Islamic Globalization Pilgrimage Capitalism Democracy And Diplomacy:

Islamic Globalization: Pilgrimage, Capitalism, Democracy, And Diplomacy Robert R Bianchi, 2013-07-05 Islamic Globalization examines the Muslim world's growing importance in creating a more inclusive international system that is increasingly multipolar and multicultural. The author describes an emerging pattern of Islamic globalization as a series of transformations in four interrelated areas: pilgrimage and religious travel, capitalism and Islamic finance, democracy and Islamic modernism, and diplomacy and great power politics. The book integrates the disciplines of religion, politics, economics, law, and international relations, highlighting developments in the Middle East, South Asia, Southeast Asia, and Africa. It provides new insights into the rapidly growing ties between China and the Islamic world, exploring their likely impact on the balance of power in Eurasia and beyond.

Muslim Pilgrimage in Europe Ingvild Flakerud, Richard J. Natvig, 2017-07-20 In spite of Islam's long history in Europe and the growing number of Muslims resident in Europe, little research exists on Muslim pilgrimage in Europe. This collection of eleven chapters is the first systematic attempt to fill this lacuna in an emerging research field. Placing the pilgrims' practices and experiences centre stage, scholars from history, anthropology, religious studies, sociology, and art history examine historical and contemporary hajj and non-hajj pilgrimage to sites outside and within Europe. Sources include online travelogues, ethnographic data, biographic information, and material and performative culture. The interlocutors are European-born Muslims, converts to Islam, and Muslim migrants to Europe, in addition to people who identify themselves with other faiths. Most interlocutors reside in Albania, Bosnia, Hercegovina, Italy, France, the Netherlands, Great Britain, and Norway. This book identifies four courses of developments: Muslims resident in Europe continue to travel to Mecca and Medina and to visit shrine sites located elsewhere in the Middle East and North Africa. Secondly, there is a revival of pilgrimage to old pilgrimage sites in South-eastern Europe. Thirdly, new Muslim pilgrimage sites and practices are being established in Western Europe. Fourthly, Muslims visit long-established Christian pilgrimage sites in Europe. These practices point to processes of continuity, revitalization, and innovation in the practice of Muslim pilgrimage in Europe. Linked to changing sectarian, political, and economic circumstances, pilgrimage sites are dynamic places of intra-religious as well as inter-religious conflict and collaboration, while pilgrimage experiences in multiple ways also transform the individual and affect the home community.

Muslim Pilgrimage in the Modern World Babak Rahimi, Peyman Eshaghi, 2019-04-23 Pilgrimage is one of the most significant ritual duties for Muslims, entailing the visitation and veneration of sites associated with the Prophet Muhammad or saintly figures. As demonstrated in this multidisciplinary volume, the lived religion of pilgrimage, defined by embodied devotional practices, is changing in an age characterized by commerce, technology, and new sociocultural and political frameworks. Traveling to and far beyond the Hajj, the most well-known Muslim pilgrimage, the volume's contributors reveal and analyze emerging contemporary Islamic pilgrimage practices around the world in minority and majority Muslim countries as well as in urban and rural settings. What was once a tiny religious attraction in a remote village for example may begin to draw increasing numbers of pilgrims to shrines and tombs as the result of new means of travel thus triggering significant changes in the traditional rituals and livelihoods of the local people Organized around three key themes history and politics embodiment memory and material religion and communications the book reveals how rituals practices and institutions are experienced in the context of an inexorable global capitalism The volume contributors are Sophia Rose Arjana Rose Aslan Robert R Bianchi Omar Kasmani Azim Malikov Lewis Mayo Julian Millie Reza Masoudi Nejad Paulo G Pinto Babak Rahimi Emilio Spadola Edith Szanto and Brannon Wheeler Muslim Women's Pilgrimage to Mecca and Beyond Marjo Buitelaar, Manja Stephan-Emmrich, Viola Thimm, 2020-11-15 This book investigates female Muslims pilgrimage practices and how these relate to women's mobility social relations identities and the power structures that shape women's lives Bringing together scholars from different disciplines and regional expertise it offers in depth investigation of the gendered dimensions of Muslim pilgrimage and the life worlds of female pilgrims With a variety of case studies the contributors explore the experiences of female pilgrims to Mecca and other pilgrimage sites and how these are embedded in historical and current contexts of globalisation and transnational mobility This volume will be relevant to a broad audience of researchers across pilgrimage gender religious and Islamic studies

Contemporary Muslim Travel Cultures C. Michael Hall, Siamak Seyfi, S. Mostafa Rasoolimanesh, 2022-07-26 This timely volume brings together various issues in Muslim consumer cultures and provides a comprehensive account of Muslim tourism and tourist behaviour Islam is a major international religion and Muslims are a majority of the population in many countries in Asia the Middle East and North Africa The growth of a substantial middle class the development of Islamic consumer cultures rising Muslim market consumption in non Muslim majority destinations and the growing significance of intra Muslim traffic and rising outbound tourism expenditure in emerging Muslim markets have all contributed to substantial interest in Muslim tourism However travel by Muslims is about far more than the Hajj and Umrah as important as they are as acts of devotion Instead although often portrayed in the West as a monolithic religion Muslim travel and leisure behaviour is very diverse with different traditions and cultures leading to a range of expressions of tourism related consumption culture and practices Drawing on a range of empirical studies undertaken in different social and economic contexts and countries this book provides a well balanced portrayal of the Muslim tourism experience and practices This book makes a substantial contribution to an improved understanding of Muslim travel culture and will be required reading for anyone interested in this fast growing market and lodging Islamic markets product developments heritage certification and emerging and future trends and issues It integrates case studies from a range of countries and destinations and in doing so emphasises the significant differences that exist with respect to regulating and commodifying halal as well as stressing that the Islamic market is not monolithic Written by highly regarded international academics it offers a range of perspectives and enables a comprehensive discussion of this integral part of Islam and contemporary society This handbook will be of significant interest to upper level students researchers and academics in the various disciplines of Tourism Hospitality Food Studies Marketing Religious Studies Geography Sociology and Islamic Studies

The Practice of Islam in America Edward E Curtis IV,2019-09-10 An introduction to the ways in which ordinary Muslim Americans practice their faith Muslims have always been part of the United States but very little is known about how Muslim Americans practice their religion How do they pray What s it like to go on pilgrimage to Mecca What rituals accompany the birth of a child a wedding or the death of a loved one What holidays do Muslims celebrate and what charities do they support How do they learn about the Qur an The Practice of Islam in America introduces readers to the way Islam is lived in the United States offering vivid portraits of Muslim American life passages ethical actions religious holidays prayer pilgrimage and other religious activities It takes readers into homes religious congregations schools workplaces cemeteries restaurants and all the way to Mecca to understand the diverse religious practices of Muslim Americans Going beyond a theoretical discussion of what Muslims are supposed to do this volume focuses on what they actually do As the volume reveals their religious practices are shaped by their racial and ethnic identity their gender and sexual orientation and their sectarian identity among other social factors Readers gain practical information about Islamic religion while also coming to understand how the day to day realities of American life shape Muslim American practice

The Politics of the Hajj from a Comparative Perspective Muriel Gomez-Perez,Cédric Jourde,Marie Brossier,2025-02-28 This book analyzes the contemporary politics of the Hajj in countries of Africa the Near East and Southeast Asia States must organize the mobility of approximately two million pilgrims every year States also manage the flow of vast amounts of financial resources related to the Hajj as well as the transmission of religious and political ideas about how the world ought to be governed The contributions in this volume investigate how states attempt to manage the Hajj and the power relations they develop with pilgrims religious leaders and entrepreneurs of various types They also examine the Hajj organization from the viewpoint of pilgrims how they make sense of the bureaucratic apparatus they encounter how they navigate the constraints imposed upon them and how they seize opportunities to fulfill their religious economic and social aspirations The Politics of the Hajj from a Comparative Perspective closely analyzes political interactions between states pilgrims religious actors and entrepreneurs and the extent to which they have evolved over time

Decolonising the Hajj Matthew M. Heaton,2023-05-23 Muslims from the region that is now Nigeria have been undertaking the Hajj for hundreds of years But the process of completing the pilgrimage changed dramatically in the twentieth century as state governments became heavily involved in its organization and management Under British colonial rule a minimalist approach to pilgrimage control facilitated the journeys of many thousands of mostly overland pilgrims Decolonization produced new political contexts with nationalist politicians taking a more proactive approach to pilgrimage management for both domestic and international reasons The Hajj which had previously been a life altering journey undertaken slowly and incrementally over years became a shorter safer trip characterized by round trip plane rides In examining the transformation of the Nigerian Hajj this book demonstrates how the Hajj became ever more intertwined with Nigerian politics and governance as the country moved from empire to independence Islam Cenap Çakmak,2017-05-18 This expansive four volume encyclopedia presents a broad introduction to Islam that enables learning about the fundamental role of Islam in world history and promotes greater respect for cultural diversity One of the most popular and widespread religions in the world Islam has attracted a great deal of attention in recent times particularly in the Western world With the ongoing tensions in the Middle East and a pervasive sense of hostility toward Arab Americans there is ever increasing need to examine and understand Islam as a religion and historical force Islam A Worldwide Encyclopedia provides some 700 entries on Islam written by expert contributors that cover the religion from the birth of Islam to the present time The set also includes 16 pages of color images per volume that serve to illustrate the diverse expressions of this important religious tradition Each entry begins with a basic introduction followed by a general discussion of the subject and a conclusion Each entry also features a further readings list for readers In addition to supplying a comprehensive authoritative overview of Islam this work also specifically addresses many controversial related issues including jihad violence in Islam polygamy and apostasy China and the Islamic World Robert R. Bianchi,2019-02-01 China is building a New Silk Road that runs through the heartland of the Muslim world promising it will create integrated economies and stronger ties across Eurasia and Africa Robert R Bianchi argues that while China has the financial and technical resources to accomplish its infrastructure goals it is woefully unprepared to deal with the social and political demands of its partner countries citizens
