to keep the uneasy peace One Islam, Many Muslim Worlds Raymond William Baker, 2015-08-03 By all measures the late twentieth century was a time of dramatic decline for the Islamic world the Ummah particularly its Arab heartland Sober Muslim voices regularly describe their current state as the worst in the 1 400 year history of Islam Yet precisely at this time of unprecedented material vulnerability Islam has emerged as a civilizational force strong enough to challenge the imposition of Western particularly American homogenizing power on Muslim peoples This is the central paradox of Islam today at a time of such unprecedented weakness in one sense how has the Islamic Awakening a broad and diverse movement of contemporary Islamic renewal emerged as such a resilient and powerful transnational force and what implications does it have for the West In One Islam Many Muslims Worlds Raymond W Baker addresses this question Two things are clear Baker argues Islam's unexpected strength in recent decades does not originate from official political economic or religious institutions nor can it be explained by focusing exclusively on the often criminal assertions of violent marginal groups While extremists monopolize the international press and the scholarly journals those who live and work in the Islamic world know that the vast majority of Muslims reject their reckless calls to violence and look elsewhere for guidance Baker shows that extremists draw their energy and support not from contributions to the reinterpretation and revival of Islamic beliefs and practices but from the hatreds engendered by misguided Western policies in Islamic lands His persuasive analysis of the Islamic world identifies centrists as the revitalizing force of Islam saying that they are responsible for constructing a modern cohesive Islamic identity that is a force to be reckoned with The Prester John Legend between East and West

During the Crusades Ahmed M. A. Sheir, 2022-06-22 This book considers the history of the Prester John legend and its impact on the Crusades investigating its entangled mythical history between East and West during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries The present study thus responds to the still pressing need for a comprehensive historical investigation of the twelfth and thirteenth crusading history of the legend and its impact on the Muslim Crusader encounters examining various Latin Arabic Syriac and Coptic accounts It further reflects on new eastern aspects of the legend presenting a new Arab scholarly view This book first charts a pre history of the legend in the late ancient Christian prophecy of the Last Emperor down to the emergence of the legend in the mid twelfth century Second the work presents a historical discussion of the legend and its association with actual occurrences in the Far East and the Levant analysing the legend history under the crusading crisis and the imperial papal schism in Europe Meanwhile the work considers the vague Prester John Letter addressed to Manuel I Komnenus Byzantine Emperor and its elaborate conception of a mythical eastern kingdom revealing imaginative parallels on the wondrous East and legendary Eastern Christian kings in Arabic Muslim and Christian accounts of the Muslim geographer and cartographer al Idrisi the Coptic Abu al Makarim and the Syriac Ibn al Ibri Bar Hebraeus among others Moreover the book examines how the legend impacted war and peace processes between the Ayyubids and the Crusaders during the Fifth Crusade against Egypt 1217 1221 revealing how it was mingled with Arabic and Eastern Christian prophecies at the time The study concludes by investigating the perception of Prester John by the papal and European envoys to the Mongols in the thirteenth century revealing how the legend was instrumentalised and even weaponised to establish a Latin Mongol crusade through a parallel exploration of relevant Latin Arabic and Syriac sources The Islamic World and the West Kai Hafez, Mary Ann Kenny, 2000-01-01 The anthology is an introduction to political cultures in the Islamic world and into relations between the West and Islam It details its analysis in country studies on Algeria Iran Egypt Morocco Turkey Bosnia Israel Palestine Iraq Central Asia and Pakistan Islam Between East and West 'Alija 'Ali Izetbegovic, 1984

Turkey Between East And West Vojtech Mastny, 2019-05-20 Linked by ethnic and religious affinities to two post Cold War crisis areas the former Soviet Union and Yugoslavia Turkey is positioned to play an influential role in the promotion of regional economic cooperation and in taking new approaches to security In this book experts from Turkey Europe and the United States address key aspects of Turkey Religious Freedom and the Position of Islam in Western Europe W. A. R. Shadid, P. Sj. van Koningsveld, 1995 The permanent presence of Islam and Muslims approximately 7 million is a comparatively recent phenomenon in most countries of the European Community By far the greater majority of them consists of former inhabitants of the Muslim world who migrated to the West for economic or political reasons after the Second World War Over the last decades many initiatives have been launched by Muslim communities to create infrastructural provisions for their religious life within the existing legal and social frameworks In fact all countries of the European Community share the principles of religious freedom and non discrimination in their respective Constitutions However the precise way in which these principles are interpreted and applied to Islam depends largely on the historical traditions concerning the relations between State and Religion which differ from one country to another The present book is mainly based on the numerous articles and books concerning the public status of Islam in the various countries of Western Europe which were published between 1987 and 1994 First of all a comparative study is offered of the relation between State and Religion according to the constitutional traditions of the member states of the European Community Secondly the authors discuss the opportunities and obstacles in the realization of an organizational structure by the Muslim communities Attention is paid among others to the foundation of mosques the position of imams and the attempts to create representative bodies on the national level which can serve as negotiating partners with the national governments In a separate chapter attention is paid to Islam as a minority religion from a theoretical point of view Then follows a discussion of the possibilities for the observance of Islamic customs and rituals such as religious holidays dietary laws and dress rules With regard to Islamic religious education attention is paid in the last chapter to religious education within mosques public Christian and Islamic schools At the end there is an extensive bibliography with an index of subjects and countries Law and the Rule of God Joshua Ralston, 2020-11-05 This book advances a constructive theological approach to the controversial issues of sharia public law and secularism in Christian Muslim relations Fictions of the War on Terror D. O'Gorman, 2015-06-29 This book argues that there are a number of contemporary novels that challenge the reductive us and them binaries that have been prevalent not only in politics and the global media since 9 11 but also in many works within the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction itself Islamic Studies , 1997
