An Island Garden Celia Thaxter, 1894      Celia Planted a Garden Phyllis Root, Gary D. Schmidt, 2022-05-17 Celia Thaxter grew up on a desolate island off the coast of Maine where her father worked as lighthouse keeper Amid the white and gray of the sea the rocks and even the birds young Celia found color where she could green mosses and purple starfish and pink morning glories by the shore And she planted her first garden tucking bright marigolds between rocky ledges When she was twelve Celia's family moved to nearby Appledore Island where her father built a large hotel and Celia planted a bigger ever growing garden with nearly sixty types of flowers from asters to wisteria      An Island Garden Celia Thaxter, Childe Hassam, 1992      The Sweet Silence Before Sunrise Celia Thaxter, 2011 Artist's book presenting an excerpt from Celia Thaxter's An Island Garden describing a moonset sunrise and happiness hand lettered in gouache and painted in watercolor Bound by Joelle Leavitt Webber of Mermaid Bindery with endpapers and paper cover of Katie MacGregor handmade papers Housed in a custom cloth covered box with title lettered by the artist on the spine and lining of painted paper      An Island Garden Daybook Celia Thaxter, Childe Hassam, 1990-07-01 An exquisite gift book illustrated by America's most beloved Impressionist painter with both prose and poetical excerpts from the work of Celia Thaxter The artist's beautiful work decorates every page of the book leaving room for a reader's appointments or notes on his or her own garden

Of Gardens Paula Deitz,2011-11-29 Paula Deitz has delighted readers for more than thirty years with her vivid descriptions of both famous and hidden landscapes Her writings allow readers to share in the experience of her extensive travels from the waterways of Britain s Castle Howard to the Japanese gardens of Kyoto and home again to New York City s Central Park Collected for the first time the essays in Of Gardens record her great adventure of continual discovery not only of the artful beauty of individual gardens but also of the intellectual and historical threads that weave them into patterns of civilization from the modest garden for family subsistence to major urban developments Deitz s essays describe how people over many centuries and in many lands have expressed their originality by devoting themselves to cultivation and conservation During a visit to the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Garden in Seal Harbor Maine Deitz first came to appreciate the notion that landscape architecture can be as intricately conceived as any major structure and is indeed the means by which we redeem the natural environment through design Years later as she wandered through the gardens of Versailles she realized that because gardens give structure without confinement they encourage a liberation of movement and thought In Of Gardens we follow Deitz down paths of revelation viewing A Bouquet of British Parks Liverpool Edinburgh and London the parks and promenades of Jerusalem the Moonlight Garden of the Taj Mahal a Tuscan style villa in southern California and the rooftop garden at Tokyo s Mori Center among many other sites Deitz covers individual landscape architects and designers including Andr Le N tre Frederick Law Olmsted Beatrix Farrand Russell Page and Michael Van Valkenburgh She then features an array of parks public places and gardens before turning her attention to the burgeoning business of flower shows The volume concludes with a memorable poetic epilogue entitled A Winter Garden of Yellow
