Contemplating Sufism Khairudin Aljunied, 2025-02-03 Contemplating Sufism Dialogue and Tradition across Southeast Asia Exploring Sufi sites and seminaries Professor Aljunied vividly describes how a dialogic tradition facilitated the formation of a Sufi habitus and life form across Muslim majority Southeast Asia The work deftly articulates the synergies between Sufis and the wider public showing how such dynamics infused increasingly powerful mediums and popular forms of mass mobilization during the colonial and post colonial eras

ARMANDO SALVATORE Barbara and Patrick Keenan Chair in Interfaith Studies McGill University Canada At once personal and scholarly this book shows how Sufis were engaged in dual dialogues with themselves and their surroundings that made them agents of social change in Southeast Asia's past and present alike Paying equal attention to devotion and miracles and no less the political and martial aspects of Sufi activism Aljunied explains why Islam remains so important in the region today

NILE GREEN Ibn Khaldun Endowed Chair in World History University of California Los Angeles Splendidly written and accessible Khairudin Aljunied tells a lively and engaging story of Muslim piety metaphysics and politics as an integral part of Islamic thought and practice in Southeast Asia Readers will gain a profound and nuanced understanding of Islam in a region with the world's largest Muslim population. A compelling read. EBRAHIM MOOSA Mirza, Family Professor of Islamic Thought and Muslim Societies, University of Notre Dame, USA. Contemplating Sufism employs a unique contemplative history methodology to uncover how and why Sufis employed creative mediums to embed and sustain their importance in the region for many centuries. Recognizing Sufism as a dialogical tradition, Khairudin Aljunied reveals the emotional, institutional, and political forces that continue to influence Sufi thought and practices. Providing an accessible and coherent synthesis of the latest scholarship in the field, this innovative study integrates data from around the world, vignettes, and anecdotes of Southeast Asian Sufism and the author's ethnographic observations and personal experiences. Lively and engaging chapters contain vivid descriptions and rich analyses of the texts, ideas, people, practices, and institutions that aided in the development of Sufism and transformed Southeast Asia's ideological, cultural, political, and social landscapes. Illustrating the inventiveness and energy of the Sufis, Contemplating Sufism: Dialogue and Tradition across Southeast Asia is an excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses on Sufism and a valuable resource for academics, scholars, and general readers with an interest in the mystical dimension of Islam in the non-Arab world.

An Ethology of Religion and Art Bryan Rennie, 2020-02-13. Drawing from sources including the ethology of art and the cognitive science of religion, this book proposes an improved understanding of both art and religion as behaviors developed in the process of human evolution. Looking at both art and religion as closely related but not identical behaviors, a more coherent definition of religion can be formed that avoids pitfalls such as the Eurocentric characterization of religion as belief or the dismissal of the category as nothing more than false belief or the product of scholarly invention. The book integrates highly relevant insights from the ethology and anthropology of art, particularly the identification of the special by Ellen Dissanayake and art as agency by Alfred Gell, with insights from among others Ann Taves, who similarly identified specialness as characteristic of religion. It integrates these insights into a useful and accurate understanding and explanation of the relationship of art and religion and of religion as a human behavior. This in turn is used to suggest how art can contribute to the development and maintenance of religions. The innovative combination of art science and religion in this book makes it a vital resource for scholars of Religion and the Arts, Aesthetics, Religious Studies, Religion and Science, and Religious Anthropology.

A Living Islamic City Titus Burckhardt, 2020-09-01. The Moroccan city of Fez, founded in the ninth century CE, is one of the most precious urban jewels of Islamic civilization. For more than 40 years, Titus Burckhardt worked to document and preserve the artistic and architectural heritage of Fez in particular and Morocco in general. These newly translated lectures, delivered while Burckhardt was living and working in Fez, explore how the historic city can be preserved without turning it from a living organism into a dead museum city and how it can be adapted and updated using the values that gave birth to the city and its way of life. Aided by photographs and sketches made during the course of his lifetime, Burckhardt conveys what it means to be a living Islamic city.

Brown,2023-11-16 One common argument against taking the notion of divine revelation seriously is the extraordinary diversity which exists between the world's major religions How can God be thought to have spoken to humanity when the conclusions drawn are so very different David Brown authoritatively and persuasively tackles this issue head on He refutes the idea that all faiths necessarily culminate in Christianity or that they can be reduced to some facile lowest common denominator arguing instead that ideas may emerge more naturally in one context than another Sometimes because of its own singular situation another religion has proved to be more perceptive on a particular issue than Christianity At other times no religion will hold the ultimate answer because what can be asserted is heavily dependent on what is viable both scientifically and philosophically Although complete reconciliation is impossible a richer notion of revelation so the author suggests can be the result

Jerusalem in Memory and Eschatology Emma O'Donnell Polyakov,2025-06-12 Investigating a range of eschatological ideologies this volume explores the connection between notions of sacred space and time in Jewish Christian and Muslim understandings of Jerusalem The recognition of Jerusalem as a holy city both unites and divides Judaism Christianity and Islam While these three religious traditions share a reverence for the same ancient city this veneration leads more often to tension and violence than to commonality and cooperation Each of these religions draws heavily from religious memory and eschatological prophecies and sees Jerusalem as a site of past and future upheaval however the distinctions in their visions imbue Jerusalem with meanings that reinforce conflicting and contested ideologies Offering multiple analyses of religious interpretations of the city and its sacred sites this volume explores these divergent visions of the remembered and anticipated Jerusalem

The Muslim Difference Youshaa Patel,2022-01-01 A sweeping history of Muslim identity from its origins in late antiquity to the present How did Muslims across time and place define the line between themselves and their neighbors Youshaa Patel explores why the Prophet Muhammad first advised his followers to emulate Christians and Jews but then allegedly reversed course urging them to be different He details how subsequent generations of Muslim scholars canonized the Prophet's admonition into an influential doctrine against imitation that enjoined ordinary believers to embody and display their religious difference in public life Tracing this Islamic discourse from its origins in Arabia to Mamluk and Ottoman Damascus colonial Egypt and beyond this sweeping intellectual and social history offers a panoramic view of Muslim identity revealing unexpected intersections between religion and other markers of difference across ethnicity gender and status Patel illustrates that contemporary debates in the West over visible expressions of Islam from headscarves and beards to minarets and mosques are just the latest iterations in a long history of how small differences have defined Muslim interreligious encounters
