Race and Racism in the United States Charles A. Gallagher, Cameron D. Lippard, 2014-06-24 How is race defined and perceived in America today and how do these definitions and perceptions compare to attitudes 100 years ago or 200 years ago This four volume set is the definitive source for every topic related to race in the United States In the 21st century it is easy for some students and readers to believe that racism is a thing of the past in reality old wounds have yet to heal and new forms of racism are taking shape Racism has played a role in American society since the founding of the nation in spite of the words all men are created equal within the Declaration of Independence This set is the largest and most complete of its kind covering every facet of race relations in the United States while providing information in a user friendly format that allows easy cross referencing of related topics for efficient research and learning The work serves as an accessible tool for high school researchers provides important material for undergraduate students enrolled in a variety of humanities and social sciences courses and is an outstanding ready reference for race scholars The entries provide readers with comprehensive content supplemented by historical backgrounds relevant examples from primary documents and first hand accounts Information is presented to interest and appeal to readers but also to support critical inquiry and understanding A fourth volume of related primary documents supplies additional reading and resources for research

The Beyonce Effect Adrienne Trier-Bieniek,2016-07-11 Since her late 1990s debut as a member of the R feminism empowerment and gender in Beyonce s lyrics black female pleasure and the changing face of celebrity motherhood Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Black Women in Interracial Relationships Kellina Craig-Henderson,2017-07-28 According to the most recent U S census twice as many black men are involved in interracial relationships as black women Do black women consciously resist such involvement What motivates the relatively few women who are in these types of relationships And how do they navigate the unfamiliar terrain in intimacy One of the most popular explanations for black women s involvement in interracial intimacy is the unavailability of eligible black men This explanation focuses on the dismal statistics popularly discussed in reports that forecast lonely futures for African American females Craig Henderson explores another more provocative explanation She argues that some black women may disassociate from larger social stereotypes by consciously and strategically making choices that distance them from what is considered characteristic of the typical African American woman Scant serious attention has focused upon intimate interracial relationships perhaps because of a general reluctance to deal with two extremely provocative issues race and sex As rates of interracial relationships continue to increase discussions about interracial intimacy are relevant and timely Craig Henderson considers the continuing taboo of interracial relationships involving African Americans the way this taboo is changing and the way that contemporary race relations perpetuate longstanding stereotypes about race and sex The book includes in depth unstructured interviews with a wide range of black women currently involved in interracial intimate relationships Each individual discusses their relationships with family members beliefs about the influence of race in America unique problems associated with interracial intimacy as well as sexual attraction racial identity and children Of particular interest to specialists in race gender family and sexual issues this work is also accessible and appealing to general readers

The Myth of Post-Racial America H. Roy Kaplan,2011-02-16 The Myth of Post Racial America provides a history of race and racism in the United States These concepts became integral parts of American society through social psychological and political decisions which are documented so readers can learn about the origin of myths and stereotypes that have created schisms in our society from its founding to the present day This information is essential reading for students and teachers so they can become more effective in their work and value cultural differences modes of expression and learning styles      Women Framing Hair Heather Hanna,2015-05-13 This book explores the complex and enigmatic motif of hair in the work of five contemporary women artists Chrystl Rijkeboer Alice Maher Annegret Soltau Kathy Prendergast and Ellen Gallagher from the late 1970s to the present It investigates why hair is such a productive and resonant site of meaning how it is suggestive of and responds to serial strategies and why it appears to be of particular significance to women who are artists It explores the implications of hair as an embodied material its role as a haptic metaphor of the life cycle and what might be seen as a darker more liminal side of hair as a site of excess and body waste and its ability to represent trauma and wounding It also discusses some of the divergent histories of hair as a rich marker of identity in cultural discourses of beauty myth and femininity and as a symbol of status and power Informed by a range of theoretical approaches this book draws on Julia Kristeva s theorizations of the abject H l ne Cixous s notion of critique feminine and a Deleuzian consideration of difference      The Ashgate Research Companion to Black Sociology

Professor Earl Wright II,Assoc Prof Edward V. Wallace,2015-09-28 Inspired by W E B Du Bois s charge of engaging in objective research that has a positive impact on society and organized around the themes of Social Inequities Blacks and Education Blacks and Health and Future Directions this timely volume brings together the latest interdisciplinary research to offer a broad overview of the issues currently faced by Blacks in United States Beginning with an examination of the project of Black Sociology it offers studies of recent events including the Stand Your Ground killing of Trayvon Martin the impact of Hurricane Katrina on emerging adults and efforts to change voting requirements that overwhelmingly affect Blacks while engaging with questions of sexuality and family life incarceration health educational outcomes and racial wage disparities

Hair Dance! Dinah Johnson,2007-09-04 Hair comes in all colors textures and styles Whether it is worn long or short in braids or cornrows or left natural in an Afro hair plays a big part in who we are and how we feel about ourselves In this inspiring book Kelly Johnson s stunning photographs of girls wearing a range of hairstyles and the lyrical words of Dinah Johnson s poem celebrate African American hair in all its radiant variety Hair Dance is a 2008 Bank Street Best Children s Book of the Year      An Autoethnography of African American Motherhood Renata Harden Ferdinand,2021-11-29 This is the first full length explicitly identified autoethnographic text on African American motherhood It shows the lived experiences of Black motherhood when mothering is shaped by race gender and class and mothers must navigate not only their own but also their children s positions in society Ferdinand takes an intimate look at her mothering strategies spanning ten years from 2007 to 2017 preparing her daughter to traverse a racist and sexist society It is a multi generational text that blends the author s experience with that of her own mother grandmother and her daughter to engage in a larger discussion of African American Black mother womanhood It is grounded within Black Feminist Theory which centers the experiences of Black women within the domains of intersecting oppressions It is from a very personal position that Ferdinand provides a glimpse into the minutiae of mothering that reveal the everyday intricacies of Black women as mothers It highlights specific strategies Black mothers use to combat discrimination and oppression from teaching their children about the n word to choosing positive representations of Black identity in movies books dolls daycares elementary schools and even extra curricular activities It shows the impact that stereotypical manifestations of Black femininity have on Black women s experience of motherhood and how this affects Black women and girls understanding of themselves especially their skin color body shape and hair texture As an interdisciplinary text this book will be reading for academics and students in a broad range of fields including Education African American Studies Communication Studies Women Studies Psychology and Health Studies It is also a handbook of lived experience for Black mothers grandmothers and daughters and for all mothers grandmothers and daughters irrespective of color

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory Lisa Disch, Mary Hawkesworth, 2018-02-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory provides a rich overview of the analytical frameworks and theoretical concepts that feminist theorists have developed to analyze the known world Featuring leading feminist theorists from diverse regions of the globe this collection delves into forty nine subject areas demonstrating the complexity of feminist challenges to established knowledge while also engaging areas of contestation within feminist theory Demonstrating the interdisciplinary nature of feminist theory the chapters offer innovative analyses of topics central to social and political science cultural studies and humanities discourses associated with medicine and science and issues in contemporary critical theory that have been transformed through feminist theorization The handbook identifies limitations of key epistemic assumptions that inform traditional scholarship and shows how theorizing from women s and men s lives has profound effects on the conceptualization of central categories whether the field of analysis is aesthetics biology cultural studies development economics film studies health history literature politics religion science studies sexualities violence or war

Decolonizing European Sociology Encarnacion Gutierrez Rodriguez, Manuela Boatcă, Sérgio Costa, 2016-05-13 Decolonizing European Sociology builds on the work challenging the androcentric colonial and ethnocentric perspectives eminent in mainstream European sociology by identifying and describing the processes at work in its current critical transformation Divided into sections organized around themes like modernity border epistemology migration and the South this book considers the self definition and basic concepts of social sciences through an assessment of the new theoretical developments such as postcolonial theory and subaltern studies and whether they can be described as the decolonization of the discipline With contributions from a truly international team of leading social scientists this volume constitutes a unique and tightly focused exploration of the challenges presented by the decolonization of the discipline of sociology

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Critical Multicultural Analysis of Children's Literature Maria José

Botelho, Masha Kabakow Rudman, 2009-05-07 Children's literature is a contested terrain as is multicultural education Taken together they pose a formidable challenge to both classroom teachers and academics Rather than deny the inherent conflicts and tensions in the field in Critical Multicultural Analysis of Children's Literature Mirrors Windows and Doors Maria José Botelho and Masha Kabakow Rudman confront deconstruct and reconstruct these terrains by proposing a reframing of the field Surely all of us children teachers and academics can benefit from this more expansive understanding of what it means to read books Sonia Nieto From the Foreword Critical multicultural analysis provides a philosophical shift for teaching literature constructing curriculum and taking up issues of diversity and social justice It problematizes children's literature offers a way of reading power explores the complex web of sociopolitical relations and deconstructs taken for granted assumptions about language meaning reading and literature it is literary study as sociopolitical change Bringing a critical lens to the study of multiculturalism in children's literature this book prepares teachers teacher educators and researchers of children's literature to analyze the ideological dimensions of reading and studying literature Each chapter includes recommendations for classroom application classroom research and further reading Helpful end of book appendixes include a list of children's book awards lists of publishers diagrams of the power continuum and the theoretical framework of critical multicultural analysis and lists of selected children's literature journals and online resources Trauma, Tresses, and

Truth Lyzette Wanzer, 2022-10-04 A Library Journal Best Social Science title of 2022 Black women continue to have a complex and convoluted relationship with their hair From grammar and high schools to corporate boardrooms and military squadrons Black and Afro Latina natural hair continues to confound transfix and enrage members of White American society Why in 2022 is this still the case Why have we not moved beyond that perennial racist emblem And why are women so disproportionately affected Why does our hair become most palatable when it capitulates and has been subjugated to resemble Caucasian features as closely as possible Who or what is responsible for the web of supervision and surveillance of our hair Who in our society gets to author the prevailing constitution of professional appearance Particularly relevant during this time of emboldened White supremacy racism and provocative othering this work explores how writing about one of the still remaining systemic biases in schools academia and corporate America might lead to greater understanding and respect
