A generation ago most Americans had little or no contact with Muslims Hindus Buddhists or any other adherents of non Christian religions. Now our culture is much more pluralistic. In addition to these others many Westerners disenchanted with Christianity are more inclined than they were a generation ago to dabble in new spiritual alternatives that were not as readily available here before. Many Christians feel intimidated by these changes. Many Christians don t know how to engage their newest non Christian neighbors in conversation partly because they feel ignorant about the religions practiced by others. Significant Others seeks to fill this knowledge gap so readers will become more acquainted with the religious backgrounds of devout non Christians they are meeting as well as with the growing number of American people who claim no religious affiliation at all. Each chapter outlines the major world religions according to their significant founders or leading figures significant beliefs and practices significant sects and developments and significant points of contact and points of contrast with Christian faith. Prophet's Daughter Janet A. Khan, 2005 Prophet's Daughter examines the extraordinary life of Bahiyyih Khanum, 1846–1932, the daughter of Baha'u'llah, founder of the Baha'i Faith. From the mid-nineteenth century to the early twentieth century, when women in the Middle East were largely invisible, deprived of education and without status in their communities, Bahiyyih Khanum was an active participant in the religion's turbulent early years and contributed significantly both to the development of its administrative structure and to its emergence as a worldwide faith community. Her appointment to head the Baha'i Faith during a critical period of transition stands unique in religious history.

Students are provided with an introduction and overview of the tradition taken through its primary texts and presented with a text which seeks to persuade the student of the tradition's merits. This new edition has been thoroughly updated to be even more accessible for students new to interreligious engagement and to reflect current trends and developments in religions worldwide. Every chapter opens with a substantial overview which orients the new student and then flows into a carefully chosen set of texts. A regular textbook is now combined with a Reader. New content examines areas such as the Rastafarian tradition, while revised chapters cover secular humanism and indigenous and emerging religious traditions.
