Matthew's Account of the Massacre of the Innocents in Light of its Reception History

Sung J. Cho, 2021-10-21 Sung Cho addresses the seeming contradiction of Herod the Great's massacre in Matthew 2 16 18 questioning why such a tragedy had to occur why it was included in the good news of Jesus and what connection it has to ancient prophecies In creating a reception history of the Massacre of the Innocents Cho progresses through two millennia worth of interpretation and depiction to highlight key works for discussion Beginning with a close reading of Matthew 2 16 18 Cho moves to analyse depictions of the tragedy in the Early Patristic Tradition from the sixth century to the early modern period and thus to the present day complete with an examination of visual interpretations of the massacre Cho's examination provides a positive step to understanding the depths of human suffering with the help of many diverse perspectives U. S. Government Films National Audiovisual Center, 1969

The Guided Reader to Teaching and Learning History

Richard Harris, Katharine Burn, Mary Woolley, 2013-10-15 The Guided Reader to Teaching and Learning History draws on extracts from the published work of some of the most influential history education writers representing a range of perspectives from leading classroom practitioners to academic researchers and highlighting key debates surrounding a central range of issues affecting secondary History teachers This book brings together key extracts from classic and contemporary writing and contextualises these in both theoretical and practical terms Each extract is accompanied by an introduction a summary of the key points and issues raised questions to promote discussion and suggestions for further reading to extend thinking Taking a thematic approach and including a short introduction to each theme the chapters include The purpose of history education Pupil perspectives on history education Assessment and progression in history Inclusion in history Diversity in history Teaching difficult issues Technology and history education Change and continuity Historical Interpretations Professional development for history teachers Aimed at trainee and newly qualified teachers including those working towards Masters level qualifications as well as existing teachers this accessible but critically provocative text is an essential resource for those that wish to deepen their understanding of History Education
