Handbook Of Online Learning Innovations In Higher Education And Corporate Training:

Handbook of Online Learning Kjell Erik Rudestam, Judith Schoenholtz-Read, 2002-02-19 I found the book excellent and read every one of the 450 pages Many of the chapters reflect the Fielding Institute's focus on human and organizational behaviour educational leadership and organizational management The book will be particularly appropriate for readers from a corporate training or business school background though there is much for academics and online educators at all levels and subject areas to learn from this well crafted book There are many books and articles about online learning This is one of the better ones Robin Mason Computers and Education Technology mediated instruction has taken the university and the corporate sector by storm As more instructors teach online for a dispersed learning community in both academic and business environments there's a need for resources that will help them adapt to this new teaching method Educators who come out of traditional academic institutions tend to use traditional methods when offering courses online e.g lectures textbooks and readings examinations rather than attend to small group processes and principles of what the editors of this volume call andragogy This Handbook goes beyond the mechanics of how to create and direct an online learning experience to consider such a new approach to pedagogy in doing so The editors primary purpose is to clarify the conceptual issues that underlie effective online teaching and to offer practical guidance to educators and corporate trainers who plan to teach in a virtual environment Their central tenet is the adoption of computer networks as the teaching vehicle of the future demands a re examination of our core beliefs about pedagogy and how students learn The transfer of a classroom curriculum into cyberspace is deceptively simple but doing so without an appreciation of the nuances and implications of learning online ignores not only the potential of this medium but the inevitable realities of entering it Rather than fear the challenges that new technology brings to systems of learning the editors hope to help instructors embrace it by re thinking how knowledge is acquired and how educational processes may be optimally designed in a new age of teaching and learning Features Benefits Part I provides an overview and includes discussion of the unique structural aspects of the electronic learning environment pedagogical issues curriculum design psychological and group dynamics and ethical issues Part II examines practical issues associated with implementing courses online both in the traditional university setting and in professional/corporate training environments The book draws heavily on personal case examples many from The Fielding Graduate Institute's 26 years of teaching in nontraditional distributed learning environments

Handbook of Online Learning Kjell Erik Rudestam, Judith Schoenholtz-Read, 2009-05-15 The Handbook of Online Learning is a comprehensive reference text for teachers and administrators of online courses and programs It presents a discussion of the conceptual and theoretical foundations of online learning along with an exploration of practical implementation strategies New and Ongoing Features Emphasizes interactive teaching learning strategies challenging readers to think differently about pedagogy Provides a strong theoretical base before discussing applications Part I first presents the changing philosophies and theories of learning while Part II covers implementation or the practice of online learning Offers several chapters that deal with the issues related to the growing corporate online learning environment Includes twelve NEW articles on the latest issues such as psychology of online learning training faculty digital libraries ethical dimensions in online learning legal issues course management systems and evolving technologies key articles retained from current edition are revised and updated to reflect current trends and changes in the field Praise for the First Edition The Fielding Institute authors apply an impressive wealth of organizational management theory and experience in their analyses of computer mediated teaching and learning The result is an enjoyable to read fresh and lively book delivering an abundance of ideas about how to establish a supportive learning environment design a well structured course and manage electronically mediated dialog in other words how to successfully facilitate learning in the new context of on line distance education Michael G Moore Pennsylvania State University and Editor The American Journal of Distance Education This book is a fascinating comprehensive revealing array of information about online learning It is full of practical applications and significant implications for a future where online learning will play an increasingly larger role It is essential for any library keeping up on online learning innovations Dr Bernard J Luskin President and Co CEO GlobalLearningSystems Inc Visiting Professor Claremont Graduate University This book not only is that rare breed that addresses online learning in both higher education and corporate environments but every chapter is intriguing informative and accurately grounded This book provides a comprehensive timely and informative look at online learning in higher education and corporate training settings For an update on the state of e learning in educational and training environments simply read this book Curtis J Bonk Ph D Indiana University and Courseshare com Business and Learning have enjoyed a symbiotic relationship in our culture The pace of change however has created separation between these two vital elements The Handbook of Online Learning showcases the latest thinking and applications in learning delivery and offers real promise that the gap is being bridged D M Verkest AT T Wireless Services Vice President National Operations The authors of this book are all experienced distance educators who know what the issues are How are people engaged in teaching and learning at a distance present to one another How do you create a community in the class How can a teacher deal with an obstreperous student What are the teaching learning environments in universities and corporations as they affect distance education The essays in this book inhabit the border where the idea of distance education meets the reality The give practical advice and provide examples informed by both theory and experience Stanley Chodorow Professor Emeritus University of California San Diego Former CEO California Virtual University mission of its predecessors to provide a comprehensive compendium of research in all aspects of distance education arguably the most significant development in education over the past three decades While the book deals with education that uses technology the focus is on teaching and learning and how its management can be facilitated through technology Key features include Comprehensive coverage that includes all aspects of distance education including design instruction management policy and a section on different audiences Chapter authors frame their topic in terms of empirical research past and present and discuss the nature of current practice in terms of that research Future research needs are discussed in relation to both confirmed practice and recent changes in the field Section one provides a unique review of the theories that support distance education pedagogy Section six includes a unique review of distance education as a component of global culture This book will be of interest to anyone engaged in distance education at any level It is also appropriate for corporate and government trainers and for administrators and policy makers in all these environments Recipient of the 2013 IAP Distance Education Book Award

Distinctive Distance Education Design: Models for Differentiated Instruction Fuller, Richard G.,Kuhne, Gary William,Frey, Barbara A.,2010-07-31 This book presents a tool to assist in the planning conducting and evaluation of online learning providing a way of understanding the course development and design process drawing upon the research and theory foundations of distance education Provided by publisher

The Death of Luigi Trastulli and Other Stories Alessandro Portelli,2010-03-30 Portelli offers a new and challenging approach to oral history with an interdisciplinary and multicultural perspective Examining cultural conflict and communication between social groups and classes in industrial societies he identifies the way individuals strive to create memories in order to make sense of their lives and evaluates the impact of the fieldwork experience on the consciousness of the researcher By recovering the value of the story telling experience Portelli s work makes delightful reading for the specialist and non specialist alike

Place-Based Spaces for Networked Learning Lucila Carvalho,Peter Goodyear,Maarten de Laat,2016-07-01 With the boundaries of place softened and extended by digital communications technologies learning in a networked society necessitates new distributions of activity across time space media and people and this development is no longer exclusive to formally designated spaces such as school classrooms lecture halls or research laboratories Place based Spaces for Networked Learning explores how qualities of physical places make both formal and informal education in a networked society possible Through a series of investigations and case studies it illuminates the structural composition and functioning of complex learning environments This book offers a wealth of key design elements and attributes for productive learning that educational designers can reuse in multiple contexts The chapters examine how places are modified expanded or supplemented by networking technologies and practices in order to create spaces in which learners can collaboratively develop new understandings connections and capabilities Utilizing a range of diverse but complementary perspectives from anthropology archaeology architecture geography psychology sociology and urban studies Place based Spaces for Networked Learning addresses how material places and digital spaces are understood how sense can be made of new assemblages and configurations of tasks tools and people how the real time analysis of new flows of data can inform and entertain users of a space and how access to the digital realm changes our experiences with both places and other people Enhancing Instruction with Visual Media: Utilizing Video and Lecture Capture Smyth, Ellen G.,Volker, John X.,2013-04-30 This book offers unique approaches for integrating visual media into an instructional environment by covering the impact media has on student learning and various visual options to use in the classroom Provided by publisher The e-HR Advantage Deborah D. Waddill Ed.D.,Michael J. Marquardt Ed.D.,2011-10-04 This must have guide is essential to managing the ever evolving technological developments in the workplace The 21st century workplace thrives on internet enabled connectivity and technology and these new applications allow human resource professionals to make the work of developing and managing the workforce faster easier and more effective The e HR Advantage explores the positive impact of technology upon the workplace how we work learn and manage ourselves and others With best practices for implementation and case studies from around the world this complete handbook provides a framework for understanding the significance of technology in the workplace Human resource professionals who master these technologies will secure their seat at the table From social networking and e recruiting to technology support for knowledge management The e HR Advantage examines the various avenues of human resources on the digital front Developing and Delivering Adult Degree Programs James P. Pappas,Jerry Jerman,2014-02-25 This issue explores the growing field of adult degree programs andconsiders the theoretical underpinnings of such programs andhands on issues as curriculum faculty marketing technology financing and accreditation all with a goal of informing andequipping both scholars and practitioners More and more adults who have been out of school for many yearshave turned to colleges and universities to complete undergraduateand graduate degrees that will make them competitive in theworkforce fulfill a professional requirement or enrich themintellectually Higher education institutions and many privateorganizations have responded to this demand by creating innovatedegree programs aimed specifically at mature learners students whowant to self design their educational programs and do not hesitateto change institutions if they believe their needs are not beingmet This explosive growth in adult degree programs is largely theresult of distance education technologies and the Internet Othersignificant factors include the potential such programs have forproviding additional revenue streams for institutions the fiercecompetition from the private sector and other higher educationinstitutions and the rising interest in interdisciplinaryprograms This is the 103rd volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly reportseries New Directions for Adult and ContinuingEducation □□□□,2005 Student Engagement in the Digital University Lesley Gourlay,Martin Oliver,2018-02-02 Student Engagement in the Digital University challenges mainstream conceptions and assumptions about students engagement with digital resources in Higher Education While engagement in online learning environments is often reduced to sets of transferable skills or typological categories the authors propose that these experiences must be understood as embodied socially situated and taking place in complex networks of human and nonhuman actors Using empirical data from a JISC funded project on digital literacies this book performs a sociomaterial analysis of student technology interactions complicating the optimistic and utopian narratives surrounding technology and education today and positing far reaching implications for research policy and practice Cases on Technological
