Going Dutch Holland America Line Story:

Going Dutch William H. Miller, 1998 Overzicht in woord en beeld The Cruise Ship Phenomenon in North America Brian J. Cudahy, 2001 Cudahy an independent scholar with a PhD in philosophy and a passion for transportation looks at the early days of the cruise ship industry and discusses contemporary cruise ship design cruise markets and the evolution of the burgeoning recreation oriented business Coverage also includes the challenges of managing cruise lines and regulations governing the industry A detailed appendix presents an instant history of the major cruise line ships including notes on specifications builders registry and passenger capacity Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Battle for the Migrants Torsten Feys, 2017-10-18 This book approaches the well documented study of European mass migration to the United States of America from the viewpoint of mass migration as a business venture The overall purpose is to demonstrate that maritime and migration histories are interlinked and dependent on a deeper understanding of the social economic and political factors at work in the nineteenth century Atlantic community It centres on both the evolution of the port of Rotterdam as a migration gateway and the crucial role of the Holland America line as a regulator of the North American passenger trade The first part of the book explores the simultaneous rise of transatlantic mass migration and long distance steamshipping between 1830 to 1870 The second part divided into five chapters explores how mass migration became a big business between 1870 and 1914 and scrutinises how steamship companies organised and provided initiatives for transoceanic migration plus the role of shipping agents and agent networks and how passenger services were constructed within transatlantic networks Over the course of the text it becomes increasingly clear that by approaching mass migration as a trade issue the role of steamship companies in the facilitation of transatlantic migration is rendered both intrinsic and pivotal It consists of an introduction containing contextual information two sections providing historical overviews five chapters exploring different aspects of the shipping industry s response to mass migration conclusion bibliography and six appendices of passenger destination agent and advertising statistics Ships Monthly , 2005 Going Dutch Joyce Diane Goodfriend, Benjamin Schmidt, Annette Stott, 2008-01-01 This volume investigates the place of Dutch history and Dutch derived culture in America over the last four centuries It considers how the Dutch have fared in America and it explores how American conceptions of Dutchness have developed from Henry Hudson s historic voyage to Manhattan in 1609 through the rise of Dutch design at the turn of the twenty first century Essays probe a rich array of topics Dutch themes in American arts and letters the place of Dutch paintings in American collections shifting American interests in Dutch art literature and architecture the experience of Dutch immigrants in America and the Dutch Reformed Church in America Going Dutch presents a much needed overview of the Dutch American experience from its beginnings to the present Contributors include Julie Berger Hochstrasser Willem Frijhoff Joyce D Goodfriend Hans Krabbendam Joseph Manca Nancy T Minty Mark A Peterson Christopher Pierce Judith Richardson Louisa Wood Ruby Benjamin Schmidt Robert Schoone Jongen Annette Stott and Germany soon established shipping lines of their own and transpacific routes were opened up by Japanese and American lines The golden age between the two world wars witnessed huge growth in liner traffic to Africa Australia and New Zealand India and the Far East the French colonies and the Dutch East and West Indies but then though there was a postwar revival the breakup of empires and the arrival of mass air travel brought about the swan song of the liner Employing more than 250 stunning photographs the author describes not just the ships and routes but interweaves the technical and design developments covering engines electric light navigation and safety and accommodation A truly unique and evocative book for merchant ship enthusiasts and historians American Trust Review of the Pacific ,1927 The Saturday Evening Post ,1918 SCC Library has 1974 89 plus scattered issues Current History ,1920 How $74 Became a Million - An Autobiography John Timmermans,2016-09-26 As far back as can be traced 350 years my family lived and worked within walking distance of Asten Nord Brabant Netherlands We survived through riches poverty plagues and world wars but in 1950 my entire family left everything behind and immigrated to Canada 350 years of not travelling much more than a few kilometers in any direction followed by one massive trip of over 6000 km This story is about my humble beginnings my family my life and the adventures that happened along the way Starting with next to nothing and becoming successful in Canada the land of opportunity The Mariner's Mirror Bibliography for ... ,1995 The Economist ,1912 Bibliography of Nautical Books Alan Obin,2000-02 This is the 15th annual edition of the Bibliography of Nautical Books a reference guide to over 14 000 nautical publications It deals specifically with the year 2000
