

The Industrial Revolution

The Industrial Revolution's roots were sown in the late 18th century when the American Revolutionary War broke out. This led to the Industrial Revolution, which began as a series of technological innovations in England, such as the steam engine, the factory, and the textile mill. These innovations led to the Industrial Revolution, which began in the late 18th century and continued into the 19th century. The Industrial Revolution was a period of rapid technological and economic change that transformed the world as we know it today.

The Industrial Revolution began in Great Britain in the late 18th century, when the first textile mills were built.
