Bombay Stories Matt Reeck, Aftab Ahmad, 2012-11-16 Freshly arrived in 1930s Bombay Manto saw the city like no one else an ethnic melting pot that became ever more varied as migrant workers flooded in It was to be Manto s favourite city His edgy moving stories often peopled with prostitutes and criminals remain startling and provocative even a hundred years after his birth in searching out those forgotten by humanity Manto wrote about what it means to be human At his centenary

Bombay Stories brings together Manto's work from his years in that city for the first time. Matt Reeck and Aftab Ahmad's contemporary nuanced translation captures the idiom and the essence of Urdu's most celebrated short story writer's work. Censored, banned, demonized and ostracized, Saadat Hasan Manto's short stories were considered obscene and downright dangerous during his lifetime and for years after. They still haven't lost their power to shock and enthrall. Cultures of Ageing and Ageism in India Kaustav Bakshi, Paromita Chakravarti, 2024-01-30. This book examines the discourses on ageing and ageism in Indian culture, politics, art and society. It explores its representations and the anxieties, fears and vulnerabilities associated with ageing. The volume looks at ageing within the contexts of the larger discourses of gender, sexuality, nation, health and the performance and politics of ageing. The chapters grapple with diverse issues around ageing and elder care in contemporary India, shifts in socio-economic conditions and the breakdown of the heteropatriarchal family. The book includes personal accounts and narratives that detail the daily experiences of ageing and living with disease, anxiety, loneliness and loss for both elders and their friends and families. The book also explores the models of alternative networks of kinship and care that queer elders in India create in India, as well as examining narratives in society, art, sports and popular culture that both critique and challenge stereotypical ideas about the desires, aspirations and mental and physical capabilities of elders. Topical and comprehensive, this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of gerontology, literature, cultural studies, popular culture, sociology, social psychology, queer studies, gender studies, social anthropology and South Asian studies.

Truth Tales Kali for Women (Organization), 1990. The rich popular tradition of India's women writers is finally available in this collection of short stories translated from seven of the country's languages. The writers and their heroines reflect the complex mosaic of Indian life: they are old and young, rural and urban, rich and poor. Here we meet Muniyakka, called 'walkie talkie' because she mutters to herself; Shakun, the dollmaker, an exploited artist who needs to feel that others depend on her; and Jashoda, professional mother to children of the rich. From Mahasveta Devi's acknowledged masterpiece The Wet Nurse. These stories are dense with those customs, manners and objects that usually remain locked within regional languages, wrote Anita Desai in the New York Review of Books. Meena Alexander's thoughtful introduction places the stories and the writers in the context of modern India. Writing the Global Riot Jumana Bayeh, Helen Groth, Julian Murphet, 2024-01-30. The history of the modern riot parallels the development of the modern novel and writers have collectively shaped perceptions of the riot as a form of political and social expression. The essays in this volume analyse literature's dialogue with the histories of violence bound up in the riot as an inherently volatile form of collective action.
