The Care of the Self in Early Christian Texts Deborah Niederer Saxon,2017-10-05 This book presents the first three Christian centuries through the lens of what Foucault called the care of the self This lens reveals a rich variation among early Christ movements by illuminating their practices instead of focusing on what we anachronistically assume to have been their beliefs A deep analysis of the discourse of martyrdom demonstrates how writers like Clement Ignatius and Polycarp represented self care Deborah Niederer Saxon brings to light an entire spectrum of alternative views represented in newly discovered texts from Nag Hammadi and elsewhere This insightful analysis has implications for feminist scholarship and exposes the false binary of thinking in terms of orthodoxy versus heresy Gnosticism

Martyred for the Church Justin Buol,2018-09-21 In this study Justin Buol analyzes the writings connected with the deaths of Ignatius of Antioch Polycarp of Smyrna and Pothinus of Lyons in light of earlier accounts of the noble deaths of military political and religious leaders from Greco Roman literature and the Bible which record benefits accruing to a group on account of its leader s death The author argues that the accounts of these three bishops martyrdoms draw upon those prior models in order to portray the bishops as dying to unite protect and strengthen the Church oppose false teaching and apostasy and solidify the teaching role of the episcopal office Finally by providing a foundation for Irenaeus to argue for apostolic succession these second century bishop martyrs also help form a lasting contribution to the growth of episcopal power

Trauma and Recovery in Early North African Christianity Scott Harrower,2024-04-22 Powerful religious elements for living in the aftermath of trauma are embedded within North African Christian hagiographies The texts of 1 The Passion of Perpetua and Felicity 2 The Account of Montanus Lucius and their Companions and 3 The Life of Cyprian of Carthage are stories that offered post traumatic pathways to recovery for its historical readership These recovery oriented beliefs and behaviors promoted positive religious coping strategies that revolved around a sense of safety re establishing community relationships an integrated sense of self and a hopeful story beyond trauma This book vividly demonstrates that hagiographies played a vital therapeutic role in helping early Christian trauma survivors recover and flourish in the aftermath of disastrous persecutions

Talking God in Society Ute E. Eisen,Heidrun Elisabeth Mader,2021-02-15 Peter Lampe s work has covered a wide range of fields the common denominator being his interest in contextualizing belief systems Mirroring his multifaced work the authors pursue his interest from different interdisciplinary angles addressing the interdependence between religious expressions and their situations or contexts The application of theoretical models to texts examples flanks the inspiring theoretical epistemological and methodological reflections Studies in socio economic and political history adjoin archaeological epigraphic papyrological and iconographic investigations Social psychological interpretations of texts complement rhetorical analyses The hermeneutical reception of biblical materials in for example the Koran and Christian Chinese or Orthodox contexts as well as in religious education and homiletics rounds off the volumes

The Gender Conversation Edwina Murphy, David Ian Starling, 2016-05-13 Conversations about gender both inside and outside the church can frequently degenerate into stale and rancorous disputes in which predictable arguments are traded back and forth or fade awkwardly away into the tense silences of mutual misunderstanding But the issue is an important one and calls for a better conversation than either of those alternatives In September 2015 Morling College hosted a one day symposium entitled The Gender Conversation A rich and diverse mix of contributors met to discuss issues of gender theology and Christian living within a shared framework of evangelical conviction Our aim in hosting the symposium was to deepen mutual understanding and respect highlight common ground clarify points of difference and unite us all in a quest to learn from the Scriptures and live in the light of the gospel This book brings together the papers presented at the symposium and the contributors responses to one another as a resource for further reflection and discussion

Women's Socioeconomic Status and Religious Leadership in Asia Minor in the First Two Centuries C.E. Katherine Bain, 2014 Rethinking the socioeconomic status of women in the Roman world Moving beyond discussions of patriarchy and prescribed women s roles in the Roman world discussions that have relied too much on elite literary sources in her view Katherine Bain explores what inscriptional data from Asia Minor can tell us about the actual socioeconomic status of women in the first and second centuries C E Her findings suggest that women s leadership in social associations and by implication in Jewish and Christian congregations as well was even more frequent than has been imagined Book Cover some say was the first female apostle Wholly Woman, Holy Blood Kristin De Troyer, 2003-04-01 Addresses central questions regarding the ways that religion regards the role of women Christianity Outside the Box Nigel Scotland, 2012-12-03 A major aspect of the history of Christian missions is the way groups who have jumped the ecclesiastical ship have renewed and recalled their parent bodies back to biblical roots and a biblical vision This book examines fourteen such vibrant Christian movements which operated outside the box Each chapter ends with a practical section highlighting those factors that made the particular group successful They were all missional movements that pursued a Christian vision and developed structures to facilitate it In contrast the traditional organizations from which they emerged tended to do mission from an established given structure Here are seriously committed movements that offer a dynamic challenge to our contemporary churches Found Christianities M. David Litwa, 2022-02-24 M David Litwa tells the stories of the early Christians whose religious identity was either challenged or outright denied In the second century many different groups and sects claimed to be the only Orthodox or authentic version of Christianity and Litwa shows how those groups and figures on the side of developing Christian Orthodoxy often dismissed other versions of Christianity by refusing to call them Christian However the writings and treatises against these groups contain fascinating hints of what they believed and why they called themselves Christian Litwa outlines these different groups and the controversies that surrounded them presenting readers with an overview of the vast tapestry of beliefs that made up second century Christianity By moving beyond notions of gnostic heretical and orthodox Litwa allows these lost Christianities to speak for themselves He also questions the notion of some Christian identities surviving or perishing arguing that all second century Catholic groups look very different to any form of modern Roman Catholicism Litwa shows that countless discourses ideas and practices are continually recycled and adapted throughout time in the building of Christian identities and indeed that the influence of so called lost Christianities can still be felt today Minoritized Women Reading Race and Ethnicity Mitzi J. Smith, Jin Young Choi, 2020-09-24 Nonwhite women primarily appear as marginalized voices if at all in volumes that address constructions of race ethnicity and early Christian texts Employing an intersectional approach the contributors analyze historical cultural literary and ideological constructions of racial ethnic identities which intersect with gender sexuality class religion slavery and or power Given their small numbers in academic biblical studies this book represents a critical mass of nonwhite women scholars and offers a critique of dominant knowledge production Filling a significant epistemological gap this seminal text provides provocative innovative and critical insights into constructions of race ethnicity in ancient and modern texts and contexts The Disappearance of Eve and the Gender of Christ Kevin Carnahan, 2025 By assigning responsibility for sin to Adam and credit for salvation to Christ Paul removed Eve from salvation history This book revises Paul s original formula and with it common claims about Christ s sex and gender It accepts Christ as both the new Adam and the new Eve and accepts that Christ is theologically speaking trans Women Patrons and Mothers in Associations and the New Testament Susan E.
