For anyone wrestling with purpose, identity, or direction, this book provides a roadmap for discovering what it truly means to surrender success for significance in God's kingdom. Baptizing Business Bradley C. Smith, 2020-07-27

Baptizing Business sifts through popular perceptions regarding the relationship between business and religion and the agenda of conservative Christian business leaders, drawing on personal interviews with the most diverse group of evangelical executives yet studied. While stereotypes and previous research both emphasize the perceived incompatibility of religious mandates and business objectives, Bradley C. Smith argues that evangelical executives experience tension not because business and religion are inherently opposed but because they are made to feel like second-class citizens by members of their own faith communities. Indeed, in cases of apparent conflict between faith and business, evangelical executives insist that it is faith, not business, that must be reconceived. Smith reveals that evangelical business leaders are as inclined to export business concepts into other domains as to import religious objectives into business contexts, prompting us to reconsider the direction of influence between religious and economic life. Baptizing Business is filled with compelling stories that paint a nuanced, unbiased picture of the increasing influence of intensely religious business leaders. The spirit of capitalism, defined by Max Weber as a positive attitude toward work and wealth, finds ongoing embrace and new expression in evangelical executives and their accounts, with implications for our understanding of the faith at work movement, evangelicalism, and the role of religion among elites. Gun Lap Robert Wolgemuth, 2021-05-25

It's never too late to run life's race with purpose. In a long-distance race, when the lead runner starts his final lap, the starter fires his pistol a second time. This signals the start of the gun lap, the last chance to leave it all out on the track. Respected author Robert Wolgemuth suggests that life offers a gun lap as well: a chance to give it all you've got. And he encourages men to run the last part of life's race with perseverance and focus. Offering practical advice and biblical truth, Gun Lap will speak to older men who want to finish strong but also to younger and middle-aged men who want to run life's race with intention. There's no need to shift into neutral, no matter your age, because this could be your best lap yet. You'll be coached to continue influencing your family and community for the better. To continue caring for your soul and for your physical body. To prioritize your relationship with God and the good work you have left to do. We only get one chance to live. Keep running and do so with determination and courage. Let Gun Lap challenge you to stay in the race and relish each stride. Mansfield's Book of Manly Men Stephen Mansfield, 2013-11-26
