

The background of the cover is an abstract composition. It features a central point from which numerous rays of light or energy emanate in various colors, including red, yellow, green, blue, and purple. These rays spread outwards, creating a sense of dynamic movement. In the center, there is a cluster of small, reflective spheres in different colors (white, grey, yellow, red, green, blue) that appear to be part of the central energy source. The overall effect is vibrant and futuristic.
