Critical Psychiatry Ian Cummins, 2025-02-28 Critical Psychiatry outlines the history of a group of thinkers that has come to be known as the anti psychiatry movement Though it has been called a movement the individual thinkers and authors ideas were often in conflict but what they share is a critical perspective on psychiatry as a discipline and institutionalised modes of care The current crisis in mental health services means that it is time to examine once again the key themes of critical psychiatry The excesses of the 1960s radicalism have meant that these themes with an emphasis on the individual dignity of all those involved in mental health services have been lost These need to be rediscovered as part of a solution to current difficulties but also as the starting point for a new model of service provision Critical Psychiatry is a history of ideas It provides a critical evaluation of key thinkers and the application of their work to contemporary mental health service settings

The Geography of the Everyday Robert E. Sullivan, 2017 Sullivan makes the case for geography as a powerful conceptual framework for seeing the everyday anew and for pushing back against its givenness its capacity to so fade into the background that it controls us in dangerously unexamined ways He ranges across time space history Marxian reproduction the body and the geographical mind The Legacy of Aging Jeffrey P. Rosenfeld,1979 This volume is an important investigation of the social characteristic of inheritance in America It is one of the first studies to apply sociological theory and multivariate analysis to geriatric lifestyles and testamentary behavior Love and Sexuality in Social Theory Emiliano Bevilacqua,Mariano Longo,Michael Hviid Jacobsen,2024-11-27 Love and Sexuality in Social Theory considers the role that love and sexuality play in private and public life Drawing on both classical and contemporary social theory this book presents both theoretical and empirical studies of love and sexuality as social factors from the earliest reconstructions of modern emotional life to the most recent analyses of liquid love With attention to the consequences that passions and desires have both on morals and behaviour it departs from the analysis of society in terms of the division of labour and utilitarian mechanisms to consider how a society based on performances values human energy and emotional behaviour in a contradictory way This book therefore presents and discusses classic authors from Georg Simmel and Pitirim Sorokin to Marianne Weber and Simone De Beauvoir through the work of Erving Goffman and ending with contemporary authors such as Michel Foucault Anthony Giddens Zygmunt Bauman Ulrich Beck and Eva Illouz By presenting love as the social foundation of altruism an essential element in modern conceptions of subjectivity and a force shaping intimacy and contemporary social life this book will appeal to scholars of sociology particularly those interested in social theory and the sociology of emotions
