and precision the traditions of the Church the challenges and gifts of the sciences and the needs and longings of society and the world      Religion, Space, and the Environment Sigurd Bergmann, 2017-07-05 Religions often nurture important skills that help believers locate themselves in the world Religious perceptions practices emotions and beliefs are closely interwoven with the environments from which they emerge Sigurd Bergmann's driving emphasis here is to explore religion not in relation to but as a part of the spatiality and movement within the environment from which it arises and is nurtured Religion Space and the Environment emerges from the author's experiences in different places and continents over the past decade At the book's heart lie the questions of how space place and religion amalgamate and how lived space and lived religion influence each other Bergmann explores how religion and the memory of our past impact our lives in urban spaces how the sacred geographies in Mayan and northeast Asian lands compare to modern eco spirituality and how human images and practices of moving in with and through the land are interwoven with the processes of colonization and sacralising and the practices of power and visions of the sacred among other topics      Beyond Belief Johannes M. Luetz, Patrick D. Nunn, 2021-04-03 This interdisciplinary book explores the science and spirituality nexus in the Pacific Islands Region and as such makes a critical contribution to sustainable climate change adaptation in Oceania In addition to presenting case studies literary analyses field projects and empirical research the book describes faith engaged approaches through the prism of Context past present and future prospects Theory concepts narratives and theoretical frameworks Practice empirical research and praxis informed case examples Doctrine scriptural contributions and perspectives Engagement enlisting religious stakeholders and constituencies Comprising peer reviewed works by scholars professionals and practitioners from across Oceania the book closes a critical gap in the literature and represents a groundbreaking contribution to holistic climate change adaptation in the Pacific Islands Region that is scientifically sound spiritually attuned locally meaningful and contextually compelling      T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and Climate Change Hilda P. Koster, Ernst M. Conradie, 2019-12-12 The T these essays are critically engaged by respondents situated in other geographic regions minority communities non Christian traditions or non theological disciplines Structured in seven main parts the handbook explores 1 the need for collaboration with disciplines outside of Christian theology to address climate change 2 the need to find common moral ground for such collaboration 3 the difficulties posed by collaborating with other Christian traditions from within 4 the questions that emerge from such collaboration for understanding the story of God's work and 5 God's identity and character 6 the implications of such collaboration for ecclesial praxis and 7 concluding reflections examining whether this volume does justice to issues of race gender class other animals religious diversity geographical divides and carbon mitigation This rich ecumenical cross cultural conversation provides a comprehensive and in depth engagement with the theological and moral challenges raised by anthropogenic climate change      From Pentecost to the Triune God Steven M. Studebaker, 2012-12-19 In From Pentecost to the Triune God Steven Studebaker puts forth a provocative Pentecostal Trinitarian theology arguing that the Holy Spirit completes the fellowship of the triune God and therefore shapes the identities of the Father and the Son. The Holy Spirit Studebaker maintains is not simply a passive end product of a procession from the Father and Son but rather a dynamic person who plays an active role in the Trinity and a constitutional consummational role in the history of redemption. In the course of his study Studebaker shows the theological yield of the Pentecostal experience of the Holy Spirit and uncovers the biblical narratives of the Spirit from creation to Pentecost. A constructive and ecumenical contribution to Trinitarian theology. From Pentecost to the Triune God also engages major historical and contemporary figures such as Augustine the Cappadocians Weinandy and Zizioulas as well as representatives from the evangelical and charismatic traditions. Finally Studebaker applies his Pentecostal Trinitarian theology to the theology of religions and creation care proposing that Christians embrace an inclusive posture toward people of other religious traditions and have an earth orientation that sees creation care as Christian formation.

Religion in the Anthropocene Celia Deane-Drummond, Sigurd Bergmann, Markus Vogt, 2018-01-01
Religion in the Anthropocene charts a new direction in humanities scholarship through serious engagement with the geopolitical concept of the Anthropocene. Drawing on religious studies, theology, social science, history, philosophy, and what can be broadly termed as environmental humanities, this collection represents a groundbreaking critical analysis of diverse narratives on the Anthropocene. The contributors to this volume recognize that the Anthropocene began as a geological concept, the age of the humans, but that its implications are much wider than this. Does the Anthropocene idea challenge the possibility of a sacred Nature or is it a secularized theological anthropology more properly dealt with through traditional concepts from Roman Catholic social teaching on human ecology? Not all contributors to this volume agree about the answers to these and many more different questions. Readers will be challenged, provoked, and stimulated by this book.
The Season of Creation Norman C. Habel, H. Paul Santmire, 2011-07
As the global climate crisis worsens, many churches have sought to respond by instituting a movement to observe a liturgical season of creation. Scholars who have pioneered the connections between biblical scholarship, ecological theology, liturgy, and homiletics provide here a comprehensive resource for preaching and leading worship in this new season. Included are theological and practical introductions to observance of the season, biblical texts for its twelve Sundays in the three-year lectionary cycle, and astute commentary to help preachers and worship leaders guide their congregations into deeper connection with our imperiled planet. Publisher description
Eschatology as Imagining the End Sigurd Bergmann, 2018-06-14
As society becomes more concerned with the future of our planet, the study of apocalypse and eschatology become increasingly pertinent. Whether religious or not, people's views on this topic can have a profound effect on their attitudes to issues such as climate change and social justice, and so it cannot be ignored. This book investigates how different approaches in historical and contemporary Christian theology make sense in reflecting about the final things or the eschata and why it is so important to consider their multi-faceted impact on our lives. A team of Nordic scholars analyse historical and contemporary eschatological thinking in a broad range of sources from theology and other related disciplines such as moral philosophy art history and literature Specific social and environmental challenges such as the Norwegian Breivik massacre in 2011 climatic change narratives and the ambiguity of discourses about euthanasia are investigated in order to demonstrate the complexity and significance of modes of thinking about the end times This book addresses the theology of the end of the world in a more serious academic tone than it is usually afforded As such it will be of great interest to academics working in eschatology practical theology religious studies and the philosophy of religion

Taking a Deep Breath for the Story to Begin Ernst M. Conradie, Lai Pan-Chiu, 2022-08-23 This first volume in the proposed series will address some preliminary issues that are typical of a prolegomena in any systematic theology It will focus on the following question How does the story of who the Triune God is and what this God does relate to the story of life on Earth Or Is the Christian story part of the earth s story or is the earth s story part of God s story from creation to consummation This raises many issues on the relatedness of religion and theology the place of theology in multi disciplinary collaboration the notion of revelation the possibility of knowledge of God the interplay between convictions and narrative accounts hermeneutics the difference between natural theology and a theology of nature and the role of science vis vis indigenous worldviews of creation and justice in the context of the earth's changing climate. By consciously employing these four sources of authority, readers discover a unique way to reflect on planetary warming, theologically and to discern a faithful response. The book's premise is that love of God and neighbor in this time of climate change requires us to honor creation and establish justice for our human family for future generations and for all creation. From the introduction: As we entrust our lives to God, we are enabled to join with others in the movement for climate justice and to carry a unified message of healing, love, and solidarity as we live into God's future, offering hope in the midst of the climate crisis that another world is possible. God is ever present, always with us. Love never ends.

Libres por la Gracia de Dios Anne Burghardt, 2016-11-01 En estos cuatro fasc culos te logas y te logos de todas partes del mundo reflexionan sobre el tema central y los tres sub temas Libres por la Gracia de Dios La salvaci n no se vende los seres humanos no se venden la creaci n no se vende de la conmemoraci n de la Federaci n Luterana Mundial de los 500 a os de la Reforma Esta colecci n de ensayos proporciona una visi n profunda sobre los temas y desaf os cruciales que enfrentan a diario las y los miembros de la comuni n luterana mundial en contextos muy variados El concepto teol gico de la justificaci n por la gracia de Dios y sus consecuencias para diferentes dimensiones de la vida sirven como directrices para los ensayos cada uno acompa ado de tres preguntas que invitan a una reflexi n contextual m s profunda sobre el tema

The Nature of Things Graham Buxton, Norman C. Habel, 2016-11-16. In 2015 a conference on Rediscovering the Spiritual in God's Creation was held at the Serafino winery complex in the McLaren Vale region of South Australia. The aim of the conference was not to seek consensus but to survey the landscape with a view to intentional, responsible action in caring for God's creation. Delegates were challenged to recognize their own worldviews and to widen their horizons to encompass the enormity of the transcendence and immanence of God's presence in all creation. A group of leading international scholars and experts in the fields of science, ecology, theology, and ethics participated in a multidisciplinary conversation on the spiritual in creation with the aim of discovering fresh horizons with regard to creation care, liturgy, justice, and discipleship within the Christian community. The chapters in this volume reflect the diversity of perspectives summarized in The Serafino Declaration, which was crafted towards the end of the conference. This declaration, which opens the volume, outlines a range of views relating to the presence of the spiritual in creation, views that are both traditional and radical. This volume highlights the current concern over ecological destruction and finds sources of inspiration in the deepest roots of our traditions and forms of spirituality to sustain efforts towards custodianship of the land and care for God's creation.
