Going the Distance? National Research Council, Transportation Research Board, Nuclear and Radiation Studies Board, Committee on Transportation of Radioactive Waste, 2006-06-21 This new report from the National Research Council s Nuclear and Radiation Studies Board NRSB and the Transportation Research Board reviews the risks and technical and societal concerns for the transport of spent nuclear fuel and high level radioactive waste in the United States Shipments are expected to increase as the U S Department of Energy opens a repository for spent fuel and high level waste at Yucca Mountain and the commercial nuclear industry considers constructing a facility in Utah for temporary storage of spent fuel from some of its nuclear waste plants The report concludes that there are no fundamental technical barriers to the safe transport of spent nuclear fuel and high level radioactive and the radiological risks of transport are well understood and generally low However there are a number of challenges that must be addressed before large quantity shipping programs can be implemented successfully Among these are managing social risks The report does not provide an examination of the security of shipments against malevolent acts but recommends that such an examination be carried out

Going the Distance Bundle Lark O'Neal, 2015-09-22 Going the Distance Bundle The Jess Donovan Stories Books 1 5 of the Going the Distance Series Jess Donovan wants a better life than the one she was born to but how do you figure how what you want when life has never been anything but a series of hurdles A sexy series about figuring out what you want by falling in love trying life on and uncovering the secrets that have held you back for a lifetime 19 year old Jess knows better than most that life is random Her mom is dead and she s on her own patching together a living as a waitress when a car crashes through the restaurant where she works In two seconds she loses her job watches her best friend hauled away in an ambulance and meets ex Olympic hopeful snowboarder Tyler Smith one of the hottest most fascinating and mysterious guys she s ever met Within days Jess is swept up into the mesmerizing force that is Tyler Their every touch sizzles every kiss dissolves them both and the sex is fierce But there s more to Tyler than his hypnotic eyes He s adrift too and his body and his soul are covered with scars How can she find herself with a guy who is lost himself Unable to trust him or her feelings when her long lost father invites her to visit him a continent away she leaps at the chance to get some perspective In dazzling New Zealand her fortunes seem to be turning way way up She lands a lucrative gig in a tourism commercial cast opposite Kaleb Te Anga a guy who s Tyler s opposite in every way When things heat up between them on set fake kisses turning to hot real kisses Jess finds herself torn Is this just a holiday hook up or something deeper How can she feel so much for two different people and how will she ever choose between them A powerful story about romance making choices and finding the life you were meant to live Hundreds of five star reviews This book will always stand out in my mind in comparison to other New Adult books I ve read The characters are great in that they aren t the quintessential good girl and bad boy that I ve come to expect from the NA genre I really enjoyed it I can t wait to read the others in this series Roxy s Reviews

Going the Distance Elizabeth McQuoid, 2013-03-15 How do we respond to the silent appeal in the dark eyes of the child in the charity catalogue or the blanketed figure in the cold shop doorway Should we share the gospel with them or a bowl of soup Throughout history men and women such as Wilberforce Shaftesbury Carey and Booth have recognised a call to help the needy Others have argued that our first task is evangelism that Christians should not meddle in politics that social action is a distraction Do we serve Christ through preaching his Word or should we use words only when necessary Tim Chester argues that evangelism and social action are inseparable as two arms of the church s mission He presents a biblical case for truly evangelical social action that is shaped and inspired by the gospel He urges conservatives not to marginalize those who uphold the cause for the oppressed and those involved in social action not to neglect the preaching of the Word Consistent mission minded evangelicals have always refused to choose between a commitment to gospel proclamation and an active concern for the poor Tim Chester digs deep into the Bible to show us why both are vital and what it means to be Christ's people in a world of need Keith Walker director of SIM UK N Europe A must read for those looking for a way to integrate word and deed mission to advance God's purposed in our needy world Tom Sine author of Living on Purpose Finding God's Best For Your Life In the Distance. A Novel George Parsons Lathrop, 2025-07-13 Reprint of the original first published in 1885 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage I Will Go the Distance Jacob J. Akol, 2005 Go the Distance Jim Serger, 2011-10-24 One family's true story of redemption and recovery In order for a relationship to hold one must be willing to keep it strong no matter how weak it becomes That is the power of love But love alone does not always guarantee satisfaction This book is about will power and the desire to keep love afloat it is about communication for survival and the will power to believe in someone even when they are not willing to believe in themselves How far are you willing to go for a loved one Jim Serger shares how far he and his family went to save the relationship with his father through his dad's battle with alcoholism This is a heartfelt and personal journey one that will resonate with anyone who has struggled to pull a loved one from the depths of addiction back into the joy of life This book will prove to anyone that as long as there is a will there is a way The will is the how and the now and it can determine the future What is in the past is in the past Put it behind you and focus on tomorrow If you have ever been down in the valley staring up at the highest mountain and feel there is no way to the top this book is for you Jim Serger and his father were able to beat the odds and overcome the obstacles through sheer unconditional love will power and faith It can be done Go the Distance will tell you how Going the Distance Michael Joyce, 2013-09-17 Finalist for the 2013 ForeWord IndieFab Book of the Year Award in the Literary Category Finalist for the 2013 CASEY Award presented by Spitball The Literary Baseball Magazine Going the Distance is a baseball novel with a difference a multilayered love story a celebration of both America's game and the New York landscape John Jack Flynn was a major league pitcher with all star promise But on the day of the 1979 All Star game he finds himself back in the North Country of New York where he was born his career cut short by an injury no recollection as to how he came to be back there with a beautiful woman he doesn't recognize beside him in the passenger seat of his car The mystery of this passenger is but the first of many mysteries in this richly poetic deeply moving and sometimes comic novel Flynn faces losses much greater than the end of an athletic career In a journey both to recover his past and to find a place and time to begin life anew he faces perhaps the most difficult decision a human being must make In the process he garners support from a band of magical characters a mystical girl who tells fortunes with baseball cards a onetime bird dog baseball scout who dresses in a hazmat body suit to avoid polluting himself with human contact a former teammate a homerun hitter and juju man who comes to the rescue from the sky and most of all that woman beside Flynn who teaches him how to love again or perhaps for the first time
