God's Game Plan : FCA Student Bible Fellowship of Christian Athletes,

Game Day for the Glory of God Stephen Altrogge, 2008-08-21 This book gives biblical guidance on playing watching and discussing sports in a God glorifying manner helping believers grow in both their love for God and their passion for holiness Scripture calls Christians to do everything for the glory of God That means every thought every word and every deed are to be done in a way that brings pleasure and honor to him Believe it or not this includes playing watching and talking sports But most of us fail to recognize how sports fit into the big picture of a God glorifying life unable to imagine that the God who created the universe might actually care about Little League games and Monday Night Football So how do we play watch and talk sports for God's glory Game Day for the Glory of God seeks to answer that question from a biblical perspective Sports fan Stephen Altrogge aims to help readers enjoy sports as a gift from God and to see sports as a means of growing in godliness

Coach God Joseph Lovett, 2018-08-23 Every sporting moment is a moment of grace Our God is with us through it all challenging us to be our best supporting us through suffering and loss and calling us to respond to the call of Jesus to live lives of integrity sacrifice forgiveness and love Sometimes our sporting lives can seem full of overscheduling selfishness and pressures that make our participation more burdensome than freeing and life giving This is true for parents coaches and players alike Thankfully Coach God has a game plan for us Coach God shares the true stories of athletes parents and coaches who have demonstrated humility courage and openness to enter into the mystery of God's game plan for them The inspirational stories of Peter Frates Pat Connaughton Mark Bavaro and other famous and not so famous athletes witness to the presence of God in their lives These stories take the reader on a journey of faith in God's Spirit and remind us that we are always in the game and God is always with us. Sometimes God sends assistant coaches, namely our parents, coaches, or teammates, to deliver a message of hope or encouragement. One thing is for certain: as our ultimate coach, Coach God believes that we will be that good until we are that good. We just need to take a knee, look, listen, and believe.

Heart of an Athlete Playbook Fellowship of Christian Athletes, 2012-08-01 In life as in sports, a quick time out to rethink and re-center on the goal is a smart strategy. The Heart of an Athlete Playbook gives readers regular spiritual training for life on and off the field. This collection of 31 devotional readings are a quick start for athletes at any level, offering memorable biblical insights for handling challenges and playing with God's purposes in mind. Readers will be introduced to the FCA devotional method PRESS: designed with athletes in mind. Pray, Read, Examine, Summarize, and Share, and will discover how to use biblical principles to become a dynamic competitor for Christ.

Get in the Game Tony Evans, Jonathan Evans, 2006-07-01 A competitive athlete trains for one thing: the game. Having the skills and knowing how to play aren't enough; you need to perform when it matters. Yet so many of those same athletes live in a spiritual offseason. They have faith. They know the Word. But they sit back and watch others take the lead. Get in the Game encourages athletes to transfer their drive and determination to the spiritual realm and shows that there is far more than a game on the line.

True Competitor Dan Britton, Jimmy Page, 2025-04-01 Get in the game. Do you want powerful, unstoppable faith for the gym, locker room, and competitive arena? Your passion to live intentionally for Jesus in everything you do can help you transform the world, one practice and game at a time. True Competitor will challenge you to train your heart, mind, and soul so you reflect the love of Christ on and off the field. Dan Britton and Jimmy Page share fifty-two devotions that will refine how you think, train, and compete. Each devotion features an in-the-trenches sports story with Scripture, practical application, interactive questions, and room to write your personal game plan. Become a champion for Christ and take your faith, sport, and life to the next level.

Heads Up! Dave Branon, David Branon, 2000 How can you get children excited about the Bible when all they want to read about are hat tricks, foul balls, and rushing yards? Branon hits a home run with this devotional designed for sports-crazed kids ages 8-12. Filled with Christian role models, Scripture, and fun sports trivia, Heads Up can have all-star kids getting into God's game plan on a daily basis.

God and Football... Why Men Love the Game Patrick Greik, 2012-06-26 In football, coaches must trust their players not to make the same mistake over and over again. However, God never gives up on us, no matter how many times we make mistakes or commit sins. Remember that sinning is different from a mistake. To sin against the law of God requires intent against the law of God and the original Ten Commandments that God gave Moses. The connection between religion and sports is everywhere in our culture. Athletes and fans alike are known for praising God for all success. But beyond these public displays of religion is a spiritual connection that exists between our faith and our favorite teams. God and Football: Why Men Love the Game takes an in-depth look at this connection to show the spiritual reasoning behind our passions for the game. Playing or watching the game of football is beneficial physically and spiritually Real time decisions made during a game simulate decisions that will be made later in life off the field Yet risk is involved and attached to the activity Injuries can and do occur during games just as spiritual injuries occur in our daily lives While football is a fierce game it teaches us the importance of following the rules embracing discipline committing to a team and trusting in a higher power Football helps make men better by reminding us of our mortality as well as teaching us valuable life and spiritual lessons Find out more about the connection between football and spirituality in God and Football Why Men Love the Game

Home Run Kevin Myers, John C. Maxwell, 2014-02-27 HOME RUN is the story of Kevin Myers a Christian leader who found himself hitting walls in his personal and professional life as the high expectations he had for a church plant spiraled into a train wreck for five years Through a season of brokenness the discovery of God's pattern for living and the mentoring of John Maxwell Kevin turned around his life and leadership God taught Kevin that he was living his life backwards He discovered a biblical pattern for living which transformed his life leadership and relationships Only then did the church start growing Now he and John are teaching others what Kevin learned so that readers can also apply the lessons and live life to the fullest as Jesus promised in John 10:10 Using a baseball diamond as an analogy for living by God's pattern Kevin teaches an idea that's simple enough to communicate to a child yet has enough depth to carry the truths to adults Each base on a baseball diamond represents God's desired pattern for life Connection with God Character Community and Competence The breakdown occurs because most people run the bases backwards In our performance based culture they run straight to third base Competence focusing on performance to the detriment of relationships character and their connection with God

And God Said, "Play Ball!" Gary Graf, 2005 Faith and Baseball have long been important factors in the life of author Gary Graf each one inspiring valuable lessons on living I keep returning to them both he says Each has taught me lessons about love loss and life Each has its own rewards and its version of universal truth I'm no theologian by any standard and I never could throw a curve ball with any precision But I do think there's a symbiotic relationship between that which was heaven sent and the game which is heaven on earth
