Islam And Nation Separatist Rebellion In Aceh Indonesia Studies In Asian Security:

Islam and Nation Edward Aspinall, 2009 Islam and Nation presents a fascinating study of the genesis growth and decline of nationalism in the Indonesian province of Aceh

Democracy and Nationalism in Southeast Asia Jacques Bertrand, 2021-04-29 Jacques Bertrand offers a comparative historical analysis of five nationalist conflicts over several decades in Southeast Asia Using a theoretical framework to explain variance over time and across cases he challenges and refines existing debates on democracy's impact and shows that while democratization significantly reduces violent insurgency over time it often introduces pernicious effects that fail to resolve conflict and contribute to maintaining deep nationalist grievances Drawing on years of detailed fieldwork Bertrand analyses the paths that led from secessionist mobilization to a range of outcomes These include persistent state repression for Malay Muslims in Thailand low level violence under a top down special autonomy for Papuans reframing of mobilizing from nationalist to indigenous peoples in the Cordillera a long and broken path to an untested broad autonomy for the Moros and relatively successful broad autonomy for Acehnese

Asia's Trouble Spots A. S. Bhalla, 2019-08-06 The art of successful negotiations over protracted conflicts presupposes a political commitment to peace and a willingness to compromise which are sorely lacking in the current disorderly world Part of the blame for this lies in weak and ineffective national and global leadership This book's sharp focus on the role of leadership at different levels national government rebel and Western regional government mediators as well as that of the UN and non governmental players in settling intra state disputes is a unique feature which sets it apart from others Much of the existing literature does not adequately discuss the role of the above actors in developing countries Asia's Trouble Spots is a serious attempt to fill this gap The seven country studies in Asia Myanmar Indonesia Philippines Thailand Sri Lanka India and China discuss inter alia how peace negotiations between national political and rebel leaders have unfolded The role of state sponsored cross border terrorists and non state spoilers such as Al Qaeda and ISIS is addressed in the context of geopolitical rivalry among regional and global powers A S Bhalla challenges the view that Western leaders can act as impartial mediators in intra state and inter state disputes With few exceptions their record has been dismal at best Their failure in conflict resolution arises from a loss of moral authority and credibility which follows the gradual erosion over the years of such liberal values as the rule of law and respect for democracy and human rights Commercial and strategic self interests have also tended to undermine peacebuilding efforts

Rethinking Japanese Public Opinion and Security

Paul Midford, 2011-01-24 Rethinking Japanese Public Opinion and Security argues that Japanese public opinion matters and has acted to prevent overseas military deployments involving combat while increasingly supportive of a more normal military establishment capable of autonomously defending Japanese territory

The Institutional Origins of Communal

Violence Yuhki Tajima, 2014-07-28 This book develops a novel theoretical explanation for why transitions from authoritarian rule are often marked by spikes in communal violence

Territory and Power in Constitutional Transitions George

Anderson, Sujit Choudhry, 2019-03-07 This collection of essays surveys the full range of challenges that territorial conflicts pose for constitution making processes and constitutional design It provides seventeen in depth case studies of countries going through periods of intense constitutional engagement in a variety of contexts small distinct territories bi communal countries highly diverse countries with many politically salient regions and countries where territorial politics is important but secondary to other bases for political mobilization Specific examples are drawn from Iraq Kenya Cyprus Nigeria South Africa Sri Lanka the UK Scotland Ukraine Bolivia India Spain Yemen Nepal Ethiopia Indonesia Aceh the Philippines Mindanao and Bosnia Herzegovina While the volume draws significant normative conclusions it is based on a realist view of the complexity of territorial and other political cleavages the country s political geometry and the power configurations that lead into periods of constitutional engagement Thematic chapters on constitution making processes and constitutional design draw original conclusions from the comparative analysis of the case studies and relate these to the existing literature both in political science and comparative constitutional law This volume is essential reading for scholars of federalism consociational power sharing arrangements asymmetrical devolution and devolution more generally The combination of in depth case studies and broad thematic analysis allows for analytical and normative conclusions that will be of major relevance to practitioners and advisors engaged in constitutional design      Political Autonomy and Divided Societies Alain-G Gagnon, Michael Keating, 2012-03-27 An all star cast of academic experts offer an important and timely analysis of the pursuit of autonomy They argue that it is key to move beyond the primarily normative debate about the rights or wrongs of autonomous regions on the basis of cultural concerns instead focusing on understanding what makes autonomy function successfully      International Legitimacy and the Domestic Use of Force Megan Price, 2022-07-01 This book examines how states justify the domestic use of military force to foreign audiences By deploying a sociological approach to legitimacy and drawing on conceptual tools which deal directly with the dynamics of justification it offers a novel framework for understanding the politics of international legitimacy and domestic armed action The framework is grounded in detailed qualitative analyses of civil wars in Sri Lanka 2006 2009 and Aceh Indonesia 2003 2005 The book shows that the meaning of legitimacy in a particular context does not flow directly from a menu of relevant rules norms and ideas Rather legitimacy is always politically contested When states justify fighting at home the success of their claims is determined by their capacity to appeal to rules and norms but also to frame their action in ways that their audiences find compelling Therefore the framework offered in this book draws attention to the crucial but largely neglected role of audiences in the constitution of legitimacy This book will be of interest to students of security studies law human rights and international relations      The Wartime Origins of Democratization Reyko Huang, 2016-10-13 Why do some countries democratize after civil war Huang argues that war can foment popular demand for radical political change      Fighting Armed Conflicts in Southeast Asia Shane Joshua Barter, 2020-10-08 This Element seeks to make sense of Southeast Asia s numerous armed conflicts It makes four contributions First this study provides a typology distinguishing between revolutionary secessionist and communal conflicts The first two are types of insurgencies while the latter are ethnic conflicts Second this study emphasizes the importance of ethnicity in shaping conflict dynamics This is true even for revolutionary conflicts which at first glance may appear unrelated to ethnicity A third contribution relates to broad conflict trends Revolutionary and secessionist conflicts feature broad historical arcs with clear peaks and declines while communal conflicts occur more sporadically The fourth contribution ties these points together by focusing on conflict management Just as ethnicity shapes conflicts ethnic leaders and traditions can also promote peace Cultural mechanisms are especially important for managing communal conflicts the lone type not declining in Southeast Asia

International Security in the Asia-Pacific Alan Chong, 2017-09-13 This volume argues that international security in the Asia Pacific lends itself to contradictory analyses of centrifugal and centripetal trends Transitional polycentrism is intrinsically awkward as a description of the security of states and their populations it implies the loosening of state control and the emergence of newly asserted authority by mixed constellations of intergovernmental organizations and non state actors It implies a competition of agendas threats to the integrity of borders and human security threats such as natural disasters airliner crashes and displacement by man made pollution and food scarcity Conversely polycentrism could also imply a return to a more neo realist oriented international order where great powers ignore ASEAN and steer regional order according to their perceived interests and relative military superiority This book embraces these contradictory trends as a foundation of analysis and accepts that disorder can also be re described from the perspective of studied detachment as polycentric order

Partnerships, Power and Peacebuilding T. Dibley, 2014-09-03 By highlighting the scope and limitations of local NGO agencies this book presents a unique perspective of the relationship between peacebuilding theory and its application in practice outlining how well educated well connected local decision makers and thinkers navigate the uneven power dynamics of the international aid system

Beyond Human Rights and the War on Terror Satvinder S. Juss, 2018-10-26 This edited collection provides a comprehensive insightful and detailed study of a vital area of public policy debate as it is currently occurring in countries across the world from India to South Africa and the United Kingdom to Australia Bringing together academics and experts from a variety of jurisdictions it reflects upon the impact on human rights of the application of more than a decade of the War on Terror as enunciated soon after 9 11 The volume identifies and critically examines the principal and enduring resonances of the concept of the War on Terror The examination covers not only the obvious impacts but also the more insidious and enduring changes within domestic laws The rationale for this collection is therefore not just to plot how the War on Terror has operated within the folds of the cloak of liberal democracy but how they render that cloak ragged especially in the sight of those sections of society who pay the heaviest price in terms of their human rights This book engages with the public policy strand of the last decade that has arguably most shaped perceptions of human rights and engendered debates about their worth and meaning It will be of interest to researchers academics practitioners and students in the fields of human rights law criminal justice criminology politics and international studies

The Making of Northeast Asia Kent Calder, Min Ye, 2010-08-16 This book offers a detailed analysis of the domestic politics of regionalism in the three major nations of Northeast Asia China Japan and Korea as well as in the most important external actor the United States

Through Times of Trouble Anna Matveeva, 2017-12-20 This book tells the story of insurgency in Ukraine's Donbas region from the perspective of the rebels who sought and continue to seek either independence from Ukraine or unification with Russia As such it provides a unique insight into their thinking and motivations which need to be understood if the conflict is to be resolved Those making and remaking the conflict are placed in the centre of the story which uses the words of the combatants themselves It shows how volunteer fighters driven by a wide and diffuse set of motivations emerged from Ukraine Russia and different parts of the world stood at the rebellion's heart The book focuses on the participants' own voices and personalities drawing extensively on first hand research and interviews Rather than rendering Ukraine a chess piece on the geopolitical board the rebellion shows that ordinary people rather than elites can act as a decisive force Donbas says something about why large numbers of people make the decision to take part in a collective violent action when material rewards are low or non-existent and mortal risks high It stands as an important text on the study of modern insurgencies revealing how violent conflicts happen via issues of politicized identity and involvement of non-state actors This book places this conflict into the context of other conflicts worldwide and demonstrates how ideas and narratives are constructed to provide meaning to a struggle The insurgency has produced a conflict sub-culture rich with symbolism narrative and communications made possible by the digital age and a social media savvy population These beliefs and ideas have had the power to pull people from different parts of the world This book follows the stages of assembling different conflict ingredients together and the rebellion's zigzagging fortunes after it became apparent that Moscow was not going to repeat the Crimea scenario in Donbas It analyses the logic of armed struggle and the tactics deployed by warring parties It also sheds light on the developments in Moscow discusses the phenomenon of the Russian Spring movement and concludes with the prospects for a peaceful solution

Separatist Conflict in Indonesia Antje Missbach, 2017-05-31 The socio-political activities of the Acehnese diaspora located mainly in Malaysia Scandinavia the USA and Australia have been of fundamental importance to conflict and politics within Aceh The intensity of the relations between the diaspora and the homeland was mainly determined by the conflict that afflicted the region between 1976 and 2005 and the resulting hardship was experienced by Acehnese both at home and abroad This book looks at more than thirty years of long distance politics exercised by the Acehnese diaspora both during the conflict and beyond It interprets the social political and cultural aspects of the small scale conflict in Aceh as well as focusing on the external factors related to the Acehnese overseas and their impact on homeland politics The book goes on to contribute to the argument that the Acehnese diaspora had a significant impact on those who remained in Aceh By focusing on the triangular relationships between the homeland the host countries and the Acehnese diaspora the book draws attention to the exchange of people ideas and financial and material resources that has occurred It is a useful contribution to Southeast Asian Politics and Diaspora Studies      Disaster Governance in Urbanising Asia Michelle Ann Miller, Mike Douglass, 2015-12-09

This edited book approaches the threat and impact of environmental disasters on Asia s urban populations from a governance perspective It adopts a multi sector and multi disciplinary approach to disaster governance that emphasises the importance of multiple stakeholders in preparing for responding to and recovering from disasters and their cascading impacts in Asia s cities The contributors to this volume take a broad view of the multifaceted causalities and the interconnected threats and vulnerabilities of environmental disasters in urbanising Asia As such the book is an invitation to advance scholarship in the search for more effective comprehensive and inclusive disaster preparedness agendas recovery programs and development priorities

Routledge Handbook of Race and Ethnicity in Asia Michael Weiner, 2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook of Race and Ethnicity in Asia introduces theoretical approaches to the study of race ethnicity and indigeneity in Asia beyond those commonly grounded in the Western experience The volume s twenty eight chapters consider not only the relationship between ethnic or racial minorities and the state but social relations within and between individual and transnational communities These shape not only the contours of governance but also the means by which knowledge of national identity self and other have been constructed and reconstructed over time Divided into four sections it provides holistic and comparative coverage of South South East and East Asia as well as Australasia and Oceania an area that extends from Pakistan in the West to Hawai i in the East Contributors to this handbook offer a variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives opening a domain of scholarship wherein the relationship between phenotype and racism is less pronounced than European and North American approaches which have often privileged the so called colour stigmata leading to further exclusions of particular ethnic racial and indigenous communities This volume seeks to overcome racism and white ideologies embedded in theories of race and ethnicity in Asia proving a valuable resource to both students and scholars of comparative racial and ethnic studies international relations and human rights      Into the Void James D. Kiras, Martijn

Kitzen, 2024-07-15 A critical analysis of how global special forces can and should evolve into a future ready capability responding to today s post War on Terror challenges

Southeast Asia and the English School of International Relations L. Quayle, 2013-01-17 This book examines the interface between the theoretical framework known as the English School and the international and transnational politics of Southeast Asia The region theory dialogue it proposes signals productive ways forward for the theory
