The Priesthood of All Believers and the Missio Dei Henry Joseph Voss,2016-10-25 The priesthood of all believers is a pillar undergirding Protestant ecclesiology Yet the doctrine has often been used to serve diverse agendas This book examines the doctrine s canonical catholic and contextual dimensions It first identifies the priesthood of all believers as a canonical doctrine based upon the royal priesthood of Christ and closely related to the believer s eschatological temple service and offering of spiritual sacrifices chapters 1 3 It secondly describes its catholic development by examining three paradigmatic shifts shifts especially associated with Christendom chapters 4 6 and a suppression of the doctrine s missional component Finally the book argues that a Christian doctrine of the priesthood of all believers should be developed with a Christocentric Trinitarian understanding of the missio Dei This suggests there are especially appropriate ways for the royal priesthood to relate to the Father to the Son and to the Holy Spirit A canonically and catholically informed priesthood of all believers leads contextually to particular ecclesial practices These seven practices are 1 Baptism as public ordination to the royal priesthood 2 Prayer 3 Lectio Divina 4 Ministry 5 Church Discipline 6 Proclamation and 7 the Lord s Supper as the

Lockhart, 2016-04-08 I m rich and I don t need a thing bragged the early Christians in the big city of Laodicea The Apostle John however saw their affluence and arrogance through a theological lens He declared them to be bankrupt lukewarm Christians whom God would gladly gargle and spit out Today the mainline church in the West finds itself in a dominant culture of Laodicean affluence where even faith is a commodity to be consumed While the gospel spreads and thrives in the global South and East the Western mainline church looks longingly back at Christendom and forward in fear As Christians living in a North American culture that highly prizes the unholy Trinity of individualism consumerism and secularism we require a new kind of missional leadership to pray attention to what God is doing in the world around us This book names the challenges and promises inherent in partnering with the Holy Spirit in order to offer missional leadership in a culture of affluence It is about both living in Laodicea and leaving it behind We are no longer in a Babylonian captivity but a

Lord Jesus Christ Daniel Treier,2023-10-31 A study of the doctrine of Christ that is biblical and historical evangelical and ecumenical conceptually clear and contextually relevant Lord Jesus Christ expounds the doctrine of Christ by focusing upon theological interpretation of Scripture regarding Jesus's identity The book's structure traces a Christological arc from the eternal communion of the Triune God through creation covenants Incarnation passion and exaltation all the way to the consummation of redemptive history This arc identifies Jesus as the divine Lord who assumed human flesh for our salvation The book expounds and defends a classically Reformed Christology in relation to contemporary contexts and challenges engaging both philosophical and global concerns Each chapter begins with the theological interpretation of a key Scripture text before expounding key concepts of orthodox Protestant Christology Lord Jesus Christ is a unique example of writing dogmatic theology by way of theological exegesis The result is a volume that engages the numerous scholarly volumes on Christology that have appeared within the last couple of decades but provides a contemporary account of a traditional view

About the Series New Studies in Dogmatics seeks to retrieve the riches of Christian doctrine for the sake of contemporary theological renewal Following in the tradition of G C Berkouwer's Studies in Dogmatics this series will provide thoughtful concise and readable treatments of major theological topics expressing the biblical creedal and confessional shape of Christian doctrine for a contemporary evangelical audience The editors and contributors share a common conviction that the way forward in constructive systematic theology lies in building upon the foundations laid in the church's historic understanding of the Word of God as professed in its creeds councils and confessions and by its most trusted teachers
