Islam And The West The Making Of An Image:

Islam and the West Norman Daniel, 1962 This classic study explores the political and religious considerations behind distorted Western views of Islam examining Christian Muslim interaction from medieval times to the modern world Islam and the West Norman Daniel, 2009-01-13 This classic study by Norman Daniel explores the political and religious considerations behind distorted western views of Islam examining Christian Muslim interaction from medieval times to the modern world First published over 30 years ago the message within this great scholarly achievement is more relevant today than ever before This timeless and accessible book should be of interest to students and for anyone wishing to gain a deeper insight into the complex relations between two of the world s greatest religions Islam and the West Norman Daniel, 1980 British Travel-writing on Oman Hilal Said Al-Hajri, 2006 This book focuses on the images of Oman in British travel writing from 1800 to 1970 In texts that vary from travel accounts to sailors memoirs complete travelogues autobiographies and letters it looks at British representations of Oman as a place people and culture The study discusses the current Orientalist debate suggesting alternatives to the dilemma of Orientalism It also outlines the historical Omani British relations and examines the travel accounts written by several British merchants and sailors who stopped in Muscat and other Omani coastal cities in the nineteenth century Another focus is with the works of travellers who penetrated the Interior of Oman such as James Wellsted and Samuel Miles and the travellers who explored the southern Oman and the Empty Quarter Finally the book looks at the last generation of British travellers who were in Oman from 1950 to 1970 employed either by oil companies or the Sultan Said bin Taimur The gap of knowledge that this book undertakes to fill is that most of the texts under discussion have not been studied in any context Contending Visions of the Middle East Zachary Lockman, 2004-08-16 An accessible and broad ranging survey of Western perceptions of Islam and the Middle East

Saracens, Demons, & Jews Debra Higgs Strickland, 2003 These images which reached a broad and socially varied audience across Western Europe appeared in virtually all artistic media including illuminated manuscripts stained glass sculpture metalwork and tapestry Representations of the Orient in Western Music Nasser Al-Tae, 2017-07-05 This book focuses on the cultural political and religious representations of the Orient in Western music Dr Nasser Al Tae traces several threads in a vast repertoire of musical representations concentrating primarily on the images of violence and sensuality Al Tae argues that these prevailing traits are not only the residual manifestation of the Ottoman threat to Western Europe but also the continuation of a long and complex history of fear and fascination towards the Orient and its Islamic religion In addition to analyses of musical works Al Tae draws on travel accounts paintings biographies and political events to engage with important issues such as gender race and religious differences that may have contributed to the variously complex images of the Orient in Western music The study extends the range of Orientalism to cover eighteenth century Austria nineteenth century Russia and twentieth century America The book challenges those scholars who do not see

Orientalism as problematic and tend to ignore the role of musical representations in shaping the image of the Other within a wider interdisciplinary study of knowledge and power

The Visual Divide between Islam and the West Hatem N. Akil, 2016-12-22 This book considers the ways in which Muslims view the way they are being viewed not viewed or incorrectly viewed by the West The book underscores a certain will to visibility whereby Muslims Arabs wish just to be seen and to be marked as fellow human beings The author relates the failure to achieve this visibility to a state of desperation that inextricably and symmetrically ties visibility to violence When Syrian and Palestinian refugees recently started refusing to be photographed they clearly ushered the eventual but inevitable collapse of the image and its final futility The photograph has been completely emptied of its last remaining possibility of signification The book attempts to engage with questions about the ways in which images are perceived within cross cultural contexts Why and how do people from different cultural backgrounds view the same image in opposing ways why do cartoon photographs and videos become both the cause and target of bloody political violence as witnessed recently by the deadly attacks against Charlie Hebdo in France and in the swift military response by the US Jordan France and others to videotaped violence by ISIS

The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film John Lyden, 2009 The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film brings together a lively and experienced team of contributors to introduce students to the key topics in religion and film and to investigate the ways in which the exciting subject of religion and film is developing for more experienced scholars Divided into four parts the Companion analyzes the history of the interaction of religion and film through periods of censorship as well as appreciation of the medium studies religion in film examining how the world e tm s major religions as well as Postcolonial Japanese and New Religions are depicted by and within films uses diverse methodologies to explore religion and film such as psychoanalytical theological and feminist approaches and audience reception analyzes religious themes in film including Redemption the Demonic Jesus or Christ Figures Heroes and Superheroes considers films as diverse as The Passion of the Christ The Matrix Star Wars and Groundhog Day This definitive book provides an accessible resource to this emerging field and is an indispensable guide to religion and film for students of Religion Film Studies and beyond

Palgrave Advances in the Crusades H. Nicholson, 2005-03-30 The Crusades were a startling and spectacular phenomenon that exerted a powerful influence on European development over a period of many centuries Much recent writing has been devoted to explaining how the crusades began and what they achieved This volume is intended as an introductory guide and analysis of how different aspects of crusading studies have developed Rather than giving an account of events each chapter offers an interpretative and historiographical study It is aimed both at postgraduates and at professional academics

Bridging the Medieval-Modern Divide James Muldoon, 2016-04-15 The debate about when the middle ages ended and the modern era began has long been a staple of the historical literature In order to further this debate and illuminate the implications of a longue dur e approach to the history of the Reformation this collection offers a selection of essays that address the medieval modern divide Covering a broad range of topics encompassing legal social cultural theological and political history the volume asks fundamental questions about how we regard history and what historians can learn from colleagues working in other fields that may not at first glance appear to offer any obvious links By focussing on the concept of the medieval modern divide in particular the relation between the Middle Ages and the Reformation each essay examines how a medievalist deals with a specific topic or issue that is also attracting the attention of Reformation scholars In so doing it underlines the fact that both medievalists and modernists are often involved in bridging the medieval modern divide but are inclined to construct parallel bridges that end between the two starting points but do not necessarily meet As a result the volume challenges assumptions about the strict periodization of history and suggest that a more flexible approach will yield interesting historical insights

Christian Mission to Muslims:The Record: Lyle L. Vander Werff,1977-06-01 The formation of a protestant concept of mission 1500 1800 Anglican and reformed missions to Muslims in India 1800 1910 a study in methods Reformed and Anglican missions to Muslims in the near east 1800 1910 ecclesiastical and environmental factors Maturing Anglican and reformed approaches to Muslims before 1938 W H T Gairdner and S M Zwemmer

Muslim Perceptions of Other Religions Jacques Waardenburg,1999-08-19 Since its inception Islam and its civilization have been in continuous relationships with other religions cultures and civilizations including not only different forms of Christianity and Judaism inside and outside the Middle East Zoroastrianism and Manicheism Hinduism and even Buddhism but also tribal religions in West and East Africa in South Russia and in Central Asia including Tibet The essays collected here examine the many texts that have come down to us about these cultures and their religions from Muslim theologians and jurists travelers and historians and men of letters and of culture

Religious Conversion Ira Katznelson,Miri Rubin,2016-04-08 Religious conversion a shift in membership from one community of faith to another can take diverse forms in radically different circumstances As the essays in this volume demonstrate conversion can be protracted or sudden voluntary or coerced small scale or large It may be the result of active missionary efforts instrumental decisions or intellectual or spiritual attraction to a different doctrine and practices In order to investigate these multiple meanings and how they may differ across time and space this collection ranges far and wide across medieval and early modern Europe and beyond From early Christian pilgrims to fifteenth century Ethiopia from the Islamisation of the eastern Mediterranean to Reformation Germany the volume highlights salient features and key concepts that define religious conversion particular the Jewish Muslim and Christian experiences By probing similarities and variations continuities and fissures the volume also extends the range of conversion to focus on matters less commonly examined such as competition for the meaning of sacred space changes to bodies patterns of gender and the ways conversion has been understood and narrated by actors and observers In so doing it promotes a layered approach that deepens inquiry by identifying and suggesting constellations of elements that both compose particular instances of conversion and help make systematic comparisons possible by indicating how to ask comparable questions of often vastly different situations

Living Together, Living Apart Jonathan Elukin, 2024-11-01

This historical study of Jewish life in Medieval Europe provides a much needed corrective to the popular notion of constant persecution Ivan G Marcus Yale University In Living Together Living Apart Jonathan Elukin traces the experience of Jews in Europe from late antiquity through the Renaissance and Reformation revealing how the pluralism of medieval society allowed Jews to feel part of their local communities despite recurrent expressions of hatred against them Elukin shows that Jews and Christians coexisted more or less peacefully for much of the Middle Ages and that antisemitic violence was largely isolated He reveals an extraordinary picture of Jews living comfortably among their Christian neighbors working with them and occasionally cultivating lasting friendships even as Christian culture often demonized Jews As Elukin makes clear the expulsions of Jews from England France Spain and elsewhere were not the inevitable culmination of persecution but arose from the religious and political expedencies of particular rulers He demonstrates that the history of successful Jewish Christian interaction in the Middle Ages in fact laid the social foundations that gave rise to the Jewish communities of modern Europe

The Spiritual Expansion of Medieval Latin Christendom: The Asian Missions James D. Ryan, 2017-03-02

During the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries religious zeal nourished by the mendicants sense of purpose motivated Dominican and Franciscan friars to venture far beyond Europe s cultural frontiers to spread their Christian faith into the farthest reaches of Asia Their incredible journeys were reminiscent of heroic missionary ventures in earlier eras and far more exotic than evangelization during the tenth through twelfth centuries when the western church Christianized Eastern Europe and Scandinavia This new mission effort was stimulated by a variety of factors and facilitated by the establishment of the Mongol Empire and as the fourteenth century dawned missionaries entertained fervent but vain hopes of success within khanates in China Central Asia Persia and Kipchak The reports these missionaries sent back to Europe have fascinated successive generations of historians who analyzed their travels and struggled to understand their motives and aspirations The essays selected for this volume drawn from a range of twentieth century historians and contextualized in the introduction provide a comprehensive overview of missionary efforts in Asia and of the developments in the secular world that both made them possible and encouraged the missionaries hopes for success Three of the studies have been translated from French specially for publication in this volume

New Worlds and the Italian Renaissance Andrea Moudarres, Christiana Thérèse Purdy Moudarres, 2012-08-17 This volume aims to assess the longstanding debate over the role played by the Italian Renaissance in shaping the modern Western worldview

Early Modern Constructions of Europe Florian Kläger, Gerd Bayer, 2016-02-12 Between the medieval conception of Christendom and the political visions of modernity ideas of Europe underwent a transformative and catalytic period that saw a cultural process of renewed self definition or self Europeanization The contributors to this volume address this process analyzing how Europe was imagined between 1450 and 1750 By whom in which contexts and for what purposes was Europe made into a subject of discourse Which forms did early modern Europes take and what functions did they serve Essays examine the role of factors such as religion history space and geography ethnicity and alterity patronage and dynasty migration and education language translation and narration for the ways in which Europe turned into an imagined community The thematic range of the volume comprises early modern texts in Arabic English French German Greek Italian Latin and Spanish including plays poems and narrative fiction as well as cartography historiography iconography travelogues periodicals and political polemics Literary negotiations in particular foreground the creative potential versatility and agency that inhere in the process of Europeanization as well as a specifically early modern attitude towards the past and tradition emblemized in the poetics of the period There is a clear continuity between the collection s approach to European identities and the focus of cultural and postcolonial studies on the constructed nature of collective identities at large the chapters build on the insights produced by these fields over the past decades and apply them from various angles to a subject that has so far largely eluded critical attention This volume examines what existing and well established work on identity and alterity hybridity and margins has to contribute to an understanding of the largely un examined and under theorized pre formative period of European identity

Exploring the Qur'an Muhammad Abdel Haleem, 2017-04-21 The teachings style and impact of the Qur an have always been matters of controversy among both Muslims and non Muslims But in a modern context of intercultural sensitivity what the Qur an says and means are perhaps more urgent questions than ever before This major new book by one of the world s finest Islamic scholars responds to that urgency Building on his earlier groundbreaking work the author challenges misinterpretations of particular Qur anic verses from whatever quarter He addresses the infamous sword verse frequently cited as a justification for jihad He also questions the tribute verse associated with the Muslim state subjugating Jews and Christians and the idea of Paradise in the Qur an often viewed by the West as emphasising merely physical pleasures or used by Islamic fighters as their just reward for holy war The author argues that wrenching the verses out of the context of the whole has led to dangerous ideologies being built on isolated phrases which have then assumed afterlives of their own This nuanced holistic reading has vital interfaith ramifications
