[With Plates, Including a Portrait.] Walter Scott, 1830 The Identity of Israel's God in Christian Scripture Don Collett, Mark Elliott, Mark Gignilliat, Ephraim Radner, 2021-01-29 A broad sweeping volume that breaches the walls separating biblical and theological disciplines Biblical scholars and theologians engage an important question Who is Israel's God for Christian readers of the Old Testament For Christians Scripture is the Old and New Testament bound together in a single legacy Contributors approach the question from multiple disciplinary vantage points Essays on both Testaments focus on figural exegesis critical exegesis and the value of diachronic understandings of the Old Testament's compositional history for the sake of a richer synchronic reading This collection is offered in celebration of the life and work of Christopher R Seitz His rich and wide ranging scholarly efforts have provided scholars and students alike a treasure trove of resources related to this critical question The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, 1911 The Encyclopædia Britannica, 1910 Misrecognitions Ben Parker, 2024-03-15 Misrecognitions mounts a vigorous defense of the labyrinthine plotting of Victorian novels notorious for their implausible concluding revelations and coincidences Critics have long decried Victorian recognition scenes the reunions and retroactive discoveries of identity that too conveniently bring the story to a close as regrettable contrivances Ben Parker counters this view by showing how these recognition scenes offer a critique of the social and economic misrecognitions at work in nineteenth century capitalism Through a meticulous analysis of novels by Charles Dickens Anthony Trollope and Henry James as well as Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes stories Misrecognitions tracks how the Victorian novel translates the financialized abstractions of capital into dramas of buried secrets and disguised relations Drawing on Karl Marx's account of commodity fetishism and reification Parker contends that by configuring capital as an enigma to be unveiled Victorian recognition scenes dramatize the inversions of agency and temporality that are repressed in capitalist production In plotting capital as an agent of opacity and misdirection Victorian novels and their characteristic dialectic of illusion and illumination reveal the plot hole in capitalism itself
