Hinnells,Raymond Brady Williams,Formerly Professor of Comparative Religion at School of Oriental and African Studies John R Hinnells,LaFollette Distinguished Professor in the Humanities Emeritus at Wabash College Where He Served as Chair of the Department of Philosophy and Religion and as Founding Director of the Wabash Center for Teaching and Learning in Theology and Re Raymond Brady Williams,2000-02-17 Explores religious experience in the South Asian immigrant communities of Britain Canada and the United States Recent Developments in North Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Africa,1995 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche International Seminar On Nuclear War And Planetary Emergencies - 46th Session: The Role Of Science In The Third Millennium Richard C Ragaini,2014-07-07 Proceedings of the 46th Session of the International Seminars on Nuclear War and Planetary Emergencies held in Erice Sicily This Seminar has again gathered in 2013 over 100 scientists from 43 countries in an interdisciplinary effort that has been going on for the last 32 years to examine and analyze planetary problems which had been followed up all year long by the World Federation of Scientists Permanent Monitoring Panels Mobilization for Violent Politicized Islam Hawa Noor,2024-08-05 This book focuses on the involvement of some Kenyans in al Shabaab an affiliate of Al Qaeda based in Somalia despite their country s relative stability compared to Somalia It discusses the origin of the Kenyan state and how colonization created social stratification that benefited elites closer to the center while excluding marginalized groups at the periphery The argument is that this pattern still prevails despite attempts to enhance equality such as the adoption of a new constitution in 2010 promoting the devolution of power and resources The persistence of this condition it is argued is what initially handed al Qaeda and later al Shabaab opportunities for mobilization enabled by its creative politicization of religion The heavy handed tactics employed by security forces under the auspices of the War on Terror further catalyzed this process resulting in more Kenyan individuals joining the group Using an historical and political process approach the book shows how the interplay of structural conditions and al Shabaab s mobilization strategy linked with individuals motivations for joining the group Based on individuals own narratives about their participation the latter is empirically demonstrated to be non linear incorporating motivations beyond rational ones contrary to the overemphasis on ideology in the literature on participation in groups similar to al Shabaab This book will of much interest to students of political violence African politics Islamic studies and International Relations

The Rise of Political Islam in Turkey Kayhan Delibas, 2014-12-19 Turkey officially a secular state voted in an Islamist party in 2002 2007 and 2011 How far does this reflect the trend which has seen the rise of political Islam across the Middle East Does this indicate a growing tendency in the direction of Islamisation amongst the Turkish population If not what are the underlying reasons behind the electoral triumphs of the Islamist Justice and Development Party the AKP Kayhan Delibas seeks to answer these questions through an in depth examination of the appeal of this political party exploring its ideology the routes and motives which produce party activists and local party organisations Concluding that the AKP s success has been built on its criticism of growing inequalities widespread corruption unemployment poverty and lack of basic services Delibas draws a nuanced portrait of modern Turkish society and the relationship between religion and politics Delibas offers an explanation based on research carried out amongst grassroots activists for the rise of Islamic fundamentalism in Turkey Islamic movements are often described as anti modernist thought to be supported by fundamentalist groups living in a bygone age isolated from the rest of the modern world In recent years particularly since the events of 9 11 such movements have also been seen as a threat to the Western way of life But Delibas argues that these movements and particularly those in Turkey did not arise out of religious fervour or hatred of Western civilisation as is often claimed Rather they were founded and have thrived as a response to socio economic and political conditions that have been aggravated by neoliberal economic policies rapid urbanisation and the globalization of culture By exploring the structural conditions in which an Islamic movement emerged and become popular in a seemingly secular state The Rise of Political Islam in Turkey offers vital analysis for all those researching modern Turkey and the growth of Islamist politics throughout the Middle East and North Africa

Contemporary Radical Islam as a Consequence of Traditional Legacies and Globalization? Tonya M. Klempp, 2006 The most recent wave of Islamic revivalism began in the second half of the twentieth century as a nonviolent movement of expressing ideological differences and discontent with the political economic and social condition among Muslims and inspired a reformation of the Muslim identity Today contemporary radical Islam with militancy and terrorist tactics as its cornerstone has all but overshadowed the call for a nonviolent struggle and has permeated several internal conflicts across the globe The Muslim separatist movement in the southern Philippines is one such conflict Following decades of discontent and sporadic violence armed conflict broke out in late 1972 when the Moro National Liberation Front MNLF launched coordinated attacks against the government Following a failed peace agreement in 1976 divisions began to form within the MNLF and in 1984 the Moro Islamic Liberation Front MILF was established The MILF as the name indicates placed more emphasis on Islam In 1991 the radical Abu Sayyaf group ASG broke off from the MNLF claiming as its main purpose the establishment of an Islamic state By the mid 1990s what had originated as a nationalistic struggle advocating the concept of the Moro identity had evolved and produced two increasingly radical groups After conducting a diachronic comparative analysis this thesis concludes contemporary radical Islam in the southern Philippines is a fusion of both traditionalism and globalization Furthermore the causal factors evolved with respect to each group s ideology objectives and tactics Whereas the MILF was more representative of the legacy of traditional Islam the ASG was much more a product of globalization

Political Islam and Human Security Shahram Akbarzadeh, Fethi Mansouri, 2009-03-26 In the wake of the September 11 and subsequent terrorist attacks the academic and media commentaries on Islam the religion and Islam the basis for political ideology have received an unprecedented high level of exposure and attention The acts of political violence by extremist groups and the omnipresent war on terror have added fresh uncertainties to an already complex global order Just as terrorism and counter terrorism are locked in a mutually reinforcing symbiosis the sense of insecurity felt by Muslims and non Muslims alike is mutually dependent and has the potential to escalate This general assessment holds true for Muslims living in the Muslim world and beyond The pervasive sense of being under attack physically and culturally by the United States and its allies has contributed to a growing unease among Muslims and reinforced deep seated mistrust of the West Public articulation of such misgivings has in turn lent credence to Western observers who posit an inherent antipathy between the West and the Muslim world The subsequent policies that have emerged in this context of fear and mutual distrust have contributed to the vicious cycle of insecurity The present volume is anchored in the current debates on the uneasy and potentially mutually destructive relationship between the Muslim world and certain West countries It brings together leading international scholars in this interdisciplinary field to deal with such inter related questions as the nature of Islamism the impact of the war on terror on the spread of militancy the growing sense of being under siege by Muslim Diasporas and the many unintended ramifications of a security minded world order This volume deliberately focuses on these issues both at a broad theoretical level but more importantly in the form of a number of prominent case studies including Indonesia Algeria and Turkey This edition includes a new introduction
