Hands In Harmony Traditional Crafts And Music In Appalachia:

Hands in Harmony Tim Barnwell, 2009 A celebration of Appalachian artistic traditions from Nashville to Raleigh with an accompanying CD of music American Folk Art Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2012-03-19 Folk art is as varied as it is indicative of person and place informed by innovation and grounded in cultural context The variety and versatility of 300 American folk artists is captured in this collection of informative and thoroughly engaging essays American Folk Art A Regional Reference offers a collection of fascinating essays on the life and work of 300 individual artists Some of the men and women profiled in these two volumes are well known while others are important practitioners who have yet to receive the notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are Poverty Politics Sarah

Robertson, 2019-08-23 Representations of southern poor whites have long shifted between romanticization and demonization At worst poor southern whites are aligned with racism bigotry and right wing extremism and at best regarded as the passive victims of wider socioeconomic policies In Poverty Politics Poor Whites in Contemporary Southern Writing author Sarah Robertson pushes beyond these stereotypes and explores the impact of neoliberalism and welfare reform on depictions of poverty Robertson examines representations of southern poor whites across various types of literature including travel writing photo narratives life writing and eco literature and reveals a common interest in communitarianism that crosses the boundaries of the US South and regionalism moving past ideas about the culture of poverty to examine the economics of poverty Included are critical examinations of the writings of southern writers such as Dorothy Allison Rick Bragg Barbara Kingsolver Tim McLaurin Toni Morrison and Ann Pancake Poverty Politics includes critical engagement with identity politics as well as reflections on issues including Hurricane Katrina the 2008 financial crisis and mountaintop removal Robertson interrogates the presumed opposition between the Global North and the Global South and engages with microregions through case studies on Appalachian photo narratives and eco literature Importantly she focuses not merely on representations of southern poor whites but also on writing that calls for alternative ways of reconceptualizing not just the poor but societal measures of time value and worth The Writers Directory , 2013 The British National Bibliography
