why We Argue (And How We Should) Scott F. Aikin,Robert B. Talisse,2018-09-03 Why We Argue And How We Should A Guide to Political Disagreement in an Age of Unreason presents an accessible and engaging introduction to the theory of argument with special emphasis on the way argument works in public political debate The authors develop a view according to which proper argument is necessary for one s individual cognitive health this insight is then expanded to the collective health of one s society Proper argumentation then is seen to play a central role in a well functioning democracy Written in a lively style and filled with examples drawn from the real world of contemporary politics and questions following each chapter to encourage discussion Why We Argue And How We Should reads like a guide for the participation in and maintenance of modern democracy An excellent student resource for courses in critical thinking political philosophy and related fields Why We Argue And How We Should is an important contribution to reasoned debate What s New in the Second Edition Updated examples throughout the book including examples from the 2016 U S election and first years of the Trump presidency Expanded coverage of dialectical fallacies including coverage of new types of fallacies and of sites where such fallacies thrive e g cable news social media Revised For Further Thought questions and definitions of Key Terms included at the end of each chapter The addition of five new chapters Deep Disagreement Argument by Analogy Argument between the Ads The Owl of Minerva or weaponizing metalanguage Argumentative Responsibility and Repair Dark Matter Michael Winterbottom,2021-10-07 A Sight Sound Book of the Year Eye opening and addictively readable Total Film Who and what decides if a film gets funded How do those who control the purse strings also determine a film s content and even its message Writing as the director of award winning feature films including Welcome to Sarajevo 24 Hour Party People and The Road to Guantanamo as well as the hugely popular The Trip series Michael Winterbottom provides an insider's view of the workings of international film funding and distribution revealing how the studios that fund film production and control distribution networks also work against a sustainable independent film culture and limit innovation in filmmaking style and content In addition to reflecting upon his own filmmaking career featuring critical and commercial successes alongside a very long list of films that didn't get made Winterbottom also interviews leading contemporary filmmakers including Lynne Ramsay Mike Leigh Ken Loach Asif Kapadia and Joanna Hogg about their filmmaking practice The book closes with a vision of how the contemporary filmmaking landscape could be reformed for the better with fairer funding and payment practices allowing for a more innovative and sustainable 21st century industry
