The Philosophical Quest for God Norbert Fischer, 2005 Philosophy is Love of wisdom There is continual danger that the ports of the search will be taken as the final goal The constitutive absoluteness of its goal points to an unknown absolute This absolute creates a place for thinking about God Thus the God question plays its role in every philosophy from antiquity to the present The way begins with man as the entry point of the question concerning transcendence Then this question is shown to be directed toward God The middle section is dedicated to the arguments concerning divine existence After the arguments for the reasonableness of belief in God we deal with the relationship of philosophical thought about God to living faith Finally the ways to a search for God carried out in trust which certain thinkers have followed while recognizing its problems is outlined
