

The top half of the image features a religious painting. It depicts a figure, likely an angel, with long, flowing golden hair and a red garment, standing in a golden, ethereal environment. The figure's arms are outstretched, and there is a bright, glowing light source behind them, creating a halo effect. The background is a mix of warm, golden and brown tones, suggesting a celestial or divine space. The overall style is reminiscent of classical religious art.

God Matters Contemporary Christian Insights:

God Matters Herbert McCabe, 2005-01-01 Seldom have God matters been treated with such verve sense rigour and humour as in this collection of writings by Herbert McCabe The book demonstrates the depth and clarity of his theology and philosophy of God his appetite for controversy both political and theological as well as a traditional Catholic concern for prayer liturgy Mary and St Dominic The articles which range widely and represent over twenty years of characteristically dominican enterprise reveal a personality that is itself clear evidence that God matters Heavenly Bodies Sigurdson, 2016 Deep and wide study of 2 000 years of Christian thought on the human body Does Christianity scorn our bodies Friedrich Nietzsche thought so and many others since him have thought the same Ola Sigurdson contends to the contrary that Christianity understood properly in fact affirms human embodiment Presenting his constructive contributions to theology in relation to both historical and contemporary conceptions of the body Sigurdson begins by investigating the anthropological implications of the doctrine of the incarnation He then delves into the concept of the gaze and discusses a specifically Christian gaze of faith that focuses on God embodied in Jesus Finally he weaves these strands into a contemporary Christian theology of embodiment Sigurdson's profound engagement with the whole history of Christian life and thought not only elucidates the spectrum of Christian perspectives on the body but also models a way of thinking historically and systematically that other theologians will find stimulating and challenging Catherine of Siena Thomas McDermott, 2008 Although Catherine of Siena was proclaimed a Doctor of the Church in 1970 relatively little attention has been given to her mystical thought particularly in the English speaking world The Dialogue the famous compendium of her mature thought is difficult to understand owing to its interruptions repetitions overlapping arguments imagery and undefined terms Thomas McDermott breaks new ground in his systematic presentation of Catherine's teachings Drawing on the Dialogue and also on Catherine's 381 letters and prayers he explains clearly her principal teachings in relation to spiritual development and identifies Catherine's possible sources as well as her areas of originality By examining Catherine's life and mystical experiences McDermott shows how she herself grew spiritually and how her growth corresponds to her later teaching on the three stairs on the bridge of Christ crucified Finally the author puts forward what he regards as the fundamental message of Catherine's life and teaching Students of mysticism and spirituality will find this book a trustworthy guide through the incredibly rich mysticism of one of the 14th century's most amazing women Diabolism in Colonial Peru, 1560-1750 Andrew Redden, 2015-09-30 Uses a multidisciplinary approach to investigate the transcultural phenomenon of the devil in early modern Peru This work demonstrates that the interaction between the Christian and the Andean worlds was far more complex than any interpretation that posits a clear dichotomy between conversion and resistance would suggest A Life Giving Way Esther De Waal, 2006-05-01 Is it surprising that a sixth century monastic text the Rule of St Benedict should be a guide for lay Christians living in today's world In fact the questions which St Benedict had to face are still questions which face us today How do I live with others With the world With myself With God How do I bring balance into my life St Benedict speaks to the heart and this commentary approaches the Rule in a prayerful and reflective way It will help many people who today are seeking a contemplative centre in a busy life St Benedict's writing is steeped in scripture In the Middle Ages his rule was seen as a digest of the Bible It therefore crosses the divides of the church and speaks to Christians of all denominations Against God and Nature Thomas H. McCall, 2019-06-25 Without a proper understanding of sin there can never be a proper understanding of the gospel Sin is opposed both to God's will and to nature leaving us in need of God's grace and redemption This comprehensive exploration of the doctrine of sin looks at what the Bible teaches about sin's origin nature and consequences engaging with historical and contemporary movements Dealing with difficult issues such as original sin angelic sin corporate sin greater and lesser sins and more this book ends with a discussion on divine grace which is the only hope for the problem of sin Pain That Heals Martin Israel, 2002-01-09 The Pain That Heals is a personal response to the amount of suffering that I have witnessed amongst the many to whom I have ministered and even more starkly in my own life It has become obvious that the problem of evil in the face of a loving God is not to be solved at a purely intellectual level it is by traversing the valley where death casts its long shadow that the sufferer learns the basic truths about his or her condition This book will give cold comfort to those who want instant relief but to those who are prepared to proceed with their difficulties with courage it will show the way of advance that has been tried and proved by at least one traveller Martin Israel

In Search of a Calling Thomas O. Buford, 1995 Preaching and Praying as Though God Matters Ronald P. Byars, 2022-10-14 We in mainline churches are uneasy maybe even scared Why are our voices not heard After all we are the reasonable Christians the updated Christians the respectable ones who have dominated the cultural landscape since colonial times This book presumes that trying to reverse the loss of our traditional status in society is both futile and beside the point What's called for when we find ourselves in a state of crisis is to rediscover the big picture the Christian hope projected on a large screen This requires the courage to revisit the sources from which all Christian hope springs rediscovering their life giving power That power rises from the counterintuitive affirmations of the gospel represented in Christ's incarnation his healing the afflicted his raising the dead his vulnerability his cross resurrection and universal restoration Acts 3:21 Preaching and worship that embodies and lifts up the hard parts the life giving parts is neither fundamentalist nor an exercise in nostalgia It is rather evidence of confidence in the triune God who makes the unknowable known The Good Shepherd promised My sheep hear my voice I know them and they follow me John 10:27 And when they do they will The Good Work of Non-Christians, Empowerment, and the New Creation Stuart C. Weir, 2016-04-25 Have you ever considered the ultimate purposes and consequences of good work performed by non Christians Have you ever theologically considered the work of non Christians at all Is it possible that God would ever give credence to let alone honor the work of non Christians in an ultimate sense Are you frustrated by theologies of work that are entirely protological in orientation How do we make sense of biblical excerpts that talk of work being judged towards a particular outcome The Good Work of Non Christians Empowerment and the New Creation attempts to answer these questions in a manner that also challenges evangelical assumptions about the ultimate outcomes of working life Drawing strength from eschatologically minded theologies by Miroslav Volf and Darrell Cosden Weir seeks to replace protology with eschatology in a theology of work about non Christians The British evangelical tradition is specifically taken up here so as to make critical assessments of certain airtight theologies regarding human action with reference to the new creation This book attempts to create a heuristic against unhelpful hermeneutical tendencies that inform evangelical theologies This is a work that is not only theological it is biblically historically and ethically rigorous
