Laura Pritchett

Going Green True Tales From Gleaners Scavengers And Dumpster Divers:

Going Green Laura Pritchett, 2012-11-13 Never mind the Ph D and middle class trappings Laura Pritchett is a Dumpster diver and proud of it Ever since she was old enough to navigate the contents of a metal bin she has reveled in the treasures found in other people s cast offs For Going Green Pritchett has gathered the work of more than twenty writers to tell their personal stories of Dumpster diving eating road kill salvaging plastic from the beach and forgoing another trip to the mall for the thrill of bargain hunting at yard sales and flea markets These stories look not just at the many ways people glean but also at the larger thornier issues dealing with what re using or not says about our culture and priorities The essayists speak to the joys of going beyond the norm to save old houses old dishwater old cultures old Popsicle sticks and old friendships and turning them into something new Some write about gleaning as a means of survival while others see the practice as a rejection of consumerism or as a way of treading lightly on the earth Brimming with practical and creative new ways to think about recycling this collection invites you to dive in and find your own way of going green

Great Colorado Bear Stories Laura Pritchett, 2023-08-01 Great Colorado Bear Stories is an incredible look at Colorado s bears including the grizzlies that once roamed the state and the black bears that still do Carefully researched and skillfully written by award winning Colorado writer Laura Pritchett these stories describe the fascinating science and natural history of bears along with gripping tales of deadly and near death encounters with people Some stories are historical such as Roosevelt s hunting Pike s exploring and the death of Colorado s last grizzly Other tales are contemporary backyard bruins in the suburbs close encounters in the wilderness and dedicated wildlife scientists who crawl deep inside dens with the bears These stories involve hikers ranchers hunters historians Native Americans and regular folks at the moments their lives have intersected with the great bruins of Colorado

Going Green Peggy Daniels Becker, 2010-11-12 Help your readers richly explore the history of the green movement and evaluate whether or not going green makes a difference This book presents diversity of opinion on the topic including both conservative and liberal points of view in an even balance Readers will examine the benefits of reuse and recycling the impact of local food purchasing on the environment and the influence of green advertising Essay sources include Roberta Kwok Sarah Fenske Jeffrey Hollender and Jim Fedako

The Routledge Companion to Alternative Organization Martin Parker, George Cheney, Valérie Fournier, Chris Land, 2014-01-03 Despite the Great Recession slightly different forms of global capitalism are still portrayed as the only game in town by the vast majority of people in power in the world today Unbridled growth trade liberalisation and competition are advocated as the only or best ways of organizing the contemporary world Unemployment yawning gaps between rich and poor political disengagement and environmental devastation are too often seen as acceptable side effects of the dominance of neo liberalism But the reality is that capitalism has always been contested and that people have created many other ways of providing for themselves This book explores economic and organizational possibilities which extend far beyond the narrow imagination of economists and management theorists Chapters on co operatives community currencies the transition movement scrounging co housing and much more paints a rich picture of the ways in which another world is not only possible but already taking shape The aim of this companion is to move beyond complaining about the present and into exploring this diversity of organisational possibilities Our starting point is a critical analysis of contemporary global capitalism is merely the opening for thinking about organizing as a form of politics by other means and one that can be driven by the values of solidarity freedom and responsibility This comprehensive companion with an international cast of contributors gives voice to forms of organizing which remain unrepresented or marginalised in organizational studies and conventional politics yet which offer more promising grounds for social and environmental justice It is a valuable resource for students activists and researchers interested in alternative approaches to economy and society in a variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary fields Routledge International

Handbook of Green Criminology Nigel South, Avi Brisman, 2013-08-29 Academic and general interest in environmental crimes harms and threats as well as in environmental legislation and regulation has grown sharply in recent years The Routledge International Handbook of Green Criminology is the most in depth and comprehensive volume on these issues to date With contributions from leading international green criminologists and scholars in related fields the Handbook examines a wide range of substantive issues including climate change corporate criminality and impacts on the environment environmental justice media representations pollution e g air water questions of responsibility and risk wildlife trafficking The chapters explore green criminology in depth its theory history and development as well as methodological concerns for this area of academic interest With examples of environmental crimes harms and threats from Africa Asia Australia Eastern Europe South America the United Kingdom and the United States this book will serve as a vital resource for international scholars and students in criminology sociology law and socio legal studies as well as environmental science environmental studies politics and international relations The Best Women's Travel Writing 2010 Stephanie Elizondo Griest, 2010 Since publishing the original edition of A Woman s World in 1995 Travelers Tales has been the recognized leader in women s travel literature The Best Women s Travel Writing 2010 is the sixth book in an annual series that presents stimulating inspiring and uplifting adventures from women who have traveled to the ends of the earth to discover new places peoples and facets of themselves The common threads connecting these stories are a woman s perspective and fresh compelling storytelling to make the reader laugh weep wish she were there or be glad she wasn t In The Best Women s Travel Writing 2010 readers will discover the hidden magic of Flamenco in Spain walk the night and its terrors in Benin have an excellent last day in Costa Rica poke their way into the psyche of a security agent in Kabul learn something new about death and Mexico in San Miguel de Allende travel the darker side of the Hawaiian fantasy draw a map of Argentinian tango meet the best people in the world in Zimbabwe and much more The 2012 Story John Major Jenkins, 2010-10-14 From the pioneering author who helped introduce the question of 2012 into the global spiritual community comes an epic exploration of the authentic origins and meaning of this portentous date Drawing from his own groundbreaking research including his involvement in the modern reconstruction of Mayan 2012 cosmology John Major Jenkins has created the crucial guide to 2012 surveying its roots in Mayan cosmology modern astronomy ancient prophecy and metaphysical philosophy and exploring why it has become a focal point for millions today My Mom Is My Hero Susan Reynolds,2009-02-18 This touching collection of stories written by people of all ages and backgrounds will honor the most important woman in everyone s life their mother Sons and daughters can show Mom how heroic she is and how grateful they are for her daily acts of kindness gentle guidance solid wisdom and willingness to always put family first From a mother who helped her teenage daughter beat depression to one who hand built a desk from scraps for her aspiring writer son this collection provides plenty of stories to uniquely express one s gratitude and admiration for their mother or mother figure who played a starring role in their life Children will be able to give her a gift that touches her heart and that she ll be proud to display Finally Mom s everyday heroic deeds will not go unnoticed

Making Friends with Death Laura Pritchett,2017-08-29 Death is a great and grand mystery and the actual act of dying is the last physical act of our lives We can do it well like a graceful well rehearsed piano solo or we can do it like that first awkward dance with a middle school crush But if anything deserves our full attention some preparation or some renewed clarity death might be it In this light hearted irreverent exploration of the one thing that is certain in all lives Making Friends with Death offers a look at all the uncertainty that precedes this final act A compelling mix of practical how to advice and personal narrative this book encapsulates our greatest quest to make peace with death Pritchett offers up wisdom she has gleaned from all sorts of places including a decade of traditional research and a lifetime of other related but less formal pursuits digging up a dead body watching her dog be necropsied on the lawn hosting Death Caf s and confronting the grim reaper himself Making Friends with Death broaches the sacred and the scary with warmth research and humor Interspersed with a variety of workbook like exercises this book will prove to be the go to companion for anyone who would rather be able to greet death as an old friend rather than a spooky stranger The Blue Hour Laura Pritchett,2018-02-27 Winner of the 2018 Colorado Book Award Pritchett writes with an evident love for the mountains and the people that call them home Westword The residents of Blue Moon Mountain form a tight knit community of those living off the land stunned by the beauty and isolation all around them So when at the onset of winter the town veterinarian commits a violent act the repercussions of that tragedy are felt all across the mountainside upending their lives and causing their paths to twist and collide in unexpected ways The housecleaner rediscovering her sexual appetite the farrier who must take in his traumatized niece the grocer and her daughter the therapist and the teacher reaching out to the world in new and surprising ways and the ragged couple trapped in a cycle of addiction and violence They will all rise and converge upon the blue hour the l heure bleu a time of desire lust honesty and learn to navigate the often confusing paths of mourning and love Writing with passion for rural lives and the natural world Laura Pritchett who has been called one of the most accomplished writers of the American West graces the land of desire in vivid prose exploring the lengths these characters some of whom we've met in Pritchett's previous work will traverse to protect their own

Why Waste Food? Andrew F. Smith, 2020-08-06 About one third of all food grown for human consumption is lost or discarded every year despite financial environmental and ethical reasons not to waste food We grow enough food to adequately feed everyone on the planet yet hundreds of millions of people suffer from hunger malnutrition or food insecurity Together this food waste accounts for about eight percent of the world's total greenhouse gas emissions So if wasting food is such a patently bad idea why do we discard so much In Why Waste Food Andrew F. Smith investigates one of today's most pressing topics examining the causes of avoidable food waste across the supply chain and highlighting the ways in which everyone can do something to tackle this global concern
